Greetings From the President to the Members of the Jewett Family of America

Edna Jewett

It is with the utmost humility that I write this letter.

One year ago I was ready to drop all duties for The Jewett Family of America. Looking back it was a sad year (1986), we lost three active members, Clifford Jewett, Dr. John Figgis Jewett and Everett Tilson Peabody. We miss them and our hearts go out to their loved ones.

We are planning on a Reunion, July 22nd and 23rd, 1989, at Rowley, Massachusetts, when the town will be celebrating the 350th Year of its Founding.

It is my sincere wish that the Family will prosper in the coming years; and further work will be done to bring the genealogy up-to-date.

The reprints of the genealogy have sold well, and we still have a few copies on hand, the price is $85.00 for the two volumes.

We are enclosing a bill for dues again this year, to again save money on postage. Since, again, we are very late with this dues bill, and we operate on a limited budget, your remittance will be greatly appreciated. If you have paid the 1986 dues already, thank you.

Once again, if you would care to get current in your dues and add on an extra $10.00 for 1987, this will be recorded and much appreciated.

Please note that this Jewett Year Book is dated 1986-1987. There are some reasons for this:

1) to get current in The Year Book. Many things sent to us overlap in the years. This year, all will become current and up-to-date in Births, etc.

2) In the Spring of 1988, postage costs will rise considerably and we wanted to take advantage of the current rate. Also printing costs are rising.

However, after this, The Year Books will revert to one year at a time.

There are some back issues of The Jewett Year Books. If interested, please contact me.

Some of the newer members may not have received The Jewett Coat of Arms. If not, please let me know immediately. My address: Box 251, Rowley, Mass. 01969.

There are some other new members who are not listed because, as yet, they have no numbers, but they will be listed in the next Year Book. If, however, those new members have not received their Jewett Coat of Arms, please write to me at once.

We are open for suggestions at any time. More will be in the next yearbook about the reunion.

Tou jours le meme,
EDNA P. JEWETT

We will need to form committees to help with this important celebration.

New President Edna Jewett said she would call a Board Meeting in The Spring of 1987 to make plans and form committees. Willard Jewett is General Chairman for the town of Rowley.

Edna Jewett thanked all who were present for her nomination and election and said she appreciated their support.

JEWETT FAMILY OF AMERICA, INC.

A recent examination of the combined financial statements of the JEWETT FAMILY OF AMERICA, INC., for the period beginning January 1, 1984, and ending September 17, 1986, was made by the undersigned elected Auditor for the JEWETT FAMILY OF AMERICA, INC.

This examination was made in accordance with generally accepted standards and included such tests of the Treasurer's records and such other auditing procedures as were considered necessary under the circumstances.

Note 1. The account labeled 'DUES' also represents those funds received as the result of pre-selling the GENEALOGY reprint, which were deposited to that selfsame account.

Note 2: The account labeled 'DIRECTOR MEET COSTS' also represents those expenditures made for the Rowley Reunion in Summer 1984.

Note 3: Paid-out expenses to other Officers, Directors, or Members are treated as generally expensed to that person paid, except in those cases which were documented in advance to the Treasurer.

Documentation of such non-itemized expenses, if requested by the membership, should be supplied by those persons to whom funds were paid by the Treasurer.

Note 4: No formal account of sources of revenues held outside the Treasury, amounts of such revenues, or location of same has been made to either the Treasurer or the Auditor for the basis of this Report.

No accounting of Inventory Values for those memorabilia expensed to the JEWETT FAMILY OF AMERICA, INC. and held by certain of the membership for sale to others has been submitted to or considered by the Auditor.

In the opinion of the undersigned Auditor, except that the omission of those items detailed under the notes, above, results in an incomplete presentation of the actual financial position of the JEWETT FAMILY OF AMERICA, INC. as regards assets convertible to cash and as regards any monies held outside the Treasury resulting from such conversion, the combined financial statements reviewed by the Auditor as presented by the Treasurer, JEWETT FAMILY OF AMERICA, INC., are in conformance with accepted accounting principles and standards.

