THE 1961 JEWETT REUNION — AN INVITATION

The last clause of the purposes of the Jewett Family of America is stated in the articles of incorporation reads: "The holding of reunions of the family from time to time for promoting good fellowship". Such a reunion shall be held in Rowley, Massachusetts on Friday and Saturday, August 25 and 26, 1961. All those by the name of Jewett by marriage or birth, as well as those who are descended from Jewetts are invited to attend. Let us all rally around in the town where the Jewetts first settled in America.

The last reunion in Rowley was held in 1955 to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of the first association of the Jewett Family of America. Fifty-one years ago the Commonwealth of Massachusetts granted a charter to the Jewett Family of America. No reunion was held on the fiftieth anniversary. It is past time that we did, so the Directors of your Family Association voted to hold one in Rowley this year. This may be the most important Family Reunion since the Incorporation of the Jewett Family in 1910.

When the Jewett Family was first incorporated, there apparently was some consideration given to a proposed Jewett Memorial Building in Rowley for on page 167 of the 1912-13 Year Book is reference to an informal dinner in New York City to introduce our first President — General Edgar B. Jewett of Buffalo, New York — to members of the family there. We quote from the Year Book, "The President submitted the date of the reunion and also a colored sketch of a proposed Jewett Memorial Building at Rowley". This did not come into being.

The minutes of the last Directors meeting of the Jewett Family of America held in Brookline, Massachusetts on November 5, 1960 report that a committee be appointed under the chairmanship of Mr. E. Tilson Peabody of Detroit, Michigan to investigate the possibilities of the establishment and construction of a Jewett Memorial Building in or near Rowley. This committee will report at the reunion.

Let us plan our schedules now so that we may be in Rowley on August 25 and 26, 1961. Invite others by the name of Jewett, as well as those who are of Jewett descent, for this is a good occasion to increase the membership in our Family. Let us make this the largest reunion ever in tribute to one of the pioneer families in America, who settled in Rowley, Massachusetts, a town that still retains some of the features of a colonial village that raised sturdy Americans.

The tentative program for the reunion under the Chairmanship of Everett D. Jewett with the able assistance of Miss Marion Todd of Rowley, Mr. Shepard L. Jewett of Lynn ,Massachusetts, Mr. Arthur Jewett of Clinton, Massachusetts, Mr. Albert Haley of Rowley, Mr. Porter Jewett Perkins of Hamilton, Massachusetts, and others is arranged to give those attending ample opportunity to visit, not only the points of interest in Rowley, but to allow sufficient time to explore many of the other historical sights in Essex County: The Ipswich Historical House built in 1635, the Marine Museum and the Essex Institute in Salem, Massachusets, and many other places. The collection of Jewett material will be on display, also the early communion cups used in the first and second Churches in Rowley.

Registration will be in the parlor of the Rowley Historical House on Friday, August 25; planned tours will be arranged for that afternoon; a reception at the Historical House to the officers and directors on Friday evening. Saturday morning, August 26 will be reserved for the business meeting; and following the dinner an interesting speaker will be provided.

We, the officers and directors, as well as the reunion committee, look forward to your responding to our efforts to make this a great occasion.

DIRECTORS' MEETING

Hotel Beaconsfield, Brookline, Massachusetts

November 5, 1960

Present:

Raymond D. Jewett, Springfield, Mass., First Vice President Presiding
Judge Theo S. Jewett, Laconia, New Hampshire
E. Tilson Peabody, Detroit, Michigan
Shepard L. Jewett, Lynn, Mass.
Everett D. Jewett, Rowley, Mass., Clerk

The report of the last meeting of the Directors was read and approved.

Roger Jewett of North Adams, Mass., was nominated and elected President of the Association to serve until a successor is elected.

Herschel C. Jewett of Mason, Michigan, retiring president, was nominated and elected Director to fill vacancy.

On motion seconded it was voted to hold a reunion in Rowley, Mass., in 1961 with Everett D. Jewett as chairman of the reunion committee. The date of the reunion is to be set by the chairman.

On motion seconded it was voted to issue a yearbook in 1961 and that the yearbook shall contain a report of this meeting, an introduction to the new president and plans of the president together with his ideas of the promotion of the Association. The secretary and treasurer was given authority to draw on the necessary funds from the Suffolk Savings Bank, Boston to finance this yearbook, providing that the funds in the checking account in the Ipswich National Bank are not sufficient.

