Twenty-third Reunion, Jewett Family of America, Rowley, Massachusetts

THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Hopper Road
Williamstown, Mass.
December 27, 1964

To the Jewetts of America:

Greetings!

The year 1964 has been one of less travel for your president, and considerable thought being given to trying to get a Memorial Library under way.

This Yearbook will include a report on the Reunion held in Rowley during the past summer as part of the 325th anniversary of the founding of the town.

We are pleased to introduce to you our new vice president, Edgar B. Jewett, III,a great grandson of the first president of the Jewett Family of America. He is a busy young man, as he travels about the country as vice president of J. W. Clement Company, printers. He and his attractive young family live in North Salem, Westchester County, New York, where they have a stable of riding horses, which suggests one sport hobby; the other being skiing.

It has been deemed advisable for some time to find a way in which contributions to the Jewett Memorial Library would be considered tax exempt by the Federal Government. This was one of the principal reasons for establishing the Jewett Memorial Library, Inc. We discovered that one way was to give the library to the town as a municipal library. This could be done under certain conditions, but these conditions might include limitations on gifts made to the town directly. So it appears better to seek contributions ultimately to be made to the Jewett Memorial Library, Inc., for we would then have control of the funds to be used to build a town library. As late as this December 18th, a revised application for the exemption has been filed which we hope will be acted upon favorably by the Federal government. You shall hear from us soon after we receive the anticipated exemption.

There is a limited supply of Castleton China plates, with Jewett Coat-of-Arms in color, offered at $8.50, including insured mailing. Send your request to me.

NOTES

We are attempting to trace the ancestors of Harold N. Jewett of St. Joseph, Missouri. His great grandfather was Christopher Columbus Jewett, born in Ohio on June 7, 1838. He lived at one time near Riverton, Iowa, and later homesteaded near Ord, Nebraska. He served in the Second Illinois Cavalry during the Civil War. Mr. Jewett's great great grandparents were August (or Augustus B.) and Joan Jewett. Can anyone help us.?

Dr. Ann E. Jewett, Director of Physical Education for Women, Springfield College, Springfield, Mass., has been named a vice president of the American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation. Dr. Jewett received a BA from Oberlin College in 1941, an MA from the University of Michigan in 1947, and her PhD from Stanford University in 1951. She is a member of many honorary fraternities and sororities, and a member of many educational associations.

An impressive portrait of Dr. Eugene Jewett of Orlando, Florida was on the cover of the Florida Magazine of June 21, 1964. The magazine also features an article about Dr. Jewett and his wife, Dr. Ruth Jewett. We are pleased to receive a copy for our archives.

Rodney A. Jewett of Orchard Park, New York, reports that his great grandfather and family embarked from England for America on an American ship in 1857. The family consisted of the father, mother and a thirteen year old daughter. Mr. Jewett's grandfather, Joseph Jewett, was born at sea, and his great grandfather died at sea. On arrival in this country the mother settled with her family in what is now Lackawana, New York. Any assistance in locating the early records of this family would be appreciated by the secretary.

Mrs. Mabel E. Blair has moved from Brookfield, Illinois to Burlingame, Kansas. After living forty-seven years in the Chicago area, she is glad to return to a small town. Her son-in-law, after twenty-two years in the Air Force service is now retired, and also lives in Burlingame with his family.

We are pleased to receive the family record of William G. Jewett of Gardner, Mass. for our files. We do regret the lack of space prevents our publishing it this year. We also appreciate the other family records which were sent to us for our archives during 1964.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wiggins of Antwerp, New York, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary on Sept. 19, 1964. Mrs. Wiggins writes that she is feeling much better after her recent illness.

Mrs. Roy Jewett of Enid, Oklahoma has agreed to donate to the Jewett Family the genealogical records compiled by her late husband as soon as a fire proof place has been provided for them.

The Secretary and Mrs. Jewett wish to use this space to acknowledge the many cards of greeting which were received during the Christmas Season, and to thank all who remembered us, not only with cards but with the many family letters which were sent to us.