The decendants of Ebenezer and Nancy M. (Jennings) Jewett held their 48th annual family reunion on Sunday, July 13, 1986 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hall, Columbia, Ct. A pot luck dinner was followed by a short business meeting and afternoon of fun and fellowship. The spacious grounds and large in-ground pool made a wonderful site to hold our reunion. The oldest person attending was L. Reginald Thayer of Newington, Ct. Mrs. Beatrice Thayer has served as secretary and treasurer of this group for many years, but has declined re-election. The new secretary and treasurer is Mrs. Eleanor (Pearl) Moon of Hampton, Conn. Guests were present from Connecticut and New Hampshire.

The 1987 family reunion will be held in the summer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hall. Erik Hall, son of Arthur and Marcia, won the Professional Archery Ass'n national championship and other national awards this year. His sister Tricia was the 1985 New England Women Archery Champion. She placed second in the nation at the Professional National Archery Championship in St. Louis, Mo.

Many members of this family group will be active in the 200th anniversary of the town of Hampton, Ct. at the special celebration to be held on Sept. 27, 1986.

The 45th year of the play "The Old Homestead" by the Swanzey, N.H. players has several members of this group in the cast. Mrs. Barbara (Stone) Sault has been in the production for 30 years. Some of her children are in it now and her parents before her were active in the program which is presented each year in Swanzey Center, N.H. to benefit the community.

Our secretary records each year the births, deaths and marriages to keep our family genealogy files up to date.

1987 JEWETT—PEARL CONNECTICUT REUNION

Sunday, July 12, 1987, the descendants of Ebenezer Jewett II and Nancy M. (Jennings) Jewett gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hall, Columbia, for their annual summer reunion. A delicious pot luck dinner was served followed by short business meeting and fellowship. The big inground pool was enjoyed by many.

President is Henry Moon, Hampton, Ct.; Secretary and Treasurer is Mrs. Eleanor (Pearl) Moon, Hampton, Ct., Historian's report showed six births, one marriage and four deaths since the last reunion.

It was noted the July issue of "Yankee magazine" this year had a picture of Mrs. Barbara (Stone) Sault, her son David, and daughter Susan, who are in the play, "The Old Homestead", presented in N.H. each summer. Barbara has been in the play for 31 years now. They are members of this family reunion group.

Many of the family are active in their Granges and received awards on the local, state and national level from Conn.

Many in the family from Hampton, Ct., took part in the Bicentennial program of Hampton in September 1986.

Over 400 pages of genealogy material on John Pearl, Mass., and descendants was forwarded to the Genealogical Library, Salt Lake City, Utah by Marion R. Emmons, Columbia this year and have been placed on micro film.

The 1988 family reunion date and place will be available from Mrs. Eleanor Moon, Sec.

Family Gatherings

The Jewetts in Texas, descendants of Harry Berkey Jewett and his wife, Gladys (Norfleet) Jewett have had 2 reunions in recent years. Mr. Jewett was Vice-President for Texas of the Jewett Family for many years, being appointed to that post by President George Anson Jewett and The Board.

Meeting for Sunday dinner at Braeburn Country Club in Houston, Texas in November, 1985, The group numbered 24 and included Harry B. Jewett, Jr. and Mary (Jones) Jewett; Harry B. Jewett III and his wife Patti, and children David and Shelly.

Also Margaret Jewett Van Wagner and husband Syd, and children Gregory, Jeffrey and Sheila; Charles Edgar Jewett and wife, Joanna, and children Katy and Andrew; Douglas Eugene Jewett and his wife, Cathy and son Brian and Laura Jewett.

Also Thomas Paul Stitt and wife, Melinda (Millheim) Stitt, and daughter Rebecca Jean, all of Easton, Pa.