On motion seconded it was voted to increase the annual dues to the Association from $1.00 to $2.00 a year; that a slip be enclosed with the dues bills explaining the reason for the increase.

On motion seconded it was voted to request life members to pay a subscription fee of $1.00 for the yearbook to help defray the cost of publishing.

On motion seconded, it was voted that the preservation of the important records of the Association is necessary and shall be accomplished and that steps be taken to accomplish it.

On motion seconded it was voted to appoint a Jewett Library Committee to plan, finance, locate, name and build an appropriate fireproof building for the storage, cataloguing and preservation of the records and momentos of the Jewett Family. Such committee to report to the Board of Directors who will grant final approval.

On motion seconded it was voted that the secretary and treasurer of the Jewett Family Association shall be a member and secretary of this committee.

On motion seconded it was voted that E. Tilson Peabody shall be chairman of this committee with authority to appoint the other members of the committee exclusive of the secretary and treasurer.

On motion seconded it was voted that any proposed building to be considered shall be erected in the town of Rowley, Mass., or the vicinity thereof.

Voted to adjourn until the reunion in 1961.

Respectfully submitted,

EVERETT D. JEWETT, Clerk

INTRODUCING OUR NEWLY-ELECTED PRESIDENT

Roger Jewett comes from a line of Jewetts that have been active and interested in the Jewett Family of America since its inception.

Dr. Charles Jewett, Chairman of the Second Reunion although unable to attend at the last moment, and the first Vice President of the Jewett Family of America, was his grandfather's brother. Dr. Charles Jewett died on August 29, 1910 shortly after the Second Reunion.

Dr. Charles Jewett's brother, Dr. Frederick A. Jewett, was Treasurer of the Second Reunion Committee.

Two other brothers were charter members including Edwin Hale Jewett, Roger's grandfather. All of Edwin Hale Jewett's family, his wife, Lizzie, his daughter, Ruth, and his sons, Edwin, Jr. and Arthur Crawford were charter members.

Roger's father, Arthur Crawford, served as an honorary Vice President in Connecticut and Pennsylvania when he lived there. Also, the President-Elect served as an honorary Vice President in Pennsylvania before moving to Massachusetts. His second cousin, Dr. John F. Jewett, has served as honorary Vice President for Massachusetts. His father, Arthur Crawford, had been asked to serve as Chairman of our 1955 Reunion but declined for reasons of health.

At birth our new President was named Arthur Roger Jewett but since has first name was never used at home or at school, he chose to drop the first name. He was born in Bangor, Maine on March 16, 1904.

His education was obtained at grade schools in Maine, Massachusetts, Ohio and Connecticut in that order. His High School was the Hillhouse High School in New Haven, Connecticut. He also went to the Phillips-Exeter Academy. He started at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology where he says he found out he was not cut out to be an engineer.

He started to work in the banking business in New York City and at the same time furthered his education by taking night school courses under the sponsorship of the American Institute of Banking at Columbia University and New York University. Later, he took additional courses at the University of Pittsburgh.

His banking career in New York, Boston and Pittsburgh, in that order, lasted from 1925 until about 1937 or 1939. Then he became interested in civics and in industrial development work. He became the Secretary-Manager of the Monessen, Pennsylvania Industrial Commission in October 1939 and since then has served with the Pennsylvania Department of Commerce and Chambers of Commerce in New Castle, Philadelphia and Reading, all in Pennsylvania until he became the Executive Director of the Northern Berkshire Development Corporation headquartered in North Adams, Massachusetts in July 1957, which post he holds today. While in this field, he has been active in associations related thereto and is now an active member of the American Industrial Development Council, an organization of professional men in that field.

While serving in these various civic posts, he has been active in other community organizations such as serving on the Council of Boy Scouts in one location and the Campfire Girls in another. He served as a member of the Council of the Historical Society of Berks County and Chairman of its Program Committee for a number of years while in Reading, Pennsylvania.

He married Sara A. Clarke in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania in August 1941 and adopted her son, David. They are the parents of three children, John R. born on September 15, 1942, Blanche Lind born on March 26, 1944 and Edwin Everett born on August 3, 1948. His wife died on August 8, 1948. Mr. Jewett married Evelyn L. Shaner in Reading, Pennsylvania on November 13, 1952.