The Jewetts migrated to Rowley, Mass. in 1639. Since then the wanderlust fever has stayed with their descendants. We have received reports of trips in 1964 by many of our members into all parts of the country, and to many places in Europe and Asia. Truly the activities of our family are remarkable.

We were pleased to receive visits from a number of members of the Association during the past year. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Morrill of Ann Arbor, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Merick with their two children from Bernie, Missouri, and Mr. and Mrs. Malburne Jewett Peabody and their family of Okinawa, Mr. and Mrs. Mackay of Stonington, Maine, and Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien of Farnham, Quebec were only a few who stopped by to chat.

On a brief visit to Mansonville, Quebec, we were pleased to find that Fred Jewett was out of the hospital where he had been confined for many months, and that he was back home in Vale Perkins.

A clipping taken from the Waldoboro, Maine Press, dated March 26, 1964, and sent to us by Mrs. Winifred Josephson, refers to the acceptance by the town of Alna, the gift of Head Tide Dam and adjacent property from Mr. Alan Jewett and Mrs. Alice Gregoire. A mill was constructed at the site as early as 1763. Lumber, grist and fulling mills have all operated from the dam. The last, a lumber mill was destroyed by fire the 1920's. Mr. Jewett has been working, since 1956 to restore the area to its former beauty. Members of the Association travelling in Maine should plan on a visit to the site in Alna.

Miss Evelyn Pattison has moved from Portland, Oregon to Kaneohe, Hawaii.

An article in a Stonington, Maine newspaper of October 15, 1964 refers to the second hand bookshop owned jointly by your recording secretary and your corresponding secretary.

Col. Ed Jewett is the Public Information Officer at the Davis-Moultean Air Force Base near Tucson, Arizona.

Dr. Stephen P. Jewett, formerly professor of Neurology and Chairman of the Department for many years, and now Professor Emeritus of the New York Medical College, was awarded an honorary degree of Doctor of Science by that college in 1960. He is now retired, and resides in West Falls, New York.

Helen I. Jewett has moved from Manhattan, Kansas to Sonorta, Arizona.

Harlan E. Jewett of Geneva, Ohio, graduated from Fenn College, Cleveland, Ohio on June 14, 1964. He received his Bachelor of Science degree in chemistry.

Mrs. Leota M. Geigel of Algona, Iowa reports that her son Robert is still in the wrestling profession. He and his family, which includes three daughters, ages 9, 12 and 13, reside in Amarillo, Texas.

Judge Theo S. Jewett of Laconia, N. H. has proposed that the old Jewett house built in Laconia about 1780 by Jacob Jewett be acquired and preserved as a museum by the citizens of that city.

Richard K. Jewett was elected President of the Westminster School Alumni Association on October 3, 1964. Mr. Jewett graduated from Yale University in 1947 and attended Columbia University Graduate School of Business. He, with his wife and two children, reside in Darien, Connecticut.

Robert J. Young of New Orleans, Louisiana was one of the many visitors that we entertained last year. He is compiling a very impressive record of his family lines.

Eric Jewett of Long Beach, Calif. graduated in January 1964 at Arizona State University, Temple, Arizona, with a B. S. degree in Business Administration and Management.

Do you know of anyone who should join the Family Association? Nearly every state is represented in our membership, but there is strength in numbers, and only by increased membership can we grow. We have new application forms for prospective members and will be pleased to send them to anyone interested. Write to your corresponding secretary, Mrs. Edna P. Jewett, Rowley, Mass.

Golden Anniversary Gathering - Jewett's of Mason, Michigan - July 26, 1964

Account of the Fiftieth Celebration of the Jewett Family of Mason, Mich.

Each year since 1914, the Jewett's of Mason, Michigan, descendants of Joseph Jewett, who settled in Ingham County nearly one hundred and thirty years ago, have held a family gathering on the last Sunday of July. This year was no exception, and so we celebrated our golden anniversary at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Emery H. Jewett on Sunday July 26th. Welcoming the 122 guests was Mrs. Arlene Ericksen of Lansing, Rex D. Jewett of Mason and two grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs Emery Jewett, Roger J. Eriksen and Rodney D. Jewett.