Hosting were Dorothy Jewett Stitt and husband James Wilson Stitt, also of Easton.

On Oct. 24, 1987, another Texas Jewett family reunion occurred at the same place.

Only 12 came, due to conflicts with teenage high school sports, band membership and other activities, normal to teenagers. Those families were missed.

Those attending included Harry B. Jewett, Jr.; Harry B. Jewett III, wife Patti, daughter Shelly; Charles Edgar Jewett and wife Joanna and children Katy, Andrew and Julie; Laura Jewett. Again, James W. and Dorothy Jewett Stitt hosted the happy affair.

Jim and Dorothy were fortunate to be with Douglas and Cathy Jewett and son Brian in Austin, Texas; and to see Margaret Jewett Van Wagner and new daughter Stephanie Anne in Houston.

Jewetts Begin Adventure in India

Dr. Paul Jewett

Paul Jewett and his wife, Judy, are doing their second mission as medical missionaries at Miraj Medical Centre in Western India. They are from Lincoln, Neb. and associated there with Bryan Memorial Hospital.

Paul was requested to return to do coronary by-pass surgery. Judy will serve in administration.

Dr. Jewett's original reaction was, "It's absurd!" He said, "Our new lab at Bryan cost $500,000, and I felt there was no way to get the money or equipment to outfit the hospital at Miraj. But, as is so often the case, the Lord made provisions we hadn't counted on!"

Donations began to be offered, from South Carolina to Nebraska, and suddenly there was enough equipment. All was shipped, and Dr. Jewett and his family left Lincoln on June 16, 1986 for India.

The Jewetts work through the Presbyterian Medical Mission Fund. They first served from 1968 to 1974. The Miraj Hospital served 10,000,000 people and is the only facility for hundreds of miles capable of doing open heart surgery. The Centre is also a training center for post graduate medicine. Dr. Jewett hopes "we will be able to provide training to help staff new cardiac centers as they open in India." He is a member of the medical school faculty there, as well as a practicing physician.

What a wonderful couple and what a wonderful service to mankind.

News Notes

Roger Jewett writes of some trips he and Evelyn have made. One was to Hawaii several years ago, when two of their grandsons accompanied them. Also a cruise in Spring, 1987, down the Mexican East Coast.

They also drive to Peabody and Haverhill, Ma., on occasions, to see two of their children and their families.

Mrs. Marion R. Emmons of Columbia, Conn., sends the reports of family reunions and Jewett-Pearl family news from Conn. She writes, that she continues her hobby of genealogy and is pleased that her husband, Austin E., is now a member of The Alden Kindred Society and The Conn. Mayflower Society, the latter under Peter Brown. She did the Alden and Brown research for him.

It was a great satisfaction to see the America's Cup return to America. The Jewett Family will be pleased to know that Fritz Jewett had a part in the planning and financing, again. Congratulations, Fritz and all the Team.

We received two most interesting old letters found by our new member Roger O. Young of Marietta, Ohio. The 1826 letter was written to Betsy Palmer McGuire probably by Edward Jewett (#4644); the 1834 letter, also written to Betsy, was written by Aaron Jewett (#2724).

The letters tell of farming, the weather, family news, and religious views.

Roger Young's line: Edward, Joseph, Jeremiah, Aaron, Moses, Aaron, Abigail Palmer, Betsy (Palmer) McGuire.

We were sent some pictures of the cemetery at Anderson Prison at Andersonville. Two tombstones named Jewetts: 1) O.A. Jewett, prison #12,830, of Mass.; the other, Elmer Jewett, prison #995, of Mass. Reminders of a terrible, needless conflict.

Claudia L. Jewett has written a book called, "Helping Children Cope with Separation and Loss", published by the Harvard Common Press, Boston, Mass.

Her book has been well received and offers practical advice to help children resolve and integrate their grief because of separation of parents, death, even cross-country moves and day care.