The Jewetts live on Hopper Road in Williamstown, Massachusetts. They enjoy country living for their home is three miles southwest of the center of the "Village Beautiful", as Williamstown is so aptly known. They are members of the First Congregational Church of Williamstown.

TABLET AT SITE OF FIRST, SECOND AND THIRD MEETING HOUSE, ROWLEY

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

To the Jewetts of America:

I salute you.

Elsewhere in these pages is a copy of the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Jewett Family of America, Incorporated held in Brookline, Massachusetts on November 5, 1960. They are worthy of your thoughtful reading. I shall refer to them later, but close to the beginning, they tell of the election of a new President.

When your faithful Clerk and Secretary came to call on me at my office on November 11th, I imagined that he would report on the reaction to the suggestion of the establishment of a library. I anticipated that it might mean a request for more of my time in connection herewith. Little did I imagine that I was to be asked to accept the presidency. The more I thought of it; this was an honor and a challenge that I could not refuse, although I did tell our Secretary that there must be others better qualified.

Later, I read the Yearbooks of 1911 and 1912 which my father had left to me, as he has our copy of the two volume history. When I recognized the part my ancestors in the two previous generations had taken in our Family Association, I felt an obligation to carry on. I pledge to do my best in my own limited way. But what should our goals be?

First, we should try to strengthen our Family Association in every way. Notice I say "we" because this must be a concerted effort on the part of all of our active members and all of our members should be active. Our numbers should grow considerably — at least to 1000, for there are many times that number in the United States today. This is substantiated by the estimates of our esteemed past president, George A. Jewett. It suggests the re-reading of the Year Books of 1911 and 1912.

Incidentally, it is appropriate that the annual dues be increased to $2.00 for this is the first time they have been increased since the beginning of the organization. You know that today's dollar is worth less than half that of 1910-12.

Secondly, of course, I favor the establishment of a suitable library to preserve the important records of the family. I shall work closely with the Committee named by the Board of Directors and make this a major goal. You shall hear more about this before long.

It is most appropriate that the Board of Directors have chosen to hold a Reunion in Rowley this summer. It probably should have been held in the summer of 1960 for it was fifty years ago that the Second Reunion was held and the Jewett Family of America organized and incorporated.

The Board of Directors have adopted a program with which I wholeheartedly concur and which, in itself, is quite a first-year program for a new President.

Several steps should be taken to implement this program. I hope to meet with the Directors before long to make some suggestions for their approval, in turn to be submitted to you. Let us start now to plan to attend this belated 50th anniversary reunion in Rowley on Friday and Saturday, August 25 and 26, 1961.

I give you fair warning, you may be called upon to help accomplish the immediate goals referred to with emphasis now on building the strength of the organization. I am sure we can increase the number of members. In fact, I have been noting the listings of Jewetts in the phone books as I visit various cities and towns. They may receive invitations to join. You can help increase our rolls right away, if you will, please.

I want to improve our communications for you should hear from your Family Association more than once a year. You will if we build sufficiently. You may expect to hear from us more as we develop our plans for the Reunion.

Remember our motto "Toujours la meme."

Your servant,

ROGER JEWETT

President

EARLY COMMUNION CUPS - FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, ROWLEY

REVEREND JEDEDIAH JEWETT

Contributed by

Marian G. Todd

Secretary of the Rowley Historical Society

For some time I have been of the opinion that it would be well to furnish the Jewett Family Yearbook with more information on the Reverend Jedediah Jewett, fifth minister of Rowley.

I remember that the late Deacon Amos Jewett had prepared a sketch for the Rowley Historical Society which I feel is worthy of reprinting.

When the members of the Jewett Family Association visit Rowley in August 1961 they will be interested to find that the burial place of the Reverend Mr. Jewett is in the Minister's Lot near the Cemetery entrance about opposite the Jewett Family Boulder.

The following article was written by the late Amos E. Jewett for the Fourth Home Gathering of Ye Town of Rowley in Massachusetts 1639-1922 in ye meeting-house of ye First Congregational Church on Sunday, September 10th at 3 o'clock:

"Jedediah Jewett, fifth minister of the First Church in Rowley, was born June 3rd, 1705. He was a great-grandson of Maximilian Jewett, one of the first deacons of the church, and the only native son to serve here as pastor. He was graduated from Harvard College in the class of 1726, and was ordained November 19th, 1729, as a colleague of Reverend Edward Payson, and succeeded the latter as pastor in 1732.

