THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Tempus fugits!

It has been a pleasure to serve as President of the Jewett Family of America for the past fifteen months — to preside at the twenty-second Reunion in Rowley and to offer a souvenir china plate with the Jewett Coat-of-Arms in color in the center of the plate, and most particularly to meet with so many Jewetts in person or by correspondence. Time flies so fast that we have not been able to do all the things we would like to do in the name of the Jewett Family of America, especially when it has to be treated as an extra-curricular activity or hobby.

I want to thank all of the members that have written to me and apologize for not having responded to all of the letters. I am grateful for the many invitations to visit Jewetts in various parts of the country. How I would like to do it. I hope I may some day.

I remember George A. Jewett when he was president of the Family. He traveled extensively and went out of his way to call on Jewetts. It would be helpful if we could find one or more volunteers who are interested in the Jewett Family and have the time and means to travel, for by calling on Jewetts it would be easy to build up the Jewett Family of America, as George A. Jewett did when he was president. This offers a most interesting challenge and an intriguing study of Americana, both historically and genealogically.

It was partially for this reason that I recommended to the Board of Directors and to the members assembled at the reunion that in order to broaden representation on the Board, we increase the Board of Directors from six to fifteen. This would make it more difficult to hold meetings of the entire Board, and so it was suggested that a quorum be one-third of that number. Both of these suggestions were approved and adopted by the Board of Directors and the membership.

Only ten Directors were elected but these included Mr. G. Harold Pfau from Tucson, Arizona, and Mr. Donald C. Jewett from Cleveland, Ohio. We hope to add to the Board of Directors from other parts of the country in due time.

It is with sincere regret that we report elsewhere in these pages the death of Mr. William Chase Jewett, who was a faithful Director and a continuous member of the Jewett Family of America since 1910. Dr. Frank Sniffen Jewett is now serving his country in the Navy. Mr. Henry W. Jewett of West Palm Beach, Florida, has resigned as corporation counsel and this post has not been filled. This accounts for those who no longer appear in our official Family.

It is with great pleasure that I recommend to the Board of Directors and those in attendance at the Reunion the elevation of six faithful members, and that these recommendations were unanimously approved by both Directors and members, and given an appropriate round of applause. Judge Theo S. Jewett of Laconia, New Hampshire, was named President Emeritus, having served as president for twenty-one years. Added to our list of Honorary Life Members were Herschel C. Jewett, immediate past president; Raymond D. Jewett, our Vice President who has served under three presidents long and faithfully; Everett Douglas Jewett and his good wife Edna P. Jewett, without whom this Jewett Family of America might not have continued actively, and Dr. William A. Jewett, who with Everett Douglas were the only original members of the Jewett Family of America in attendance at this Reunion. They will receive appropriate scrolls signifying their new status.

It was also a pleasure to show a sample of a limited number of china plates containing the Jewett Coat-of-Arms in color that I had manufactured to offer to the members of the Jewett Family. This is referred to elsewhere for there are a few plates remaining for those who want them. My correspondence has indicated that the plates have been well received and have created a new interest in the Family. Very few families other than royalties have china bearing their Coats-of-Arms. It is readily apparent that these plates will become a collectors item.

An excellent report of the Reunion is included in these pages. We are indebted to Mrs. Whitney Weinrich of Harwood, Maryland, who served as the Acting Secretary of the business meeting and program of the Reunion on Saturday. The report of the Reunion comes from these notes. This covers the serious side of the Reunion, but it should be reported that there was time for entertainment and relaxation. Those who assembled on Friday had their choice of places to visit in the area. Some of the young people went swimming while others went to see places of scenic and historic interest. Some of us who thought we knew our way around got lost on the improved new highways and did not get back in time for the opening of the Friday evening entertainment program. Many went to Salem to see the many historic buildings and to visit the Essex Institute with its excellent genealogical library. Others visited Cape Ann and the interesting fishing port of Gloucester. Then in the evening a reception was held and a showing by Milford F. Daniels, and through the courtesy of the Selectmen of Rowley, of the films of the Rowley Tercentenary celebration. Flowers to grace the occasion were supplied by Miss Marian Todd and Mrs. Dorothy Brigham. Mrs. Sue Perkins of Wenham, Mass. presided at the refreshment table.

The Board of Directors was busy during the Reunion, having held three meetings. We established a new corporation, known as the Jewett Memorial Library Corporation, and in order to meet with our Boston attorney employed for this purpose, we had to hold a special meeting of the Board following the business meeting of the Reunion and before the luncheon meeting. The luncheon meeting was gotten underway before our Director's meeting had been completed and the necessary steps taken in establishing this corporation, for which we must apologize to those who attended the luncheon. The purpose of establishing this new organization was to set up a corporation to which contributions could be made that would be tax exempt. There is a question as to whether contributions made to the Jewett Family of America, Inc. could be so considered. Hence, this new corporation was formed. The officers and directors of this new corporation are Roger Jewett, President, Williamstown, Massachusetts; Everett Douglas Jewett, Secretary, Rowley, Massachusetts; Porter J. Perkins, Treasurer, Wenham, Massachusetts; Raymond D. Jewett, Springfield, Massachusetts; E. Tilson Peabody, Birmingham, Michigan; George Harold Pfau, Tucson, Arizona; Albert Haley, Rowley, Massachusetts; Donald C. Jewett, Cleveland, Ohio, and Shepard L. Jewett of Lynn, Massachusetts. Mr. E. Tilson Peabody is Chairman of the Committee on the Establishment of the Jewett Memorial Library.

During the Reunion, these Directors discussed possible locations and other pertinent matters. The plans for this proposed new library are in the hands of Mr. Peabody, from whom we shall probably hear before long. This is an extra-curricular contribution of time on his part and we are grateful to him for his interest in this matter.

It should also be reported that following the luncheon meeting, where we heard a most interesting informal talk by Mr. Winthrop P. Haynes, President of the Essex County Historical Association, a brief memorial service was held at the burial grounds. This was conducted by Rev. William H. Jewett as a tribute to our forebears.

A year ago, I expressed the hope that we could establish several committees. We have not been able to do so because of the lack of volunteers and so I take this opportunity publicly to thank our secretaries, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Douglas Jewett, for all of the time and effort that they give to the Jewett Family of America. It is to them and Miss Marian Todd that the largest credit must be given for the publication of our yearbook.

We are particularly interested in the meetings of the various branches of the Family wherever they are held. We would like to be told about them, both in advance and afterwards by way of a report. Where possible, we would like to arrange to have an officer or Director of the Jewett Family of America present. In this way, direct reports can be brought to these gatherings.