Arthur W. Greely wrote an interesting note accompanying his check for dues and a contribution to be used as needed. He says:

> I am the eldest son of Gertrude Maxwell Jewett (Greeley), #8303 of the Frederic Clarke Jewett Book.
> She married William B. Greeley on Dec. 30, 1907 in Oakland California. Gertrude died March 2, 1970 at Port Gamble, Washington. William died Nov. 30, 1955, also at Port Gamble, Washington. There were four children.
>
> William B. Greeley was Chief of the U.S. Forest Service from 1920 to 1928, was a decorated Army Officer in World War I, and in his day was recognized as an outstanding leader and highly respected professional in the field of professional forestry in the United States.

Barbara Dorn's youngest double cousin, Doris Taylor and husband Philip Swain celebrated their 50th Anniversary March 28th 1987 at Amaret, Missouri.

Barbara and two other women were clearing six inches of snow on their block when a TV camera caught them and they made the evening weather report. Barbara has been contributing to a Senior Citizen publication.

News Note

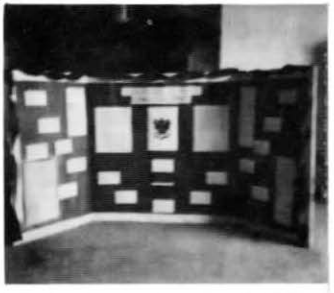
Willard's parents met the Rev. Walter Jewett while visiting Willard's brother in Nebraska, years ago. Mr. Jewett was pastor of a Methodist Church near Willard's brother's home.

Willard Jewett on Right

At East High School in Lincoln, Nebraska, retired minister Walter Jewett gives some history instruction to a special education student. Jewett was recruited for the Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP) which aims to attract more of the elderly into volunteer work. Exxon made a $40,000 grant to the project in 1986.



Winning Jewett Genealogy Exhibit of Rex Young

'Second Alternate' was won by Rex Young for his exhibit on his 7th great-grandfather, Capt. Moses Jewett of Ipswich, Mass. Rex was one of five winners.

His great-grandmother, Edna Jewett, had sent him a 1775 document — the Troop of Horse led by Capt. Moses Jewett — when they answered the alarm of April 19th, 1775.

This project was for the 8th grade classes at Puyallup, Washington, and 200 or 300 students took part.

Births

A second child was born to Mr. and Mrs. Mark Sucsy of East Hampton, NY; — Marielle Soleil — born Oct. 14, 1986, joins her brother, Richard File, Jr., who was born January 26, 1969. Mrs. Sucsy is the daughter of Lincoln and Olive Jewett of East Hampton.

Mrs. E.C. Jewett of Valley Center, Ks. writes that she has a second great granddaughter, Sarah Kristin Van Heule, born May 7, 1986. Sarah is the daughter of Dristi and Gary Van Heule, of Norco, Ca., and the great grand-daughter of Edson Clifford Jewett, Jr.

Great grand-children of Edna P. Jewett born in 1987:

The Liberty Balloon of Jewett City, Conn.

A 17-story hot air balloon that is a replica of the Statue of Liberty was made in Jewett City, Conn. and inflated by the designers on July 4, 1986.

Gerard Lefevre, 26, designed the "Free Lady", and he and his brother, Mark, 28, sewed her out of 2200 yards of green nylon and 12 miles of thread. The project took 3500 hours.

The balloon's maiden voyage was to Norwich, Conn. It has also been flown at the Adirondack Balloon Festival in Glenn Falls, N.Y.

The approximately 90,000 cubic foot balloon or envelope weighs 350 lbs., and is 170 feet tall, including balloon, basket and skirt. Mark wove the rattan basket, which holds two people, a generator and instruments. To keep the lady's torch held high, Gerard put 300 cubic feet of helium in the flame. Some 300 ropes inside the balloon hold it in shape. Gerard is applying for a patent for the technique used to get the spokes in the crown to stand at the correct angle.