Chairs and tables were arranged under the century old maple trees and around the flower beds. Additional flower arrangements were furnished from the Jewett Flower Shop by Mrs. Murryne Jewett. A golden corsage of memory yellow roses was presented to each lady, and a special table displayed the ninety golden rose arrangements of yellow roses donated by Mrs. Lindsay in memory of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Jewett, Sr., and of her brother, the late Richard C. Jewett. A huge golden tiered cake, furnished by the host and hostess, held the place of honor.

On large tables, pictures, heirlooms and mementos, loaned for the occasion by members of the Mason Jewett families, were on display. Included among these items was the powder horn carried by Ichabod Jewett during the Revolutionary War, and a bronze medal won by Arthur W. Jewett, Sr., for floral displays at the World Columbian Exposition in 1893.

The decorated cake contest, with seventeen entries, was won by Mrs. Arthur W. Jewett. The judge, Mr. Wilfred L. Jewett, suggested that there was very little choice - each cake looking so beautiful.

The dinner of home cooked food was served by the ladies of the family after Mrs. Alton (Ione A.) Jewett had asked God's blessing on the group assembled.

Following the repast the business meeting was called to order by the President, Herschel C. Jewett. A prayer composed by Mrs. Alton Jewett was read by the Rev. Ronald E. Benson of the Wesley Methodist Church, Warren, Mich. This prayer will be used at future gatherings of the group. Mrs. Eva Haskell Morse was remembered as the originator of the Jewett gathering in 1914. Her home, where the gathering took place, is still standing.

Mr. George W. Jewett of Eaton Rapids, Mich., brought to Mason for the occasion by his daughter, Mrs. Carrie J. Lane, was honored with a golden vase of yellow roses for being the oldest person present. He will celebrate his ninety-ninth birthday on August 30, 1964. Mr. Jewett, noted for his speaking ability, entertained all with his recitations and philosophical remarks.

First Gathering - Jewett's of Mason, Michigan - 1914

Alton L. Jewett, 84, father of the president, was presented with a box of mangoes from the orchards of his niece, Mrs. Bessie Dermondy of Miami, Florida, and with a golden vase of yellow roses in honor of being the oldest person present who had attended the first gathering in 1914. A biography of Mr. Jewett, a native and life long resident of Mason, was read by his son, Joseph L. Jewett, of Grand Blanc, Michigan.

A golden vase of yellow roses was presented Mr. and Mrs. Lester A. Snell of Pontiac, Michigan for displaying a 125 year old brass lamp, once owned by Mr. Snell's grandfather, the late Dr. Jeremiah P. Jewett of Lowell, Mass., and Barnstead, N. H.

A golden vase of yellow roses was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Emery Jewett for being the perfect host and hostess.

A memorial biographical sketch of Arthur W. Jewett, Sr., was submitted by his children, Ralph F., Wilfred L., Arthur W., Emery H., Mrs. Madelon Lindsay and Mrs. Florence Jewell.

A biography of the life of Mattie Bell (Jewett) Mixter was submitted by her daughters, Mrs. Bessie Dermondy, Mrs. Mary Benson and Mrs. Ruth Beninian. Mrs. Dermondy also contributed poems and writings by her mother, as well as her mother's genealogical records.

A biographical sketch of Charles A. Damon was presented by his daughters, Mrs. Georgia McKinley, Mrs. Betty Gage and Mrs. Mary Fortina. Another daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Keppen of Galeta, Cal. was unable to be present. Mr. Damon was famous for his skill with firearms. He appeared in travelling Wild West Shows, and at the Chicago World's Fair where he was featured as "Left Hand Charlie", the World's champion pistol shot. His collection of firearms, indian relics, etc., are on display in a small private museum in Fenton, Michigan.