Finally, it is pleasant to read the report of the growth of our membership, for that has been one of our goals. It should continue to grow rapidly. We welcome voluntary applications for membership and the added interest of many from various parts of the country. It is with regret that we note the passing of many faithful members who will be missed. We are grateful for your interest and trust that it will continue to grow.

A PAGE FROM THE LIFE OF A PIONEER

By Mrs. I. F. Jewett, Waterford, Maine

Contributed with additional notes by Miss Marian G. Todd

While looking through an old scrap book I found the undated poem: "A Page From The Life of a Pioneer" bearing the name of the author, Mrs. I. F. Jewett of Waterford, Maine. Here was a mystery! I wondered if I could locate the family or descendants of the author, Mrs. Isaac F. Jewett, who knew so much of the courageous Chaplin Family from Rowley.

Several summers ago I traveled to Waterford. My trip was unsuccessful as at that time I did not locate any of the Jewett family descendants. I did, however, find the property of the Chaplin heirs.

The old Rowley Road, in North Waterford, which leads to the original Chaplin property was not passable, so I followed a road leading past a meeting house and burial ground, thence by the old Lucien Jewett place. I came upon a little cemetery, part of which was growing up to brush and trees. Here I found several gravestones bearing the names of some of the early settlers of Rowley, those of Chaplin, Saunders, Greene, Hobson, Jewett and Plummer. One of the stones, as I remember, was that of Mary Saunders Chaplin, which bore the words, "Born in Rowley, Mass." Poor Mary, was she homesick for her old home? Those words, "Born in Rowley, Mass." seemed to me that she was so anxious to forever record and for all to see that the place of her birth was always dear to her.

Others must have also been homesick for the old Town of Rowley for in the History of Waterford is recorded the words of Polly Green, "How I used to marvel at my mother's story of leaving her old home in Rowley, the beauties of Prospect Hill on the one hand and the charming Plum Island on the other, for this cold and dreary wilderness of Waterford; nor the emotions I felt, half a century afterwards, when I stood for the first time, on a Thanksgiving morning, upon the same enchanted Prospect Hill (near the foot on Bradford Street where her mother was born), overlooking the town and distant Plum Island, the gateway to the sea and remembered my dear mother, who left all this fifty years before for a wilderness home".

A search of the records of Waterford, Oxford County, Maine, reveals that the town lies among the foothills of the White Mountain chain. The area was surveyed in 1774 and the first settler, David McWain, born in Bolton, Mass., December 24, 1752, traveled there by way of Portland, Sebago Lake and Long Pond. Waterford was incorporated as a town May 2, 1797, an orthodox minister was settled in 1799 and a militia company formed the same year.

History records that it was the brave men and women from the towns of Bolton, Harvard, Stowe, Northborough and Rowley, Mass. that furnished most of the early settlers.

The Northwest part of Waterford was for a long time called "Rowley" and the old Lovell road from North Waterford as far as the Lovell town line was called "Rowley Street".

The exact date of the coming of the Rowley families to Waterford cannot be determined, except that Lieut. Thomas Green purchased land there in 1788. He was followed by Deacon Stephen Jewett and his sons Nathan and Ebenezer; Moses Hobson (who worked for the deacon in Rowley); Jonathan, Samuel and Joshua Plummer; Joshua, Ezekiel, Samuel and Humphrey Saunders; Daniel and David Chaplin. Their coming and that of Eli Longley of Bolton, Mass. and Eber Rice of Northborough led to the building or cutting of the first road through Waterford. This road was rougher than "A modern logging road".

Petition for the incorporation of the inhabitants of the "Plantation of Waterford" included as signers: Nathaniel, Ebenezer and Stephen Jewett; Ezekial and Joshua Saunders; Thomas and Daniel Green; Daniel Chaplin; Samuel Plummer and Nathan Jewett.

A tax payers list of 1797 includes: Daniel and David Chaplin; Daniel and Lieut. Thomas Green; Capt. Stephen, Nathan, Lieut. Ebenezer and Nathaniel Jewett; Ezekiel Humphrey and Mrs. Betsey Saunders.

A town meeting was held June 7, 1797 and a partial list of those elected to town office were: Daniel Chaplin, second selectman; Daniel Green, deer reaf; Ebenezer Jewett and Samuel Plummer, hog constables; Nathaniel Jewett, field driver.

The organization of the Church was represented by families from Rowley. We find the names of Chaplin, Jewett, Plummer, Saunders on the list; Stephen Jewett was chosen Deacon. Stephen Jewett was also appointed Justice of the Peace in 1799, but he declined and recommended that Eber Rice be appointed.

As early as 1803 mention was made of the Baptists in Waterford and Mighill Jewett preached for them a portion of the time for several years. He preached in the summer and kept the school in the winter. "Master Chaplin" the learned blacksmith was their deacon.

About 1820 a fulling mill was built at North Waterford by Nathaniel Jewett.

The subject of the following verse was Mrs. Daniel Chaplin of Rowley, Mass. Her name before her marriage was Mary Saunders (many of her relatives resided in Rowley and Georgetown, Mass.). On their journey to Waterford, Maine, they were overtaken by a line storm and came very near being drowned while crossing Lake Sebago on a raft of logs. The mother and child were lashed to a desk, or as it was then called a 'chest of drawers'. At the time this poem was written the desk was the property of the Misses Chaplin of Waterford. The Misses Chaplin were the grandchildren of the woman above mentioned. The child who was brought in her arms, in after years became one of the leading men of the town. He was in town office a number of years and in many an old farmhouse was found his map or town chart.

Now listen my friends, and you shall hear
A page from the life of a pioneer;
How she left her home in the "Old Bay State"
And started forth with her chosen mate.

To kindred and friends she bade adieu,
But in her eyes a mistiness grew
When to "Old Rowley" she said "good-bye,"
And turned away from the western sky.

With progress slow they journed along.
Cheering themselves with sacred song.
The eyes of their child grew big with fright
As clouds and darkness obscured the light.

With tender care she soothed her child
And faced the storm, now fierce and wild,
They crossed Sebago, in the Equinox
Child in her arms, both lashed to a box.

Across their raft the wild waters ran,
Seeking the life of woman and man,
With silent prayer, and courage strong,
They grasped the logs, were swept along.

Tis' light at last, O welcome sight,
The sun comes forth in glory bright,
Soon will their journey, ended be,
Soon their new home, they gladly see.

On northern slope of old Beech Hill
They went to work with strength and will,
The forest echoed both far and wide.
The sound of the axe, with vigor plied.

The years passed by on that hillside farm,
No want is known, they fear no harm,
Noble and true their lives have been
Away from the worry and strife of sin.

Their children now assume the care,
And all the heavier burden bear,
And after many days of trial
One plays in church, the old bass viol.

