Genealogical Information

Birth

Meghan Olivia McGehee, daughter of Christine (Keating) and Thomas Sam McGehee (18279), was born 14 Dec 1997 in Wichita KS.

Deaths

Barbara Jean (Watkins) Dunham (25120) died 28 Sep 1996.

Franklyn Edwin Oakley, husband of Marie Alice (Coil) Oakley (25100), died 6 Jan 1997 in Hop Bottom, Susquehanna, PA; cremated, no burial.

Lindsay "Red" Jewett (24394) died 2 Apr 1997 in Fall River Mills CA. Burial was at Pine Grove Cemetery in McArthur CA. (His obituary will appear in the next Quarterly.)

Shirley Elizabeth (Jewett) Bickford Manning (24750) died 18 Oct 1997. She was living in Le Place LA at the time of her death. Burial was in Buckley WA.

Milton Blaise Mary Sr. (16352) died 18 Mar 1998 in New Orleans LA. Burial was at Greenwood Cemetery. He was born in 1913, not 1912 as recorded in Volume III of the History and Genealogy of the Jewetts of America. (His obituary will appear in the next Quarterly.)

Please forward information on upcoming local Jewett reunions as well as descriptions of the reunions after they are held. A family reunion is the ideal time to up-date genealogical information as well as to make corrections to data already obtained. Have all the attendees go through their entries in Volumes III and IV to be sure that they are accuarate and up-to-date. There is still a lot of missing information!

The Jewett Automobile Revisited

Dear Members of the Jewett Family of America,

Harry M. Jewett

Although I am not a member of the Jewett Family of America, I have had an abiding interest in the Jewett Family for over two decades. Please allow me to explain. In 1975 I purchased, and subsequently restored, a 1930 Graham-Paige automobile. Over the years I attempted to learn as much as possible about this nearly forgotten make of automobile. The fruit of this endeavor has been several privately printed authenticity guides for the Graham Owners Club, International, an enthusiastic involvement in the same club (eventually serving in all capacities including two terms as president), and a comprehensive collection of Graham-Paige sales and technical literature and memorabilia.

How does all this personal history relate to the members of the Jewett Family of America, you may ask? In 1927 the Graham brothers purchased the Paige-Detroit Motor Car Company, forming the Graham-Paige Motors Corporation. The president of the Paige-Detroit Motor Car Company from 1910 to its sale to Graham in 1927 was Harry M. Jewett [Note: son of Arthur Leroy Jewett (4778)]. My research into the Paige-Detroit Motor Car Company and Harry M. Jewett was far reaching; from his ancestors and family life, to his academic and athletic stardom at the University of Notre Dame (in addition to being first in his class academically, he also was the world's champion in the 100 yard dash and scored that storied school's very first touchdown), to his impressive tenure as head of one of America's prestige automobile manufacturer. Too, "Haf" Jewett was the namesake of the Jewett automobile produced during the 1920's.

Now that you can relate to my interest in Jewett Family history, I can explain why I am addressing you in this note. My research has culminated in a manuscript which has recently been accepted for publication. My book, The Graham Legacy: Graham-Paige to 1932, will treat both Graham and Jewett history. This hardcover 232 page volume will detail the Graham family, and its involvement in the glass, truck, and automobile industries. There is also a long and comprehensive chapter detailing the life and career of H.M. Jewett, and an examination of Paige and Jewett automobiles. This particular chapter was exciting to me as a researcher and writer because so very little had been written previously about this fascinating man and his company.

Through the courtesy and co-operation of Mr. Alfred "Ted" Loranz, and with the thought that a number of members of the Jewett family of America would have an interest in such a volume, a pre-publication brochure will be sent to you for your perusal. The brochure will further detail the contents of the book, and will include a pre-publication discount. The volume will be shipped by December of this year.

Harry M. Jewett was a fascinating man. I was privileged to have researched his intriguing life. Thank you for allowing me to address you through this quarterly. I hope to be able to share a good deal of Jewett history with you.

Cluster 4778[1]

Cluster 4778 contains information on the family of Harry M. Jewett who is featured in the article, "The Jewett Automobile Revisited", on page 28. The new information was found in the Supplemental Files of the Jewett Family of America, Inc. This is one of the many files that was not incorporated into Volumes III and IV. Does anyone have information on the living descendants of this line so that we can bring it up to date? The last entry is the 1955 obituary of Mary Visscher Wendell Jewett, the wife of Harry M. Jewett.

Jewett Families
Buried at Whitefield Cemetery
Wiscasset Road, US Highway 218, Whitefield, Maine

Barbara Jewett Shaw
RR4 Box 6720, Gardiner ME 04345

During the July 1996 Jewett Family of America Natuonal Reunion, I told several Jewetts that I was in the process of gathering burial dates on all Jewetts buried in the Whitefield Cemetery, US Highway 218, Wiscasset Road, Whitefield ME. The is cemetery has beautiful granite work; such as long granite slabs holding stones, huge granite steps going up a portion of its hill, and long granite blocks bordering many lots. I belive this work was done in the late 1800's and early 1900's.