"About the year 1730 he erected a house on Central Street opposite the residence of the late C. R. Titcomb. Many of the present generation will recall this house.

"Many changes of importance to the Church and Town occurred during his ministry.

"In 1731, the Second Parish, in New Rowley, now Georgetown, was set off, and the old Church, the affairs of which had previously been managed by the Town were controlled independently by the Parish.

"About five years later, the various parcels of land bequeathed by Ezekiel Rogers were divided between the parishes and Harvard College, recorded August 26, 1736.

"In 1747, the parish voted to build a new meeting-house with a steeple and spire; this house was completed in 1749 and stood on or very near the site of the first one.

"Events that stirred the people of Rowley, as indeed all New England, were the capture of Louisburg in 1745, and the fall of Quebec in 1759. As a result of these and other battles, the French power in America was broken after a struggle lasting more than a century and a half. Many men in Mr. Jewett's parish were engaged in these wars and fell on these battlefields or perished on the march through the wilderness.

"Mr. Jewett himself was a member of Captain John Northend's alarm list in 1757.

"In 1755, fourteen 'French neutrals', immortalized by Longfellow in Evangeline, who had been transported from Acadia, were allotted to Rowley. Some of them sleep in unmarked graves in the cemetery.

"That Mr. Jewett was a man of ability and judgment, as well as a faithful parish minister, we learn from the record which says: 'he was so pious, charitable, prudent and patient as to be an example to his flock.'

"Two slaves, inherited from his father-in-law, Richard Dummer, were given their freedom, and in his will provisions made for their maintenance.

"Mr. Jewett was elected moderator of the Essex North Association at its organization in 1761 which office he held until his death.

"He died on the eve of the Revolution. The following is from the diary of Ezra Stiles, President of Yale College: 'June 16, 1774, on the 8th of May last died Reverend Jedediah Jewett of Rowley age 69, min. 45. He was a prophet in his own country Rowley being the place of his nativity.'

"The parish voted to defray the expense of his funeral and erect a suitable monument over his grave."

Eleazer Jewett

Mrs. Barbara Dorn of Saginaw, Michigan has furnished us with the following information about Eleazer Jewett #2866:

Eleazer Jewett was the first surveyor to trace lines in the Saginaw Valley. He was a native of New Hampshire and came to Saginaw in the summer of 1826. He and Asa Whitney — who preceded him — built a log hut on the banks of the Tittabawassee River at Greenpoint. They passed the winter of 1826-27 in the employ of the American Fur Company. Whitney was accidently drowned in the river near their camp the following April. That year Eleazer Jewett became Factor of the company and established a trading post at the fork of the Tittabawassee and Pine Rivers near the present site of Midland, Michigan. This act so displeased the Indians that Eleazer was threatened with death if he continued business there. He treated the threats lightly, not believing the chiefs with whom he sustained the most cordial relations, would allow their braves to molest him.

One day he saw more than one hundred blood thirsty warriors approaching the post along the narrow trail — the only thoroughfare through the woods in those days. Although the Indians were in full war dress, he refused to be bluffed and appeared at the door of the post with gifts of tobacco for Chief Oge-maw-ke-ke-to. When the chief refused the gifts he realized that they were serious and he retired hastily and bolted the door for defense. He had a half breed assistant, many guns and plenty of ammunition. Many tomahawks were launched and half buried in the door of hewed planks. Mr. Jewett fired several shots over the heads of the Indians and a few charges of fine shot at their legs, taking care not to inflict much harm. Seeing that the trader meant business and didn't intend to give up the post, the chief called off the braves and no further attack was made. The old chief had high esteem for personal courage. The next day he visited the post alone, was admitted and given a hearty meal. This was soon repeated and a similar reception given. On his third visit he accepted an offer of tobacco. He spoke then for the first time. "My pale face friend, I did wrong in seeking your life, but now it is over and we are friends forever". He always kept his word and there was no more trouble.

On October 22, 1831, Eleazer Jewett married Azubah L. Miller — a sister of Albert Miller, a prominent citizen of Saginaw and Bay City. She was born in Hartland, Vermont of old Puritan stock. She came to Michigan with her mother in 1831 and settled in Grand Blanc where she was a teacher. The wedding trip took a week; they proceeded the seven miles to Flint by wagon, thence by dug-out canoe, with numerous occasions to portage, to their home. In 1837, they built a hotel in Saginaw which they kept until 1859. Mr. Jewett also owned a ferry capable of transporting a horse across the river. He also served as Probate Judge. On his retirement in 1860, they moved to a farm in Kochville Township where he died in 1875.