The surveyors art he also knew
And many a boundary line he drew,
With chart and map his town supplied,
And in his judgment, all relied.

Another made the anvil ring
With heavy blow and steady swing,
And o'er his books of Greek did pore,
Seeking to learn of hidden lore.

But now a hundred years have fled,
And they are numbered with the dead,
May each kindred and each friend
Follow their virtues to the end.

And may we all a lesson learn,
Ne'er from duty's path to turn,
But onward press, with might and main
If we at last the goal would gain.

ALLEN JEWETT'S COLLECTION

Contributed by Mrs. Leon (Jewett) Clapp

A large and valued collection of early American furnishings accumulated over a period of sixty years by Allen Jewett of Hampton, Connecticut was presented by his daughter, Mrs. Viola (Jewett) Clapp and his grandson, Ulmer M. Jewett of Norwich, Conn., to the Leffingwall Inn, Norwich on May 13, 1961.

Among the many items which have been in Mrs. Clapp's custody since Allen Jewett's death in 1926 is a letter signed by Samuel Huntington, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence; a sword with a crude wooden handle carried by Captain Fitch in 1695 when he commanded the first military company in Windham, Conn. He was the son of Reverend Fitch, one of the founders of Norwich. The collection also included pistols, swords, powder horns, a grenadier helmet and a bullet mould.

Mr. Paul W. Franklin, vice-president of Founders of Norwich, sponsors of the Inn, accepted on behalf of the museum the fine gifts, with an expression of gratitude to the donors.

In July, an eighteenth century fowling piece, Nathan Hale's boyhood gun from Mr. Jewett's collection, was presented by Mrs. Clapp to the Nathan Hale Homestead.

Mr. Jewett's archealogical collection, numbering over two hundred articles was given to the Tantaquidgeon Museum in Montville, Connecticut, on September 10, 1961, in the presence of thirty members of the Allen Jewett Descendants. This material was collected in Eastern Connecticut by the late Mr. Jewett and since his death his daughter, Mrs. Clapp, has been the custodian of the collection.

Mrs. Gladys Tantaquidgeon accepted the collection on behalf of the museum, and expressed the appreciation of the museum, remarking that the Jewett Family ancestors and the Mohegan Indians of years ago had always been good friends. Chief Harold Tantaquidgeon welcomed the Jewett group to the museum and presented Mrs. Clapp with an eagle feather, which is considered a good luck medicine plume. The collection consisted of hammer stones, adzes, scrapers, polishing stones, paint pots, moccasins, small beaded bags, hatchets, trophies, pestles and other articles. Following the presentation a luncheon was served on the museum grounds by several descendants of the Tantaquidgeon family.

THE JEWETT PLATE

As referred to in the Report of the Reunion, an unusual souvenir was offered to those who attended the Jewett Family Reunion in Rowley. This was a plate of Castleton China, Apollo design, Corona shape, with the Jewett Coat-of-Arms in color in the center of the plate.

In the fall, after the Reunion an attempt was made to notify as many members of the Family as possible of this limited offering. To those who did not receive this notice, we do so now. There are still a few left, although about two-thirds of the supply has been sold. Only 308 plates were manufactured. We offer them to members of the Family and their friends, for these plates will readily become a collectors item. The plates are offered at $8.50 per plate including the cost of individual packing and insured mailing. If any profit accrues it will be turned over to the Jewett Family of America. This will occur only after 250 plates have been sold and delivered. Checks should be made out and sent to Roger Jewett, Hopper Road, Williamstown, who took it upon himself to have these plates manufactured.

The response to this offering has been most interesting. Plates have been shipped into twenty-six states including all the Pacific Coast states, the District of Columbia, New Brunswick and Quebec. A record has been kept of the names of the purchasers. Only two families own a dozen of these plates, and two others eight and two more six each, thus assuring wide distribution.

They have already created considerable interest in the Jewett Family of America. This has caused us to consider making other offerings from time to time for the benefit of the members and the Jewett Family of America. We are open to suggestions of items you would like to own properly identified with the Jewett Family. One suggestion has been the publishing of the Jewett Quick Step, the cover of which was illustrated on the Reunion program.

NECROLOGY

William Chase Jewett, a charter member and Director of the Jewett Family of America since 1949, passed away in Foxboro, Mass. on August 20, 1961. A descendant of Deacon Maximilian Jewett, he was born in Marlboro, N. H., Nov. 17, 1883, son of William A. and Eliza Ellen (Chase) Jewett. Mr. Jewett was for many years a partner in the Goodnow, Jewett and Pillsbury Stores in Bellows Falls. In 1938 he became affiliated with the Kurn Hattin Homes at Westminster and was their Financial Representative as well as a trustee. He joined the Jewett Family of America upon the organization of the Association and was elected Director in 1949. Mr. Jewett was a member of the King Solomon Lodge of Masons and received his fifty year pin in 1960. He served at one time as a Director of the Bellows Falls Trust Company, was a charter member of the Rotary Club of Bellows Falls, and Superintendent of the Universalist Sunday School for many years. He is survived by his wife, Ruth E. (Bowen) Jewett whom he married October 6, 1913, and a son, Commander George Jewett of the United States Navy, who resides at Solomon, Maryland. Mr. Jewett was buried in Marlboro, N. H.

Mrs. Virginia Jewett Harkness of Dorchester, Mass., aged 91 years, passed away at her home in Dorchester, on October 16, 1961. She was the daughter of Lyman P. and Martha A. (French) Jewett of Waterford, Maine, and a descendant of Deacon Maximilian Jewett of Rowley, Mass. Mrs. Harkness was a charter member of the Jewett Family of America, Inc.

He was graduated from the Hartford High School in 1897; received his bachelor's degree from Yale in 1901 and was graduated from the Yale Law School in 1905 and was admitted to the Connecticut Bar and started his practice of law in his father's Hartford law firm that year. He began his long career in public service in 1913 as the state representative from Granby. In 1914 he was appointed assistant state's attorney for Hartford County. In 1917, at the age of 37, he was appointed to the Superior Court Bench by Governor Holcomb, where he served with distinction. In 1925, Judge Maltbie was appointed associate justice of the State Supreme Court of Errors and in 1930 he became Chief Justice, which position he held until his retirement in 1950. He was active in fraternal, civic and professional organizations and was a former president of the Greater Hartford Council of Churches. He joined the Jewett Family of America on Nov. 23, 1910 and was the Corporation Counsel from 1934 to 1955. Judge Maltbie leaves his wife, Mrs. Mary Hamlin Maltbie of Granby; a son, Theodore M. Maltbie of Hartford; a sister, Miss Ann L. Maltbie of Winsted and two grandchildren.