Others honored with floral tributes were Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Lee of New York City, recently married. Mrs. Lee is the granddaughter of J. Carleton Jewett; Miss Mary Ann Fredericks, congratulating her on her forth coming marriage to Mr. David F. Cox. She is the daughter of Allen S. and Helen (Jewell) Frederick; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Deatrich, married on July 5, 1964. Mrs. Deatrich, the former Leiloni Rossman, is the daughter of Robert O. Rossman of Parma, Michigan. Mr. William E. Rossman of Adrian, Michigan, for his display of a 300 year old family bible. Mrs. Mary Benson of Miami, Florida, for coming the farthest. She was accompanied by her son, Louis P. and daughter, Marilyn. Capt. Arthur W. Jewett, Mason; Pvt. Ralph F. Jewett, Royal Oak, Mich.; Capt. Maurice G. Jewett, Milwaukee, Wisc., Maj. Jack A. Lindsay, Detroit; Henri Bezinian, Montreal, Canada - all veterans of the first World War. President Herschel C. Jewett for his efforts in making this, the fiftieth anniversary such a success.

Applauded were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse F. Miller. They now reside on the original Jewett homestead in Chelsea, Michigan, settled in 1836 by Eleazer and Submit (Porter) Jewett.

The baby novelty for the youngest girl present went to Lamora Jo Jewell, born January 30, 1964, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Jewell of Leslie, Mich. The youngest boys present were LaValle Ceilon Lamphere, son of Gary and Judith (Jewett) Lamphere, born August 31, 1963; and Scott Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton L. Jewell, Jr., of Lansing, Mich. Scott was born April 3, 1964.

Entertainment for the children included a bubble gum contest, won by Miss Carol Jewett of Detroit, and a watermelon eating contest won by John Richert of Washington, D. C., Steven and Rodney Jewett of Jackson Michigan. The prizes were donated by Emery Jewett.

Seven of those attending trace their line back to Deacon Maximillian Jewett who settled in Rowley, Mass, in 1639. They were Mr. Lester A. Snell, Mr. Edward Kelley, Mrs. Barbara Dorn, Jean, Pat, Marvin and Timmy Dorn. The others present of Jewett descent trace their ancestry to Joseph Jewett, the brother of Maximilian, and also one of the first settlers of Rowley.

Representing the Chandler Jewett family of Robin Hood, Me. was Mrs. A. Mackenzie and family of Mt. Morriss, Michigan. Mrs. Mackenzie is the daughter of Stanley B. Jewett.

In all twenty-six biographical sketches of Jewetts and Jewett descendants were submitted to the secretary. It is hoped that these records may at some future time be published in book form.

Many letters of regret were received from those who were unable to be present.

The meeting adjourned after tributes had been paid to those members and friends of the family who were no longer with us.

Following the close of the meeting, friends and relatives spent the remainder of the afternoon looking at the mementos and pictures and reminiscing about old times.

OTHER JEWETT GATHERINGS

1964 Jewett Family Reunion at Hampton, Connecticut.

The 26th annual Jewett Family reunion was held on Sunday, July 26th, 1964 at the home of Arthur E., and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Pearl on Hampton Hill. Some fifty adults and numerous children gathered on one of the most pleasant days we have had this summer.

The festivities began shortly after 1:00 P. M. with the singing of the "Doxology" and "America the Beautiful", prior to our sitting down to our mid-day meal. Upon completion of the meal, some time was spent in picture taking and determing who were the oldest and the youngest members present. The oldest was Arthur E. Pearl, 86 years; and the youngest, his grandson, Kevin E. Pearl, 2 years old.

The meeting was finally brought to order by the President, Viola J. Clapp at 2:30 P. M. and the Secretary's and Treasurer's reports were read and approved. The Secretary then read letters from Mary Stone of Keene, New Hampshire, and Everett D. Jewett of Rowley, Mass., and a Night-letter from Roger Jewett of Williamstown, Massachusetts; the latter two gentlemen being Secretary and President of the Jewett Family of America. All expressed their regrets at being unable to be with us. Carl Jewett mentioned that he had just received a letter from the Palmer's from Florida, who sent their greetings to all present.

Cards were signed by the group and sent to Mrs. Reginald Thayer at the Hartford Hospital, and to Mary W. Jewett at a Nursing Home in Abington, Conn. Mary is our oldest living member and is the mother of Vice President Carl Jewett, and Mrs. Vera Hoffman, with whom she had made her home until recently.

The meeting concluded with the heads of families, or in many cases their more talkative spouces, giving a report on the family's activities for the past year. The meeting adjourned at 3:30 P. M. with the understanding that we would return to the Pearl homestead on the last Sunday in July, next year.