Eleazer and Azubah Jewett had four children: Mary who was born in 1834 and married Dr. N. D. Lee; Wallace who was killed in the Battle of Gettysburg, July 2, 1863; Alonzo of whom nothing is known and Oscar who received his education in the Saginaw schools, spent the first ten years of his business career in the lumber trade; served in the Civil War fighting Indians in Nevada where he had many thrilling experiences. He married in 1866, Fannie Tomlinson; after her death he married Alice Wells. He was the Marshall of Saginaw City from 1874 to 1878.

Admiral David Jewett

On page 334 of the Jewett Genealogy is a short account of the life of Admiral David Jewett who served in the United States Navy during the French War of 1798 when he commanded the ship Trumbull, later serving in the Buenos Ayrean Navy until its independence was established, after which he was appointed Admiral Commander-in-Chief of the Brazilian Navy in their War of Independence. In the May, 1959, issue of the New Age is additional information about his interesting career; a copy of this publication has been donated to our collection of Jewett material. Your secretary also acquired this past summer a letter dated December 8, 1815. It reads as follows: "Treasury Department. Comptroller's Office. Sir: A petition of David Jewitt of the 1st inst., to the Secretary of the Treasury has been referred to me. He states that he bought the private armed Brigantine True Blooded Yankee while she lay in the port of St. Salvador, having been carried there during the late war by reason of the mutiny of the crew. That she has now been employed as a merchant vessel, but was navigated direct from St. Salvador to New London. He therefore prays to be exempt from the duty which you charge. I am of opinion that the case as stated brings the Yankee, by a fair and liberal construction of the law and practice relating to Private Armed Vessels fitted out purposely for cruising, within the exemption from tonnage duty and you will not subject her thereto. With due respect. Jos. Anderson. To Thos. H. Cushing Esq."

1960 JEWETT GATHERINGS

The Jewett Family of Mason, Michigan held their annual reunion in Ingham County Park, Mason, Michigan on July 31, 1960.

The descendants of Charles Frederick Jewett #11661 and Harriet Louise Cowles held their first Jewett reunion on July 17, 1960 at Newton Battlefield Reservation, near Wellsburg, New York. Thirty-five were in attendance. It is planned to hold this gathering yearly, the next meeting will be on July 16, 1961 near Binghamton, New York.

The twenty-second annual reunion of the descendants of Benjamin Jewett #283 was held August 28, 1960 at Hampton, Connecticut. Following their custom of many years, the members attended Church Service in the morning. After the Church Service they met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Estabrook for dinner and the afternoon program.

The Jewetts of Richford, Vermont held their third annual reunion at Witch Cat Falls, East Bakersfield, Vermont, September 4, 1960. Among the fifty-nine present were members from Florida, Massachusetts, New Jersey and Connecticut. Following a picnic lunch, a very interesting program was enjoyed.

37th Annual Jewett Reunion of the Descendants of Nathan Rodney Jewett

The 37th Annual Reunion of the Jewett Family was held August 6, 1960, with 30 members present. Following a delicious basket lunch the business meeting was called to order by the president, Jane Jewett Seaman. A minute of silent prayer was observed in memory of our departed family members.

The president announced that Jean Jewett Kunzman and family, who recently returned from a two year stay in England, had visited the Hall of Records in England and found the Jewett Coat of Arms to be the same as the copy of the coat of Arms contained in this minutes book.

Mr. Roy Jewett extended greetings from the Kunzman Family to the members of the reunion and expressed the hope they would be able to be present at the 1961 family gathering. The Kunzmans at present are stationed in Oregon.

Following an invitation by Floyd and Jane Seaman, a motion was made by Floyd Jewett and seconded by Silome Coil to hold the 1961 reunion at the YMCA Day Camp.

The secretary was instructed to send a five dollar donation to Mr. D. A. Salmon, Executive Secretary of the YMCA, in appreciation for the use of the grounds and equipment for the 1960 reunion.