Richard C. Jewett of Mason, Michigan died there suddenly of a heart attack on June 27, 1961. The son of Arthur W. and Lulu Jane (Lyon) Jewett, he was born in Mason, August 12, 1914. On September 2, 1931 he married Murryne Thurlby who was born in Aurelius, Michigan, November 28, 1914. Mr. Jewett was an outstanding floral designer, and his services were always in great demand through his Floral shop in Mason, a business which he had conducted for the past twenty-five years. During the last three years he had been travelling through the mid-west and the south as the field representative of the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association, Inc. Richard, a descendant of Joseph Jewett who came to Rowley in 1639, joined the Jewett Family Association in 1953 as a life member. He was enthusiastic in his interest, offering a number of valuable suggestions for the enlargement of the Association. Besides his widow, he leaves three children, Joan, Ronald and Judy; three grandchildren, two sisters and four brothers.

Mrs. Annie W. (Davis) Jewett passed away on April 14, 1961. She married Albert F. Jewett, #4283, April 15, 1903. Mr. Jewett died in Hollis, New York, October 2, 1954. She is survived by four sons, Frederick D., Albert L., Lincoln H. and Robert H., and ten grandchildren.

REPORT OF THE BUSINESS MEETING OF THE JEWETT FAMILY OF AMERICA, INC.

August 26, 1961 - Rowley, Mass.

An organ prelude was rendered by Mrs. Sarah F. Peabody from 10:00 to 10:30. Her daughter, Mrs. Martha-Jean Kellett, sang, "My Heart Hath A Mind".

The business meeting opened at 10:30 with prayer by Rev. William H. Jewett of Valley Springs, New York, with Roger Jewett, President, presiding.

Mr. Warren C. Grover, Selectman, brought the greetings from the Town of Rowley and a "Welcome Home" Message to the Jewett Family.

The President paid tribute to those who had gone before us and to those who were instrumental in holding the first reunion in 1855. He said, "We hope that we shall be worthy of the fine things that our ancestors have done before us".

The Jewetts' Patriotic Song was sung. This was composed by H. J. Prentiss for the 1855 Reunion.

The report of the Secretary was given by Everett D. Jewett. His report in detail follows these minutes.

The President thanked both Mr. and Mrs. Everett Jewett for their outstanding and unselfish work for the family association.

A moment of silent prayer was offered in memory of those members who have past on.

Report of the Library Committee: Mr. E. Tilson Peabody, Chairman.

Many valuable records have been collected and are now in the barn library of Everett Jewett. It is felt that these should be placed in a fireproof library. Mr. Jewett will give to the Association the many priceless books and records which he has collected if the library is built before 1965.

The Committee has been exploring the possibility of building such a library. The consensus is that the library should not be an exclusive library for the Jewetts, but should embrace all other families in this locality.

At the close of the meeting, the committee is to meet with an attorney to determine how contributions can be made to the library fund under the tax deductible procedure.

Report of the By-Laws Committee: Roger Jewett, Chairman.

At the 1960 meeting of the Board of Directors, it was decided that the annual dues be changed from $1.00 to $2.00.

It was also recommended that the By-Law reading "The Board of Directors shall consist of six elected directors" be changed to read, "fifteen elected directors". Also to change the quorum of the Board of Directors from four to five.

Mrs. Everett D. Jewett moved, Miss Marian Todd seconded that the above recommendations be approved. Motion passed.

Report of the Nominating Committee: Miss Marian Todd, Chairman.

Presented the following names for Directors:

Judge Theo S. Jewett, Laconia, N. H.
E. Tilson Peabody, Birmingham, Mich.
Shepard L. Jewett, Lynn, Mass.
Herschel C. Jewett, Nason, Mich.

Porter J. Perkins, Wenham, Mass.
George Harold Pfau, Tuscon, Ariz.
Donald C. Jewett, Cleveland, Ohio
With the President, Vice-President and Secretary members ex-officio.

Presented the following names for Officers:

Treasurer: Everett Douglas Jewett, Rowley, Mass.
Clerk and Recording Secretary: Everett D. Jewett, Rowley, Mass.
Corresponding Secretary: Mrs. Edna P. Jewett, Rowley, Mass.
Auditor: Porter J. Perkins, Wenham, Mass.

Mr. Shepard L. Jewett moved that the report of the nominating committee be accepted; that the nominations be closed and that the above names be declared elected. Motion was seconded by Everett G. Jewett. Motion passed.

The report of the Auditor, Alfred D. Jewett was read. The books are in order. Donald Jewett moved, Mrs. Evelyn Burlingame seconded that the auditor's report be accepted. Motion passed.

Mr. Everett D. Jewett announced that a group picture would be taken at 12 o'clock.

Mr. Roger Jewett showed a sample of the Jewett plate made by the Castleton China Company. The Jewett Coat of Arms in color is on the plate; which sells for $8.50. This includes the cost of packing and mailing. The profits that accrue will go to the Jewett Family of America, Inc.

Song: "Our Family Pledge" was sung.

The morning business meeting adjourned with prayer.

AFTERNOON SESSION

Rev. William H. Jewett gave the invocation at 1:00 P.M.

Following the dinner, served by the Ladies Benevolent Society and the Men's Club of the Rowley Congregational Church, a most interesting talk was given by Mr. Winthrop P. Haynes, President of the Essex County Historical Association.

Mr. Roger Jewett presented the following for Honorary Membership:

Judge Theo S. Jewett, President Emeritus
Herschel C. Jewett
Raymond D. Jewett
Everett D. Jewett
Mrs. Edna P. Jewett
Dr. William Averill Jewett

Mr. E. Tilson Peabody announced the forming of the Jewett Memorial Library Corporation. Details will be announced later.

Letters of best wishes were read.

Everett D. Jewett once again reminded the Association of the many volumes he has collected and that we must have a place for them by 1965.

The meeting adjourned to the Burial Ground for the Memorial Service and the Benediction.

Christine Weinrich,
Acting Secretary

SECRETARY'S REPORT

1961 Reunion, Rowley, Mass.

Mr. President, Members of the Jewett Family of America, and guests: It was my privilege at the 1955 reunion to give you a report of the activities of the Association during the period from 1950 to 1955 as your Secretary and Treasurer. Today I am giving you a brief report of my stewardship from the close of the reunion in 1955 to the present time. This report is separated into the following categories, not necessarily in the order of their importance:

1. Membership
2. Publications
3. Reunions
4. Officers
5. Records

1. Membership

At the meeting in 1955, I reported to you that our membership had grown from 147 members in 1950 to 286, of which 71 were life members. Today that membership has reached 422, of which 81 are life members and five are Honorary Members. We have lost by death 26 members, by resignation 38 members and by neglect of members to notify us of change of address, 15 members. The large number of resignations is due, in the majority of cases, to parents enrolling their children for one year and thereafter discontinuing the payment of dues. Thirty-seven states and two provinces in Canada are represeted in our membership. The following members have held continuous membrship since September 19, 1910 when the Association was incorporated:

Abel Longley Jewett, Woodbridge, Conn.