The statue section is 151 feet high, the same height as the real item.

Many details are included in the balloon, including feet, rings in the bottom of the torch, squinting eyes and fingers wrapped around torch and tablet. The fingers have finger nails!

Now the brothers are looking for a sponsor so they can take the balloon across the U.S. and to Europe.

"The Liberty balloon, without saying a thing, says so much," said Gerard.

Gerard has no engineering background, and was a former wire mill worker who took up ballooning in high school. Today he operates his own Eastern Connecticut Balloon Services, which offers rides and lessons and does promotions for companies.

Mark is a carpentry supervisor.

The handiwork of these two brothers has been highly praised by Tony Hamilton, editor of Balloon Life Magazine.

"It's very interesting that the Lefevre brothers did this themselves and without the great expertise others have. What they have done is absolutely remarkable."

Crowds gather in Jewett City, Conn., to see an air-filled balloon replica of the Statue of Liberty

Necrology

E. Tilson Peabody, another of our much respected Directors for Life, passed away on Oct. 1, 1986, in Anaheim, Calif., while attending the National Business Aircraft Association Convention. He was 76, and resided at 17 Wentworth St., Exeter, N.H.

He was the husband of Martha (Pursley) Peabody.

He was born in Ipswich on Feb. 13, 1910, the son of the late Clarence and Lillian (Jewett) Peabody. He was retired from the U.S. Navy, having served from 1935 to 1952. He was also director of air transportation for General Motors Corp. for 30 years.

He was a member of the Winnipesaukee Lodge of Mason No. 75, the Quiet Birdmen, the Society of Automotive Engineers, the Defense Preparedness Association, the Society of Experimental Test Pilots and the Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two daughters, Bonnie Inglis of Center Strafford and Sarah T. Peabody of Exeter; three brothers, Malburne J. Peabody of Falls Church, Va., Leonard W. Peabody of Haverhill, Mass. and George A. Peabody of Phoenix, Ariz.; three sisters, Eleanor Preble of Middleton, Mass. Clara L. Cola of Phoenix, Ariz. and Evaline Dodge of Georgetown; two grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Dr. Eugene L. Jewett of Longwood, Fla., an orthopedic surgeon who used his skills to give new lives to handicapped people around the world, died Friday, January 22, 1987. He was 86.

Founder of the Jewett Orthopedic Clinic in Winter Park, Fla., he also gained wide renown for the help he gave South American surgeons who wanted advanced training in the United States but could not afford it.

Jewett was born in Fredonia, N.Y. He obtained a chemical engineering degree from Cornell in 1918 and a medical degree from Harvard in 1929 then moved to Orlando in 1936.

A member of 12 local, state, national and international medical associations, he was affiliated with 12 Central Florida hospitals during his career.

Jewett became a champion of the cause of the handicapped in the late 1930s and served for 11 years as local chairman of the National Employ the Handicapped Committee.

He went on to help educate South American physicians through the Jewett Foundation that he and his physician wife, Ruth, established in 1954. Ruth Schwarz Jewett died in 1982.

"We found there were quite a number of very fine young orthopedic surgeons who wanted more training in the United States but couldn't obtain any fellowships from the big foundations," he once said in an interview.

His most significant contributions to medicine were his development of the Jewett Orthopedic Hip Nail and the Jewett Hypertensive Back Brace, two prostheses that revolutionized fracture treatment in the 1930s and 1940s. The devices replaced the heavy casts and prolonged bed rest that were standard treatment at the time. Because patients were able to get up sooner they suffered fewer complications such as pneumonia caused by prolonged inactivity.

After he opened his Orlando office in 1936, Jewett and his nurse routinely loaded his portable X-ray machine and his special fracture frame into his car and set off to care for crippled and injured children all over the state. He believed the children recovered better in familiar settings.

During World War II he served aboard the USS Samaritan as chief of orthopedics and chief of surgery.

He is survived by his wife, Katheryn.