Respectfully submitted
Ulmer M. Jewett, Secretary

For a more complete record of these last three generations see the following pages.

Being mindful that the printed History and genealogy of the Jewetts of America, (the only one of its kind known to us) so carefully and beautifully compiled by one Frederick Clark Jewett M. D., was terminated the year 1908, it impels this writer to continue that line in which he is a descendant.

In writing this we choose to go back a little to one, Willard Jewett, who was of the eighth generation in our line of the Jewett Family of America, and the parental grandfather of Edward L. Jewett the writer of the following pages, which brings us up to about the year 1963.

Key to the method of compiling.

Please note carefully, each and every descendant has his own identifying number. We shall follow chronologically by families, listing the children according to age.

It is the same method used by Dr. Frederick Clarke Jewett, the difference being he started with the year 1580, Edward Jewett of England, as No. 1, where as we now start with Willard Jewett, his eighth decendant, as No. 1.

The descendants of Willard Jewett

1. Willard Jewett was of the eighth generation in the line of descendants of Edward[1] Jewett, the father of the Jewetts who first came to America. This ancestral father was born in Bradford, West Riding of Yorkshire, England, about 1580.

He married there Oct. 1, 1604 Mary Taylor, daughter of William Taylor. They had four children, two of which sailed from Hull, England in 1638.

Willard Jewett (the eighth child in a family of ten) was the son of Isaac Jewett, (seventh in the ancestral line) who was born in Hollis, N. H., July 5, 1763. The boy Isaac lived in Temple, N. H., until he became 25 years of age, and soon after, on Nov. 27, 1788, married in Wilton, N. H., Mary Chandler, eldest daughter of Ebenezer and Mary (Burnap) Chandler of Wilton. They settled on a farm in Nelson, N. H., situated on a hill about midway on the cross road between Munsonville (a part of Nelson) and Nelson village, where they had ten children, and where she died Dec. 11, 1845. He died there Nov. 20, 1852. The place where they were buried is unknown to this writer, but since a careful survey of both the Nelson Center and Munsonville cemeteries has not revealed any indication of being buried in either place, it is quite natural to presume that they were taken to Hollis, N. H., where he was born, and where many of his ancestral relatives are buried.

Willard Jewett was born in Nelson, Nov. 22, 1805. He married 1st., May 29, 1832, in Nelson, his cousin; Elvire Blodget, daughter of Nathaniel and Hannah (Chandler) Blodget, born Aug. 5, 1808. She died in Nelson Aug. 5, 1836, just 28 years old. He married 2nd., June 13, 1837, Mrs. Mary (Kittredge) Livermore, born Jan. 19, 1812, and died in Nelson, May 18, 1883, at the age of 71 years and 4 months. He had nine children, two by his first wife, and seven by his second wife. He was a farmer and his homestead was near the junction of the Concord, Nelson Center, and Old Nelson roads, and was long in the family. But the house now standing there is not the original, that burned down in a tragic fire, Nov. 15, 1865.

Quite interestingly I found recorded in one of Father's old diaries on a memoranda page; "This was what was put into the paper. Nelson. The dwelling house of Mr. Willard Jewett, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday night last, while the family were all absent. All of Mr. Jewett's grain and part of his household goods were burned. No insurance". Father very thoughtfully clipped and saved that newspaper item, it was in the flap-pocket of his diary cover, where he had put it. Father was only seventeen years old at the time and it made a deep impression on him, this we know because he goes on to write; "I was second to go into the house, Mr. Taylor first, the wind was southwest at the time, in a few hours we were burned out of house and home. We were turned out doors in the middle of the night with no place we could call our home." On the opposite page in his diary he wrote; "Guess it will be better to write it with ink. Father's house was burnt to the ground on the evening of Nov. 15th 1865. We had gone away. Father and mother had gone to Mr. Hardy's and I was to Mr. Pages. I saw it soon after it broke out, it broke out in the south side of the house at the window in the kitchen. Frank, Nancie and Asshel had gone to Hillsboro. A few things were saved. No insurance. Loss was thot to be 2,000 dollars. We lived at Frank Hardy's after the house was burnt". It was rebuilt the following summer and was ready for occupancy by the first of October.