Everett Douglas Jewett, Ipswich, Mass.

Gerald Anson Jewett, Des Moines, Iowa

Dr. William Averill Jewett, Needham Heights, Mass.

Mrs. Ralph L. Morrill, Ann Arbor, Mich.

Mrs. Josie Elizabeth Tonkin, Portsmouth, Virginia

Mrs. Bonnie Jewett Welpton, Des Moines, Iowa

David Warren Jewett, Colorado Springs, Colorado

2. Publications:

At the time of the 1955 reunion the Association was issuing a quarterly publication. This publication was discontinued after 1956 because of the amount of time and work involved. No publications were put out in 1957, but in 1958 and the following years we have kept you informed of our activities by publishing a Yearbook. Six-hundred copies have been printed each year, of which 500 have been distributed, and 100 retained for future requests. The Yearbook has been possibly the best media for holding and increasing the interest in the Association, and the complimentary letters which have been received are most gratifying.

3. Reunions:

The nineteenth reunion held in Rowley in 1955 was the largest attended gathering of which we have a record, with approximately 250 members and friends in attendance. At that reunion we accepted an invitation to meet with the Jewetts of Mason, Michigan on July 27, 28, and 29, 1956. It was a delightful experience to meet the Jewetts in that area, and the program arranged by Herschel Jewett and his committee was most enjoyable. In 1959 the twenty-first reunion was held at Put-in-Bay on South Bass Island on Lake Erie. Although the gathering was small — fifty-eight registered — the meeting under the direction of the reunion committee, with Mrs. Mary Lou Gorski as chairman, was very successful and most interesting.

4. Officers:

Following the business meeting at the 1955 reunion the Directors met and elected Herschel C. Jewett of Mason, Michigan as president, replacing Theo S. Jewett of Laconia, New Hampshire, who had served the Association faithfully since 1934. Herschel Jewett gave considerable time and attention necessary as president, until November 1960, when it was felt both by him and the Directors that the office should be rotated more frequently, thus allowing different areas in the country to be represented. Mr. Roger Jewett was elected at that time, and Mr. Herschel Jewett was made a director, replacing John Vernon Jewett, deceased. Mr. William Chase Jewett, a Director since 1949, passed away on Sunday, August 20, 1961. He was one of the charter members of the Association and a regular attendant at our reunions.

5. Records:

Through the use of genealogical data sheets our records of the family continue to grow. These records in most instances are kept in folders supplementing the information of the various branches of the family found in the Genealogy. Some of these supplements have been published in the Yearbooks. In two particular cases, the family records are very extensive and should at some time be published separately. I refer to the descendants of John Jewett of Lisbon, New Hampshire, a soldier of the Revolution, and to the descendants of Samuel Jewett of Berkshire, Vermont. The records which have been collected in many instances include Lateral Lines. At the present time no attempt has been made to index the various records. This must be done in the near future in order that the best use can be made of them.

During the past six years we have received, through gifts, a number of interesting items and records for your archives.

It has been an honor to serve as your Secretary and Treasurer for the past thirteen years, and I am appreciative of the help that I have received to keep this one of the oldest Family Associations active. To name those who have been of assistance to me as needed would be to name nearly all of the active members of the association. I would, however, like to stress the fact that a secretary and treasurer must of necessity give considerable time, work and his personal finances to make an organization of this type successful. I am most fortunate in having Mrs. Edna P. Jewett a helper who has been willing to forego many things through these past thirteen years in order that we could continue to build and strengthen this Association. I am involved in many other activities and it is only through her efforts of handling much of the secretarial work and all of the treasurer's work of the Jewett Family of America that we have been able to accomplish as much as we have done.

Respectfully submitted,

Everett D. Jewett, Secretary

OTHER FAMILY GATHERINGS

38th ANNUAL JEWETT REUNION

of the Descendants of Nathan Rodney Jewett

Fifty members of the Jewett family attended the 38th Annual Reunion, Saturday, August 5, 1961, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Seamon, YMCA Day Camp, Binghamton, N. Y. A basket lunch was served at 4 o'clock. Following the dinner, the business meeting was opened by the president, Jane Jewett Seamon, with a minute of silent prayer in memory of our departed family members.

A correction was made to the 1960 minutes. The Kunzman family was stationed in England three years instead of two years.

A motion was made by Floyd Jewett to again hold the 1962 reunion at the YMCA Day Camp. Mr. Floyd Seamon, caretaker at the camp, said the camp would be available. A motion was made by Josephine Jewett Dillon to send a five dollar donation to Mr. D. A. Salmon, Executive Secretary of the YMCA, in appreciation for the use of the grounds and equipment for the 1961 reunion. Both motions were carried and a collection was taken to cover expenses.

A letter was read by the secretary announcing the annual reunion of the Jewett Family of America to be held at Rowley, Massachusetts, August 25th and 26th.

A suggestion was made by the president that the younger members of the family be elected to the offices for the following year. The officers then elected for the 1961-1962 term are: President, Kenneth Kunzman; Vice-President, Roy Patrick Jewett; Secretary-Treasurer, Marilyn Kinner.

The following events were reported:

Birth — Randy Nash, March 18, 1961, to Mr. and Mrs. William W. Nash, Montrose, Pa.

Marriage — Barbara Jean Watkins to Mr. John Francis Dunham, April 8, 1961, at Wilmington, Delaware.

The business meeting was adjourned and a delightful program of tap dancing was presented by Miss Terri Lynn Allen, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allen, South Montrose, Pa. Terri performed a dance on roller skates which she will later audition for the Ted Mack amateur program.

Go-Kart ride tickets were given to the teenagers for use at a go-kart track near the YMCA grounds. The tickets were a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Seamon. The rides were greatly enjoyed by many of the young people, following which they danced to records, played ping-pong, archery, etc., while the older folks reminisced.

The 1962 reunion will be held the first Saturday in August with dinner to be served at 4 o'clock.

Josephine Jewett Dillon, Secretary

Mrs. Viola Clapp was re-elected president for a two-year term at the 23rd annual reunion of the Jewett Family Association of Hampton, Conn. on August 20, 1961. Other officers renamed were Carl W. Jewett, vice-president and Ulmer Jewett of Norwich, secretary-treasurer.

The gathering was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Estabrooks and opened with a potluck dinner at noon.