The same officers were elected for a fourth year: President, Mrs. Jane Jewett Seaman; Vice President, Mrs. Wanda Jewett Beam; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Josephine Jewett Dillon.

The following events were reported:

Birth: Roger Shumway, August 28, 1959, to Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Shumway, Owego, N. Y.

Marriage: Linda MacNamara to James Watkins, June 20, 1960.

The meeting was adjourned until the first Saturday in August 1961, with dinner to be served at 4 o'clock.

MEETING HOUSE AND BURIAL GROUND,
SHEFFIELD, NEW BRUNSWICK

After the close of the French and Indian Wars about eighty Massachusetts families migrated to New Brunswick and settled on the St. John's River in what is now the Parish of Sheffield, in the Township of Maugerville, near Mauger Island. The majority of these settlers were from Essex County and many of them were the descendants of the families who settled Rowley, Massachusetts.

They were almost exclusively members of the Congregational Churches of New England. Religious, industrious and with a determination to make a new home for themselves on the fertile land adjacent to the St. Johns River, they soon erected a meeting-house, a saw-mill and a grist-mill.

Listed with the first band of settlers who arrived in the Township of Maugerville in 1763 was Daniel Jewett, unmarried, from Boxford, Massachusetts. In the lay-out of the settlement Daniel received lot fourteen between Mauger and Middle Islands. In 1767 he married Abigal (Thurston) Saunders. Daniel and Abigal had eleven children according to the Jewett Genealogy and their descendants are scattered today from New Brunswick to all parts of Canada and the United States. Edgerton Jewett and his sister are now living on the original grant of lot fourteen where his Great, Great, Grandfather settled almost two hundred years ago. In the Burial Ground beside the Sheffield Meeting House rest after their years of toil, five generations of the Jewett Family.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Jewett of Elgin, Illinois are spending the winter in Texas with their son.

Lloyd W. Jewett, Jr., a graduate of Boston University Theological School, has accepted a call to the Bethany Methodist Church in Detroit, Michigan. Mr. Jewett graduated from the Holden, Massachusetts, High School in 1947; is a graduate of Eastern Nazarene College, Wollaston, Mass. where he received his Bachelor of Arts Degree. He has held pastorates in Unity, Maine and in West Scarboro, Maine. He is married to the former Jean Sadd of Chesterland, Ohio. They have one son, Lloyd Wesley Jewett III.

Harry Jewett of Boston, Mass. has written us some of the experiences of the Jewetts of Holquin, Cuba. After living in Cuba for three generations, the Jewett family had to flee to Miami, leaving all their property behind. One son who resisted was killed.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Brown of Pasadena, California visited Mr. Brown's sister, Mrs. Myrtle Sanderson of West Charleston, Vermont in August. Mrs. Sanderson returned to Pasadena with the Browns. They drove across the country and lived in the trailer during their trip.

Eric Jewett of Long Beach, California is attending the Arizona State University. Edward Jewett, son of your secretary is attending Michigan State University in East Lansing, Michigan. Mary Jewett, daughter of Herschel Jewett, former president of our Association is also attending Michigan State.

Clifford L. Jewett of Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing Company has been elected president of the Research and Engineering Council of the Graphic Arts Industry.

Miss L. Blanche Cross of Louisville, Kentucky spent her summer vacation motoring through the Rocky Mountain section of Canada and United States. She travelled through nineteen states and two provinces of Canada, a distance of nine thousand miles.

William Chase Jewett, one of our Directors and a charter member of the Association has moved from Bellows Falls, Vermont to Foxboro, Mass.

Judith Jewett who has been working for the British Overseas Airlines in San Francisco has been transferred to the New York Office. Here is a short report of her quick trip around the world: In September 1960 I left San Francisco for Tokyo, Japan. There I stayed for four days, sightseeing in Nikko, famous for its shrines and National Park. Next stop was Hong Kong, spending four and a half days sightseeing and shopping. Then off for Delhi, India, where it was hot and humid, so only stayed for three days. Had a wonderful time in Beriot, Lebanon, for five and one half days. In the mornings, swimming in the Mediterranean Sea, then up to the mountains for a cool lunch. Also took a trip one hundred miles north of Beriot to see Baalbek, once the important city of Heliopolis, now the oldest ruined city in the world. Then too, I saw the valley where Noah built the Ark, and many other places of Biblical fame. On the way home stopped off in London for three cold days, that is, they were cold because I had only summer clothes with me. This trip took three weeks, and was done on planes of B.O.A.C. I travelled first class all the way, and had a wonderful time, can hardly wait to set out again.