This new house was designed for two families, with an ell and kitchen on each end. After Frank K., his son was married, he moved into one tenement where he lived and cared for his parents as long as they lived. Soon afterwards he sold the old homestead and moved to Keene in order that his daughter might have better school advantages. Will have more detail on this under number six (6).

Mr. Jewett died in Nelson Dec. 9, 1889, aged 84 years and 18 days. They were buried in the Jewett family lot in Munsonville Cemetery.

Frank K[2] took his bride home to the new house which replaced the old Jewett Homestead where he was born, and they lived in the east side tenement. According to the diary record; on Sept. 28, 1866, his father deeded half of the farm to him. He operated the farm and cared for his Father and Mother as long as they lived, this obligation being fulfilled the full title of the farm came to him. This left him free to sell the place, which he did in the year 1890, and removed to Keene, N. H. as has already been stated.

In Keene he became active in civic affairs. He was the city assessor for 20 years. Both Mr. and Mrs. Jewett were members of the Court Street Congregational Church and were prominent grangers, and he 9, Charles Frederick[2] Jewett, son of Willard,[1] was born in Nelson, N. H., May 22, 1849, he was married in Nelson at the home of the bride, Nov. 26, 1874, by Rev. Mark Gould of Nelson, to Olive Rosetta (sometimes recorded Rosannah, but finally called Rose) Morse born in Danville, Vt., Dec. 14, 1851. She was the daughter of Dea. Jewett and Susan White (Skinner) Morse, who was born in Haddam, Conn., Nov. 14, 1822; and was married to Jewett Morse Jan. 13, 1841, at Burke, Vt., by Rev. Thomas Wilson Duncan.

Dea. Jewett Morse, one of a family of twenty-one children, was born in Danville, Vt., Apr. 12, 1815. After their marriage they lived at first in Burke, Vt., and removed to Danville, Vt., where Olive was born.

Mr. Morse was a relative of Prof. Samuel F. B. Morse, inventor of the electric telegraph. Both men being descendants of one man, Anthony Morse, who was born in Marlboro, England, May 9, 1606, and sailed for America, 1635.

Dea. Jewett and Susan Morse came to Nelson, N. H. from Vermont about 1861 to care for Susan's foster parents, The Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Duncan.

The following is a quotation from the Duncan Family Bible. " Thomas W. Duncan was born at Antrim, N. H., Mar. 3, 1791. Lucy North was born at Berlin, Conn., Oct. 22nd, 1790. We were married at Fly Creek, Otsego Co., N. Y., June 5, 1882. Susan W. Skinner was born at Haddam, Conn., Nov. 14, 1822, and became a member of our family Sept. 1828."

Now that Dea. Morse had fulfilled his obligation in caring for the Duncans, it left him free to settle in a new place if he should choose to.

Early in 1880 the Morses did remove to Sullivan, N. H., where they became active members of the Sullivan Congregational Church by letters from the Congregational Church of Nelson May 2, 1880. He was elected deacon of the Sullivan Church, Sept. 3, 1880, and served until he died in Sullivan, Apr. 2, 1900, aged 85 years lacking 10 days. She died there Mar. 12, 1904, aged 81 years 3 months and 26 days. They were buried in the Morse-Jewett lot in Munsonville Cemetery.

After Charles and Olive were married they lived for four and a half years in their home town of Nelson in a house (called the Baker Place) in the village at the Center.

An excerpt from Charlie's diary, April 4, 1874; "Went up to Mrs. Baker's got the Deed for farm and gave her a note that I am to pay her the 1st of July, I have that amount and some more in the Banks to Keene, Hate to draw it out but do not see but I must."

Again, the diary, July 1, 1874; "Went to Keene, drawed my money out of the bank to pay Mrs. Loeana Baker. Paid her all up." A note on memoranda page, July 1st 1874; "Paid Mrs. Baker $800, plus $12. interest, $5.67 half of taxes, $10. for wood and $2. for her wheelbarrows, Total $829.67."