Four generations of the Jewett Family were represented; Mrs. Mary Jewett of Clarks Corners, at 96, was the oldest member present; Mrs. Albert Hoffman, her daughter; Donald Hoffman, a grandson; and Robert Hoffman, a great grandson. A three year old grandson, Graig Caya of Hampton, was the youngest member present.

The fourth Annual Reunion of the Jewetts of Berkshire, Vermont, was held on Labor Day at Witch-Cat Falls with about 70 attending.

The program began with a silent prayer followed by the Lord's Prayer in memory of Mrs. Josie Jewett and of Nathan Jewett, son of Burton Jewett, who passed away this past year. Wendell Jewett's four daughters sang a hymn, and Daniel Jewett played several trumpet solos. Fred Jewett and his son, Gerald, sang "Silver Haired Daddy of Mine" and a good hymn sing was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Ora Murray, age 83, was the oldest member present, and the youngest was Lenes Hafford, age 2 years. The member attending from the farthest distance was Mrs. Joanna Locke of Douglas, Alaska.

The Annual Reunion of the Jewetts of Mason, Michigan, was held in Ingham County Park on July 30, 1961. The business meeting and an interesting program followed a dinner served by the ladies of the Family.

The sixth Annual Gathering of the Taft Family Association was held in Mendon, Mass. on June 24, 1961. The program included a chicken barbecue and dancing.

The fifth Annual Reunion of the Knowlton Family was held June 25, 1961 at the Lighthouse, Crane's Beach, Ipswich, Mass. with about thirty-five present. Following a basket luncheon a business meeting and social hour were held.

NOTES

Everett D. Jewett, Secretary

Mrs. Jewett and I received a great many Christmas cards and letters during the holiday season. Lack of time has prohibited our answering all of them, and so we take this opportunity to tell you of our appreciation of your remembering us during that busy season of the year. We also would like to have you know that we appreciate the many letters which we received during 1961; some in answer to our queries and some with volunteered information.

Our Family Association continues to grow both in membership and interest. Forty-five new members were added to our rolls last year. Family records and individual family history comes to us almost daily! The interest shown at our reunion in Rowley last summer was most encouraging to us and to the other officers.

We have passed our first fifty years. During that time some of our goals have been realized; on others we can report some degree of progress; and some of the purposes for which our fathers organized the Association in 1910 seem far in the offing.

I started to tell you about the Christmas cards and letters. Two letters in particular I would like to mention. The family letter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jewett Skinner of Boulder, Colorado was excellent. As I read it, I felt as though I was with Clyde on his trip to California. The other letter from Mrs. William P. (Marjorie) Hillman of Newark, Delaware leaves us with a warm feeling for such a close knit family. We are pleased that we are publishing her family line in our genealogical section this year. The Ray Jewett's of Clark Summit, Pennsylvania tell us on their Christmas card that there are 43,535 Jewetts in the United States. I wonder what the possibility is of having them all as members of the Association, and all of the Jewetts of Canada, also. A goal for us to strive for.

We lost some valued members and friends by death last year; two charter members and one who joined two months after the Association was incorporated; and a number of members who had joined in more recent years and whom we had leaned upon for help and support. Their loss will be felt by us and by the Association for many years to come.

A number of members from distant places called to see us during 1961. We are always pleased to welcome and to show anyone who stops the historical places in the town which our ancestors helped to found nearly three hundred and twenty-five years ago. Other members write of their trips to Europe; to the west coast; to the east coast; north and south; to Hawaii and some of even traveling around the world. The wanderlust which caused our family to spread from Rowley, Massachusetts to all parts of the United States and Canada continues even to the present generation.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Jewett of Mansonville, Quebec, observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary at a gathering in the Masonville Intermediate School on December 2, 1961. The family group picture is in the genealogical section.

Deacon Joshua's house, headquarters for the 1855 reunion, was taken down in December 1875.

Mr. Henry E. Biggs of Front Royal, Virginia writes that his son, Thomas T. graduated from the Presbyterian School of Christian Education at Richmond in May 1961 and is now assistant pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian Church, Greenville, South Carolina. He holds his B.A. degree from Hampden Sydney College and a Th.B. from Union Theological Seminary of Virginia. His wife is the former Virginia Aikens Wilson. Mr. Biggs' daughter, Betty King, has completed her second year at Mary Washington College of the University of Virginia where she is majoring in mathematics. Mr. Biggs is a descendant of Maximilian Jewett through his daughter, Elizabeth, who married Corp. Robert Hazeltine.

Mr. Linneaus J. Jewett formerly of Sterling, Illinois, has moved to Waukesha, Wisconsin.

Mr. Lyman R. Peters, a new member of the Association has the honor of being the member who lives the farthest north in this hemisphere. He moved to Canwood, Saskatchewan, from Forest City, Iowa, in 1913 when it was a comparatively new country, but on the whole very beautiful. He writes that Saskatchewan has the only Cooperative Commonwealth, Federation Government in the world.

Barbara Ann Jewett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Jewett of Haverhill, Mass. and Frank L. Zuzel of Shickshinny, Pennsylvania, were married at the Universalist-Unitarian Church, Haverhill on May 6, 1961. Mr. Zuzel is a personnel supervisor for Alleghany Air Lines. Mr. and Mrs. Zuzel are living in Hartford, Connecticut.

Genevieve M. Jewett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Jewett of Sacramento, California, and Arleigh T. Williams, Jr., of Orinda, California, were married in the Pioneer Congregational Church, Sacramento, October 29, 1961.

Dr. Stephen P. Jewett has retired from his practice of medicine and has moved from New York City to West Falls, near Buffalo.

Mrs. Emmett Wiggins of Antwerp, New York, reports that she has been ill for more than a year and a half, but is now showing great improvement. We missed the Wiggins at the reunion in Rowley last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick L. Jewett, formerly of South Acres, Massachusetts, but now living in Miami, left New York on January 6, 1961 on a world cruise, arriving back in New York on May 6th.

James Manny, at the tiller of the International sloop, Whiff, and Joseph E. Jewett, Jr., with his Star, the Capstar, were winners as a fleet of twenty-four raced in the Long Island Sound pre-season regatta, run by the Larchmont Yacht Club Race Committee on April 29, 1961.

E. Tilson Peabody, Director of Air Transport Section, General Motors Corporation, is increasingly in demand as a speaker and panelist on air transportation. Mr. Peabody is one of the Directors of our Family Association.

Charles Jewett, son of our former president, Herschel C. Jewett of Mason, Michigan, spent July and August in England as an exchange student. The program was sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches. Charles traveled extensively through England and Scotland. He is an outstanding student, in his junior year at Mason High School. He hopes to attend Yale University after he completes his high school education.