Marilyn Bradshaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Bradshaw, and a descendant of Daniel Jewett, #879 was married in New York, June 16, 1960 to Mr. Robert MacMillan Reagan. Mr. Reagan is an attorney in New York.

Allen K. Jewett of Head Tide, Maine, a Bowdoin College graduate and presently a teacher of physics in the Brunswick, Maine schools spoke before the members of the Lincoln County Maine Cultural and Historical Association, February 5, 1961. His subject was "Physics can be fun".

We enjoyed meeting the many Jewetts who visited us last summer. They came from all parts of the country to see our records and to see the town of Rowley where our ancestors settled so many years ago. Among callers were Dr. and Mrs. Pickwick of Lisbon, New Hampshire; Mr. Hugh Jewett of Bakersfield, California; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Jewett of Cleveland, Ohio; Lt. and Mrs. Guyton Q. Terry of Jacksonville, Florida, now stationed at Otis Airfield Base on Capt Cod. We hope that they all return for the reunion in August.

Allan D. Jewett of Clinton, Mass. was one of the contestants at the apprentice bricklayers contest held in the Horticultural Hall, Boston on March 26, 1960.

William H. (Bill) Jewett of Eureka, California has recovered from his illness of a year ago and is on the go again. In September he was in Long Beach attending the annual session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows and then on to Stockton to attend the annual session of the Grand Encampment of Odd Fellows.

Mr. E. T. Jewett has been promoted to manager of the Minneapolis zone of American Motor Corporation. He was formerly assistant of the Portland, Oregon zone and has been with American Motors since 1952.

Your secretary, while on a trip to Kansas City, Missouri, spent a very enjoyable and instructive evening at the home of Mrs. C. C. Campbell of Kansas City, Kansas. Mrs. Campbell, although with failing eyesight, has searched out and compiled a very complete record of the descendants of William and Jane Matthews who settled in New Haven, Connecticut about 1650, including the line of George Enoch Jewett who married Patty Maria Matthews. Mrs. Campbell has very generously given a copy of her work to the Jewett Family Association. She has also presented us a microfilm copy of "Hunting Your Ancestors" by George A. Jewett.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Miller of Lima Township, Michigan have purchased the "Jewett" Stone Schoolhouse in Lima. The school built in 1855 was in continuous use for one hundred years. Mr. and Mrs. Miller also own the Stone House built by Eleazer Jewett, #1397, in 1836. Mrs. Miller, the former Jane Waltrous, is a Great, Great Grandaughter of Eleazer.

A new pipe organ in the Episcopal Cathedral of St. John, Spokane, Washington, an instrument unique west of the Rocky Mountains and said by organ experts to be one of the finest in the United States was dedicated on December 27, 1960. The organ was the gift of George F. Jewett, Jr. of Lewiston, Idaho and Mrs. William H. Greer of Washington, D. C., a memorial for their father, George F. Jewett.

Miss Greta Jewett of Rowley, Massachusetts and Attorney Charles H. Metcalf of Beverly, Massachusetts were married in Rowley on September 3, 1960. Mr. Metcalf is the first assistant clerk of the Essex County Superior Court.

Doctor William G. Jewett of Gardner, Massachusetts has written to tell us how pleased he is to be listed as the Honorary Vice President for Massachusetts.

Mr. Russell T. Jewett and family spent a week of their vacation in and around Denver, Colorado. They visited the National Parks in that area and the Air Force Academy. Mr. Jewett writes of the pleasant visit which they had with Mrs. Nina Humphyres when she was in Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Burlingame of Minneapolis, Minnesota spent two and one half months in Europe last summer; a month on the continent and the balance of the time in England.

Maurice Jewett of Mansonville, Quebec who has been ill for over a year, is up and around and able to do some light work. Your secretary stopped in to see him and his father Fred Jewett last summer. He always receives a cordial welcome when he visits them.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Hillman of Newark, Delaware observed their 38th wedding anniversary in September. Mrs. Hillman is the former Marjorie Jewett, a descendant of John Jewett of Lisbon, New Hampshire.

Mrs. Gerald Voight, formerly Georga Ann Geigel, and her son, James Richard Voight spent three months in Europe during the summer. Mrs. Voight teaches band and public school music in Algona, Iowa.