They sold this house for 800 dollars, May 15, 1879, to Mr. Varanes Atwood, and moved in with the Morses May, 1879, to live while looking for a new home. It had been their intention to buy the Monihan Farm adjacent to the Morse's farm. But when Mr. Monihan heard, "Charlie has sold his place in the village," he (Monihan) upped the price of his farm consderable. This irked Charlie and drove him to seek a farm elsewhere.

After seeing several places in Dublin and other towns Mr. Jewett bought a farm in Sullivan Center, from Deacon Wilson, a farm containing about 115 acres, with a large two-story Colonial House, which was built in 1808-9 by Enoch Woods, who was a carpenter and blacksmith. Mr. Woods lived here until he died Mar. 25, 1836. Benjamin Kemp, Mr. Woods' son-in-law, was the next owner, and lived here for more than thirty years.

Mr. Kemp sold the farm, April 24, 1867, to Alonzo Farrar and John Locke, and they sold it Oct. 19, that same year, to George C. Hubbard. Mr. Hubbard remained on this place for only a few months and sold it Mar. 28, 1868 to Dea. Asa E. Wilson.

Charles F. Jewett bought this farm of Dea. Wilson, Nov. 25, 1879, for the sum of 1500 dollars, and it has been in the Jewett family ever since, making it the Sullivan Jewett Old Homestead for many, many years, total of 83 at this writing.

Charles and Olive moved into this new home in Sullivan, on Mar. 4, 1880, where they united with the Congregational Church, by letters from the Nelson Church, May 2, 1880.

Olive's father sold his farm in Nelson, Dec. 1, 1879, to Winslow Atwood, for 1000 dollars to be paid for on the first of January 1880, and on the same day (Jan. 1, 1880) he bought a half-interest in Charlie's Sullivan Farm, and moved into one side of the large house, Mar. 11, 1880. They together carried on the farm.

Mr. Jewett was mail carrier to and from Keene, N. H., for many years. Mrs. George Marston was postmaster in Sullivan during that time, but in 1907, Olive R. Jewett was appointed to succeed Mrs. Marston, by Theodore Roosevelt, the then President of the United States; by whom she received her commission and commenced her duties on Oct. 22, 1907. This office she held for 21 and a quarter years, until her death, Feb. 1, 1929, at the age of 77 years 1 month and 18 days. He died there, May 24, 1929, aged 80 years and 2 days. They were buried in Munsonville cemetery. Morse-Jewett family lot.

The half-interest in the farm owned by the Morses reverted to Mr. Jewett after he had fulfilled his commitment to care for them during their natural lifetime.

He was married at the home of the bride in Nelson, N. H., June 25, 1912, by Rev. W. O. Conrad of Keene, to Bessie Carolyn Priest, born in Nelson, Apr. 25, 1892, daughter of Homer F. and Ethel M. (Martin) Priest.

He brought his bride home to the Old Jewett Homestead where he was born, and they live in that part formerly occupied by his grandfather Morse.

At this time Edward's father retired leaving the operation of the farm to him, with his brother Clarence to help. Clarence lived with his parents until their death, afterwards with Bessie and Edward until he died in 1956, having spent his entire lifetime of over 69 years at the place of his birth; excepting the last 4 weeks at the Hospital in Keene where he died.

Thus making the Old Jewett Homestead in Sullivan also the Post Office for over 51 consecutive years. At this time the Post Office Department decided to permanently close the Sullivan, N. H., Post Office. Leaving the East Sullivan Post Office the only one in town, with the Star Route mail carrier serving roadside mail boxes thru Sullivan Center once a day. Summerfield, Postmaster General, Washington, D. C.

This Mr. Jewett was of the tenth generation in the line of the Jewetts of America. He begot three daughters, but, alas - no son, so this tiny branch of his great family tree, becoming broken, came to an end in name. Strange this long line of posterity should begin with Edward Jewett and end with Edward Jewett.

After the death of his parents, Edward L. Jewett by virtue of his father's will became the owner of the Jewett Homestead. But on Sept. 25, 1943, he made it a joint ownership with his wife, Bessie C. Jewett, with the right of survivorship.