The 1961 Yearbook carried a picture of the Meeting House and Burial Ground at Sheffield, New Brunswick. The front page of the May 20, 1961 St. John's Telegraph-Journal carried a somewhat similar picture with all of the land under water due to the early spring floods. Included in this picture was the farm settled by Daniel Jewett in 1763.

Robert Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Young of New Orleans, Louisiana, received the Charles H. Bailey award for outstanding leadership among the male students at Loyola University at the Annual Awards Day ceremony, May 23, 1961. This award is donated annually by the Alumni Chapter of the Alpha Delta Gamma Social Fraternity and was presented by the Very Rev. W. Patrick Donnelly, S.J., President of the University. Robert is a law student. He traces his ancestry back to Maximilian Jewett, thrnugh Edwin Carostin Jewett who was a Sea Captain in the India trade for many years and who settled in New Orleans in 1867.

Miss Grace M. Jewett, for fifty years an elementary school teacher and principal at Leominster, Massachusetts, retired from her duties at the close of the school year in June 1961. Miss Jewett graduated from Fitchburg Normal School in 1911 and was awarded her bachelor's and master's degrees from the Fitchburg State Teachers College. For her contributions in elementary education, including active participation in the parent-teachers association movement, she was awarded the first J. D. Miller award for merit in teaching at Fitchburg State College in 1955. A public reception was held in her honor at the Northwest School, Leominster, on May 21, 1961.

Katherine Nowell Jewett, daughter of William Cornell Jewett III of Huntington, West Virginia, and George Alister Henry III were married August 26, 1961.

In June we received from George N. Angell, one of our members in Portland, Oregan, a genealogy of some of the descendants of William Angell, great-grandson of Thomas Angell, immigrant ancestor of the Angell family. This is a supplement to Avery F. Angell's genealogy of the Angell Family. Also a copy of the descendants of John Burbank of the Jacob Durgin Burbank line, supplementary to Sedgley's genealogy of the Burbank family. These genealogies were compiled by Mr. and Mrs. Angell after a long and thorough searching of records. We are grateful to Mr. Angell for his contribution to our collection.

Joan, daughter of the late Richard Jewett of Mason, Michigan, conducts a private finishing school. She has recently been working with the Lansing Business University and with the Michigan State University in conjunction with her school. She has a daily radio program and is frequently on television.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore V. Herrmann have moved from New York City to Englewood, New Jersey.

Linda Nan Jewett, daughter of Mrs. Clinton A. Jewett of Williams, California, and Gary E. Dateman were married at Carmel-by-the-Sea, California, October 8, 1960.

Harriett Virginia Baxter and Gary Newfield Jewett of Williams, California, were married June 24, 1961. Gary is the son of Mrs. Clinton A. Jewett.

Everett Grenville Jewett of Fresno, California is the editor of the Fresno Numismatic Society's Monthly Bulletin.

Samuel A. Newman, our honorary vice-president for Brazil has retired from the Gulf Oil Company and now makes his home in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Mrs. Susan Jewett Griggs of Abington, Connecticut, observed her ninetieth birthday quietly at her home on January 11, 1962. Due to her recent illness an open house could not be held as had been previously planned, but all of her children called to see her between Friday and Sunday.

Mrs. Griggs is well known as a writer. She began her literary career with articles for the Rural New Yorker and the Williamantic Journal. She also was a contributor of Historical Sketches for the Springfield Journal. Mrs. Griggs compiled a genealogical record of the descendants of Benjamin Jewett who removed from Ipswich and Manchester, Mass., and settled in Pomfret, Conn. Possibly she is best known by her books "Kate Ford's Family", "Nelly Beverly, Farmer", and "Folklore and Firesides in Pomfret, Hampton and Vicinity".

THE DESCENDANTS OF JOHN JEWETT THROUGH HIS GRANDSON, DAVID JEWETT

Compiled by Everett D. Jewett

The record of this branch of the Jewett Family has been compiled with the assistance of Mrs. Myrtle Sanderson of West Charleston, Vt., Mrs. Ralph A. Bean of Newport, Vt., and Mr. Fred A. Jewett of Mansonville, Quebec, and from notes and letters accumulated during the past few years.

The ancestry of John Jewett was taken from George A. Jewett's "Hunting an Ancestor" which was published in the 1912-13 Yearbook of the Jewett Family of America, Inc. and from the "Early Settlers of Rowley, Mass." by Blodgett and Jewett. The 1912-13 Yearbook also contains a partial record of the descendants of Joseph, son of John.

According to the December 1932 issue of the "Christian Worker", John married in Stratham, N. H., his cousin, Hannah Jewett. Two of their children were born in Stratham. He lived in Hopkinton, N. H. from about 1762 until about 1778, where his other children were born and where he signed the "Declaration of Fidelity" March 14, 1771 (the original is on file in Concord, N. H.). A deed signed by John Jewett, May 27, 1779, lists him as being of Henneker, N. H. He is at that time called "Yeoman". He also owned land in Bow and in Enfield.

John Jewett purchased from Timothy Bedel of Haverhill, N. H., saw mill and grist mill property in Bath, N. H., deed dated May 1, 1779, and evidently he removed to that town as we find him listed in Sutherland's History of Bath, page 100, as being a soldier in the Revolution from Bath. He was a highway surveyor in Bath in 1784 when he is designated as "Deacon".

Our first record of the Jewett Family in connection with the town of Lisbon, (called Concord until June 14, 1824) is a deed dated September 15, 1783 when David Jewett of Bath (son of John and not to be confused with John's grandson, David) purchased from Luther Richardson "one hundred acres of land in the township of Concord (Lisbon) near the Landaff line and about one half a mile southeast from Mink Pond".

The first invoice recorded of Lisbon is that of the year 1784 when the names of John, Joseph and Nathaniel Jewett appear on the list. From 1790 through 1795, Nathaniel, David or Joseph held town offices.

The Book of Records for the Church in Lisbon and Landaff, N. H., June 10, 1800, list among the names of the first members of the Church John Jewett, 1801, Dis., Sally Jewett, 1801, Dis., Huldah Jewett, 1801, Ex. and Hannah Jewett, 1801, Dis.

The minutes of the meeting of the Church, dated October 16, 1802 — "Church met at the desire of Nathl. Jewett, opened meeting with prayer. Nathl. Jewett acknowledged his faults and justified the Church in excommunication of him from the Church, and wished for fellowship with us again. Voted him restored to fellowship. Voted to give him a letter of regular standing with us. Closed meeting with praise to God". On page 30 of the same record book, we read "Dismissed by letter, Nathaniel Jewett, Oct. 17th, 1802".