My grasndparents seven generations ago, Moses and Elizabeth (Pulsifer) Jewett (1369), first moved to Newcastle ME during 1785 from Ipswich MA. The portion of town in which they settled later broke away from Newcastle to become the town of Alna ME. With town boundaries changing again, Moses and Elizabeth Jewett's residence became part of Whitefield ME. They never moved but did own land in both Whitefield and Alna as they lived on the townline between the two towns.

Two of Amos's brothers accompanied him to Newcastle ME in 1785. They were Jeremiah Jewett (1368) who never married and Col. James Jewett (1371) who married Lydia Hilton. Many of James's descendants still live in Alna ME. James, who died 4 Aug 1819, is buried in Alna Cemetery, US Route 218, Alna ME.

Most of the descendants of Moses and Elizabeth Jewett (1369) are buried in the Whitefield Cemetery which was incorporated in 1847. Many of the grave markers are dated as early as 1806. Several graves are unmarked. It is one of the oldest of the 25 to 30 cemeteries in Whitefield. It is also the largest cemetery in the town on about 20 acres with room to expand. Most of the Jewetts buried in Whitefield Cemetery are from Cluster 2735 in Volume IV of the History and Genealogy of the Jewetts of America.

I believe that most of the granite work done in Whitefield cemetery and surrounding towns in the 1800 and 1900's was done by my great grandfather, Eugene Clinton Jewett (7129), and his three sons; my grandfather Frank Clinton Jewett (9160), Percy Eugene Jewett (9161) and Bert Dummer Jewett (9162).

Eugine Clinton Jewett owned and operated the Whitefield ME granite quarry from which he and his sons harvested granite and then refined it at his granite stone shed. Eugene was born 17 May 1847 and died 7 Jun 1915. His youngest son, Bert, stayed and lived on the farm and inherited the farm and quarry business. When Bert became ill and died 30 Nov 1942, the business ceased to exist since no one wanted to continue it.

Although Whitefield Cemetery contains most of the Jewett Burials, there are some buried in nearby towns such as Alna, Pittston, Gardiner, Hallowell, Jefferson, Breman, Monmouth and Westport as well as the other cemeteries in Whitefield. The Maine veterans cemetery also has Jewett burials.

I do not think that any descendants of Moses and Elizabeth Jewett live any longer in Whitefield except for maybe one. Whitefield is now a bedroom town for the capitol city of Augusta. Most Jewett descendant families live in neighboring towns or have moved out of the Whitefield area. In Alna ME there are at least two families descended from Joseph Jewett (2736) and two families from James Jewett (1371).

Endnotes

1. In the 1900 census, George E. Nute's birth is given as Jul 1855, in Illinois. After his birth, Sylvia (Haradon) Jewett wrote from Hornby, NY, on 12 Aug 1855, to her daughter, Sylvia D. (Jewett) Nute: "My heart is too full for expression and so you must expect a motly and unconnected style. How I want to see you and Edward and that little grand child--I want you to tell me how much he weighs and just how he looks the color of his eyes and kiss him for me. You know I cannot he is so far away. . . . I shall hold you to your promise to come out next fall if our lives are spared allthough there is a long winter and summer of uncertaintey between. Now don't make no bugbears and say you can't come. Make your calculations, rent what you have so as to stay a spell or always. I say come out of that sickly country, what can you enjoy if not your health. I should think more of a cottage here and see my children around me with rosy cheeks and mirthfull looks than to live in the costliest frostbitten domes of the west. I will sell my cow and send you the money and then what excuse but you have a good while to think them up in so I will say no more about it, but shall hope . . . I like your boy's names but think he has too many--better saved some." (Original of this letter is in the possession of Grant Jewett Sharman of Corning, NY.)

2. "George E. C. Nute of Barrington Cook Co Ill, of the age of 19 years" (Petition by Anna Maria Garnett, dated 3 Aug 1874, for administration of estate of Thomas Jewett, died 22 May 1873, Hornby, Steuben Co., NY, without a will).

"George E. C. Nute of the age of 21 years resides at Barrington Cook County Illinois son of said Sylvia D. Nute deceased and grandson of said Sylvia Jewett deceased" (Petition by Anna Maria Garnett, dated 12 Apr 1877, Hornby, Steuben Co., NY, for proof of the will of Sylvia Jewett, died 2 Mar 1877, at Hornby).