We appreciate the additional money that some of the members have enclosed with their dues and we wish to Thank You for it. All of the money received is used for printing and for postage. The officers and the directors of the Association plan to increase our activities which will require additional funds. The easiest method of raising this money is to increase the dues from $1.00 to $2.00 a year and to request life members to forward $1.00 for the publication to the Secretary and Treasurer. We hope the action of the Trustees meets with the approval of the members. Fifty-one years is a long time in the life of a Family Association. We are probably one of the two oldest active Associations in this country.

Mrs. Clyde Skinner of Boulder, Colorado has been elected President of the Colorado War Mothers. The four page Christmas letter from Mr. and Mrs. Skinner gave an account of their travels to California last summer and of the friends they met there. We hope that next year they will write about their trip to the Jewett Reunion in Rowley in 1961.

In 1883 the patriotic citizens of Laconia, New Hampshire opened their Fourth of July Celebration at sunrise by the salute of fifty guns from Jewett's Hill.

Robert Fuller, 24, of Miami, Florida and Holguin, Cuba, was shot by one of Castro's firing squads near Santiago, Cuba on October 9, 1960. He was the son of William and Jennie (Jewett) Miller and a descendant of Andrew Stiles Jewett #3660.

Lewellyn Everett Tompkins died in Tillicum, Washington on September 26, 1959. He was born in Wyoming, Iowa, January 28, 1889, the son of Norris and Mary (Jewett) Tompkins, and was a descendant of Abel Jewett #6379.

Albert L. Jewett of Medford, Mass. died on November 23, 1960. He is survived by his wife, Florence M. Jewett; a daughter Alice of Medford and a son, George L. of Hingham, Mass.

Mrs. Edgar B. Jewett, II, 55, daughter-in-law of our First President, Edgar B. Jewett, died in the Buffalo, N. Y. General Hospital, Sunday, January 29, 1961. She had been ill for about a month. Mrs. Jewett had been active in civic and community affairs, serving as a nurse's aide for the Buffalo Red Cross since 1943; as a volunteer in Community Chest and United Fund Campaigns. In 1950 she married Egdar B. Jewett, II, president of the Jewett Refrigerator Company, her second marriage. Mr. Jewett died in May 1952.

Mrs. Mollie Jewett, wife of George Jewett of Grand Ledge, Michigan, passed away on January 3, 1961. Mr. Jewett, 95, was for a number of years President of the Jewett Family of Mason, Michigan.

A belated death notice has been received. Mrs. Harriett (Jewett) Morgan #1739 died at her home in New York City on the 20th of January, 1893 in her 86th year. She was born in Salem, Mass., March 3, 1807, daughter of Eliphalet and Sarah (Richards) Jewett and was one of the eight Jewett sisters noted for their beauty. She was related through her marriage to the Longfellow and Hathorne families.

WHAT IS YOUR INTEREST?

Americans have been known for their inquisitiveness. It is their curiosity in part that has made our country great. We seek to know, to learn, to find the answers to questions that come to mind. Some ask, who were my ancestors, where did they come from, how did they make their livelihood, and many more questions.

What is your interest in the Jewett Family of America? We would like to know. Is it just a matter of pride in your family? You have every right to be. Are you curious about its history and development? Are you interested in genealogy? Do you like to do research in this field or would you like to if you could? Do you like to write or do research for historical novels or essays? There are opportunities to do so, for you would find it a most fascinating and rewarding endeavor.

When the Jewett Family of America was incorporated, committees were established to carry out its purposes. Two of these committees were called the Committee on Publication and the Committee on History and Genealogy. These committees are being established again. We would like to hear from volunteers to serve on these committees for they are the committees that give strength to the Jewett Family of America. You can make your own contribution, if you will, select your own assignment or ask for suggestions as to things you can do. Our secretary has many fields which he would like to explore, do research on or write about, but he does not have sufficient time. So we seek volunteers who might like to make contributions to our publication or help do research in various ways or fields, so as to bring up to date or add to the collection of historical and genealogical data. Please write to us and tell us of your interest. We believe we can help you develop it to your enjoyment and perhaps to the benefit of the Jewett Family of America. Fear not burdensome assignments but give of your spare time and talents that they may be shared with others. The Jewett Family will be grateful and you will be pleased, we are sure. May we hear from you?