On July 5, 1797, Nathaniel sold to Joshua Quimby of Landaff, N. H., property "that belonged to the lot of land that John Jewett lived on with buildings and improvements".

The Jewett Family with the exception of three daughters of John gradually disposed of their property and removed from the town. Probably the first to leave was David. He is listed as being of Stanstead County, Quebec on October 28, 1799, where he was one of the founders of the Baptist Church. It is presumed that when John and Hannah were dismissed from the Church at Lisbon they removed to Stanstead County, followed by Nathaniel and his family in 1801 and by Joseph and his family in 1805. George A. Jewett in his "Hunting an Ancestor" refers to Joseph as having moved from Lisbon to New York state, overlooking the fact that Joseph's daughter, Hannah, was born in Stanstead County.

The record on file of the children born in Lisbon is erroneously listed as children of John Jewett; whereas they were the children of Nathaniel and Sally (Stone) Jewett.

The Lake Shore Settlement in Stanstead County, Quebec "was begun in 1800 by the Merrill, Jewett, Baird, Daily, Peaslee, Geer and Brown Families". "Nos. twenty-two and twenty-three, first Range were settled by the Jewett Family of Lisbon, N. H. and, after passing through various hands, became the property of W. N. Wood, who gave it the name of Woodland"; from Forest and Clearings, compiled by F. B. Hubbard and published in 1874.

No record of the deaths of John and his wife, Hannah Jewett, neither of their sons, Nathaniel and David, have been found. It is probable that they died and are buried near Georgeville on Lake Memphremagog.

The names of David and Nathaniel Jewett were often prefixed by "Rev." as was John, the son of Nathaniel. I find no evidence that they were ever ordained.

From "The Stone Family of Piermont" by James A. B. Stone: "Sally Stone, oldest daughter of John Stone was married to Rev. Nathan Jewett, a Baptist Preacher. They settled in Stanstead, P. Q. and had nine children. After his death she married his brother, Rev. David Jewett, her deceased husband having before his death expressed a wish that she do so; and bore him three children, making an aggregate of twelve. Her descendants are numerous and widely scattered and many of them prominent in their respective spheres of acting life; being preachers, teachers, lawyers and farmers". The above statement is as true in 1962 as it was when written in 1884.

First Generation

1 John Jewett, son of Benjamin and Dorothy (Rogers) Jewett was born in Stratham, N. H., about 1730. He married there, August 10, 1758, his cousin, Hannah, daughter of Ensign Joseph and Ann (Wiggin) Jewett. She was born in Stratham, September 18, 1735 and died probably in Stanstead County, Quebec after 1802. John Jewett was a large land-owner in various towns in New Hampshire and through the records of the land titles we have been able to follow his wanderings from Stratham, to Hopkinton, to Henneker, to Bath and thence to Lisbon (Concord). He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War and was listed as a Scout in Colonel Evans' Regiment. He died probably in Stanstead County, Quebec.

Children

2 Mehetabel, born in Stratham, May 28, 1759. No further record.

3 David, born in Stratham, April 24, 1761. Married Sally (Stone) Jewett*

4 Nathaniel, Born in Hopkinton, March 31, 1763. Married Sally Stone*

5 Joseph, born in Hopkinton, March 25, 1765. Married Huldah Fenton

6 Eunice, born in Hopkinton, April 24, 1767. Married John Clark, Jr.

7 Bette (Betsey), born in Hopkinton, June 30, 1771. Married Sylvanus Noyes

8 Sally, born in Hopkinton, April 10, 1774. Married Timothy Noyes.

Second Generation

4 Nathaniel Jewett (John 1) was born in Hopkinton, N. H., March 31, 1763. He married Sally, daughter of Major Uriah and Hephzibah (Hadley) Stone. She was born in Piermont, N. H. He died in Stanstead County about 1803. After his death, his widow married his brother, David.

Children born in Lisbon, N. H., except last two

9 Clerinda (or Clarissa), born Nov. 11, 1787. Married Gideon Daley

10 Hannah, born April 15, 1789. Married Rev. Nathaniel Merrill.

11 Cynthia, Born Dec. 26, 1790. Married Elizah Geer.

12 John, born March 12, 1791 or 1793. Married Hannah Currier.

13 Uriah Stone, born Jan. 28, 1795. He was one of the fixtures about Lake Memphremagog. He was taken to Canada by his father and mother about the year 1800. He lived for many years in a cabin on Jewett's Point near Georgeville, Quebec.

I would take exception to the story in Volume I of "Beautiful Waters" by W. B. Bullock that "Riah" was addicted to "strong drink". Rather, the tales that I have heard about him emphasize his eccentricities, his convivial nature and his independent spirit. He had little schooling, but his natural ability for oratory enabled him to fully delight and entertain his audiences.

"Riah" never married. He died in Potton, Quebec, Jan. 31, 1868, and is buried in an unmarked grave in the small burial ground in Vale Perkins.

14 John Haynes, born Oct. 4, 1796. No further record.

15 Daniel, born Oct. 24, 1797. No further record.

16 Anna Mills, born in Stanstead County, Quebec, March 14, 1801. Married Gorham Paige.

17 David, born in Stanstead County, Quebec, Feb. 18, 1803. Married Laura Rexford*.

Dec. 25, 1893, Harriet Eliza, daughter of Franklin Smith and Harriet A. (Johnson) Lyon. She was born Jan. 30, 1863 and died in Maitland, Florida, May 7, 1949. He died in Fredonia, N. Y., June 23, 1940.

The hard cold facts of birth, marriages and deaths in a genealogical record leave much to be desired as a biographical record, particularly as to the life of such an outstanding man as Franklin Nelson Jewett.

He was born in a log cabin on his father's farm, and must have milked cows and done other chores before he went away to school, and probably on vacations.

Franklin Nelson Jewett taught a district school in Franklin County, N. Y. before he entered Oswego State Normal School, where he finished a four year course in three years. After more district school-teaching he entered in 1877 Rochester University, graduating in 1881 with his A.B. degree. The following year he taught at the Lake Forest Academy in Illinois.

During his senior year he won the Sherman Scholarship in Political Science by doing extra-curricular work. This work was a basis for a thesis submitted later for his A.M. degree. The subject was "The Condition of the Laboring Classes in Europe During the Twelfth Century".

He graduated from Rochester Theological Seminary in 1885, earning a prize early in the course for the highest standing in his class.

He joined the staff at the Fredonia Normal School in March 1886. During the forty years at Fredonia Normal he introduced methods of teaching far ahead of the times, with individual projects and group activities.

Prof. Jewett was a teacher of science, but also a student of languages; speaking French and German fluently.

On his retirement in June 1926 he was honored by the appointment, from the New York State Commission of Education, to the rank of Professor Emeritus.