3. The 1900 Illinois census shows that George E. Nute had been married for 19 years and resided in the Township of Dundee, Village of West Dundee. In 1905 legal documents related to settlement of the estate of the deceased Anna Maria (Jewett) Garnett, George Nute, her nephew, is listed as living at Dundee, IL; in 1907 legal documents related to settlement of the estate of the deceased Amos Jewett, "George Nute and Mrs. George Nute" are named (Family papers preserved by Clara A. (Jewett) Morrow). The 1929 probate papers for George E. Nute, which were provided by the Dundee Township Historical Society to Jean M. Ward, 30 Jul 1997, name his deceased wife as Harriet Brewer Nute and list his four surviving children: Eva Nute Radloff, Willie Nute, Roy Nute, and Harry Nute.

4. Information on the life of Laura (Jewett) Wheaton is taken from her published obituary, provided by Grant Jewett Sharman of Corning, NY.

5. Information on J. Henry Wheaton is taken from the published obituary of his wife, Laura (Jewett) Wheaton, and from notes provided by Susan J. Moore, Hornby Town Historian.

6. Information for Amos J. Wheaton and his wife is taken from an obituary and other material provided in Jul of 1997 by Susan J. Moore, Hornby Town Historian, and from notes by Grant Jewett Sharman of Corning, NY.

7. Information on Thomas Platt Jewett is taken from his obituary, published in the Corning Evening Ledger, 28 Sept 1946, and from additional material provided by his grandson, Grant Jewett Sharman of Corning, NY.

8. Information on Elizabeth (Rogers) Jewett was provided by Grant Jewett Sharman, her grandson, and by Susan J. Moore, Hornby Town Historian.

9. Information on the wife and sons of Glendon Jewett Smith is taken from family papers saved by Clara A. (Jewett) Morrow, including dated postcards announcing the births of his sons.

10. In a letter from Riceville, IA, dated 11 May 1893, Clara's father, Nelson Messer Jewett, wrote to his brother Amos, in Hornby, Steuben Co., NY: "Clara will graduate in June but expects to stay another year in school. She is the sweetest alto I have ever heard and hope she will earn enough teaching after she leaves school to take a course at the Boston Conservatory of Music. . . . Clara has a Demorest Silver Medal and a Good Templar Gold Medal, which she won at Mason City. So you see if Dad dont amount to anything the children get there." (The original letter is in the possession of Grant Jewett Sharman; several of Clara's speaking medals are in the possession of Jean M. Ward.)

Programs saved in family papers show a number of concerts in which Clara performed, both as vocal soloist and piano accompaniest in Riceville, IA, and later in North Dakota. For example, "Miss Clara Jewett" sang solos and played with the Center Band, Center, ND, in the early 1900s. When Waldemar Von Geltch presented a violin concert at New Salem, ND, "Mrs. A. C. Morrow" was "at the piano, with the New Salem Concert Band." (Original programs are in the possession of Jean M. Ward.)

11. A receipt saved in family papers shows that "Miss Clara Jewett" enrolled at the Gottschalk Lyric School, directed by L.G. Gottschalk, Chicago, IL, on 9 Sep 1895, with $50 paid for the first term, which expired 16 Nov 1895. (Original receipt is in the possession of Jean M. Ward.) How long Clara remained at the school has not been determined but, according to family oral history, Clara's father and brother eventually came to Chicago "to take her home to Riceville, IA," because "they thought she was too young to be on her own in Chicago."

12. Homestead documents in family papers show that Clara Augusta Jewett received Patent #112361, dated 17 Feb 1910, for the "Northeast quarter of Section thirty-two in township one hundred forty-two north of Range eighty-four west of the Fifth Principal Meridian, North Dakota, containing one hundred sixty acres." The deed was registered as Doc. #11702, with the Office of Register of Deeds, State of North Dakota, County of Oliver, Book 1 of Patents, p. 156, 12 May 1910, and sent to "Mrs. A.C. Morrow, Center, ND." (Original documents are in the possession of Jean M. Ward).

13. Information for 1621-24, 1621-27, 1621-28, 1621-29, and their families was provided by Grant Jewett Sharman of Corning, Steuben Co, NY, to Jean M. Ward, 26 Mar 1998. Information for 1621-32, 1621-33, and their families is from the Jewett, Morrow, and Guske family papers in the possession of Jean M. Ward. Information for 14285 may be found in History and Genealogy of the Jewett Family of America, Vol. III; additional information was provided by C. Lincoln Jewett of Darien, CT, to Jean M. Ward, in a letter dated 31 Jan 1998.

14. Information for 1621-35, 1621-36, 1621-37, 1621-38, 1621-40, 1621-41, and their families was provided by Grant Jewett Sharman of Corning, NY, to Jean M. Ward, 26 Mar 1998. Information for 1621-43, 1621-44, 1621-45, and 1621-46 is from the Guske, Morrow, and Ward family papers in the possession of Jean M. Ward.

15. Information for 1621-47, 1621-49, and their families was provided by Grant Jewett Sharman of Corning, NY, to Jean M. Ward, 26 Mar 1998. Information for 1621-61 and 1621-65 is from the Ward and Guske family papers in the possession of Jean M. Ward.
