Dedication

This 1989 issue of the Jewett Family of America Year Book is dedicated to the town of Rowley, Mass. and to its citizens.

Rowley celebrated its 350th Anniversary in 1989.

The site was selected in Spring, 1639, by the men who came with Ezekiel Rogers to the New World in the Fall of 1638, and settled by the Fall of 1639.

Joseph and Maxamilian Jewett were among those men and those 20 families.

Several houses along Main Street were built in the 1600's, among them the Abraham Jewett House, 1660 (now The Village Pancake House), and The Lambert House, 1669 (still owned by the Lambert Family). And of course, The Village Common.

A wonderful history.

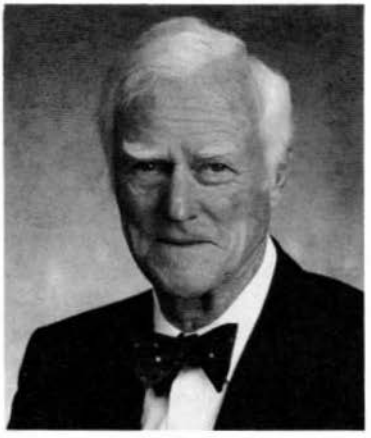
Greetings from the President to the Members of the Jewett Family of America and to all the Kinfolk, who trace their roots to the brothers Maximilian and Joseph of Rowley:



Frank G. Jewett, Jr.

This is a large salutation, but we have grown to be a large family and I want to include as many of you as possible. I told those of you who attended the Reunion and the 350th Anniversary at Rowley in July, 1989, a few of my aims and ambitions for our organization. I want to share these with more of you through the medium of this fine 1990 Yearbook.

1. Since last July, through travel, correspondence, and telephone conversations, I am learning that there are many Jewett descendants around the country who are interested in taking some small part in our organization. I am heartened by your desire to improve contracts between family members, with the end result that we may add to our genealogical history for the present century.

2. An old idea that seems to be getting new life is that we work towards having more state, or regional, key people who will act as data collecting centers for their own particular area.

3. Another tool to help our progress will be an increase in communication within the above mentioned areas and between those areas. I hope that any of you who are now circulating newsletters, family news, or quarterly yearbooks will share your information and expertise with our Editor, our Historian, or with me.

4. I must confess that what whetted my own interest in being involved with our organization was that computer data processing could be the key to our eventually bringing the Jewett Family genealogy up-to-date. And that key opens doors to many areas of interest and activity.

We need to know how many of you already have computer programs for your own lines; who will help make calls and contacts in your own vicinities so that we can increase and correct our present mailing list; who will work on finances so that we can find money to help spread the cost of our endeavors; who among you are genealogy buffs to help guide our efforts in that field. And the list of needs could go on and on.

Two points I want to make clear. One is that word has reached me that I am trying to move the center of the Family out of New England. That is not my idea at all. Granted that not many descendants live there anymore, but Rowley has to be the center, the heart and soul of our efforts. To me, the fascination of being a Jewett is that I, with many others, have a documented lineage back to two brothers who came to North America in 1638 and helped establish the town of Rowley in the Massachusetts Bay Colony.

This brings up my second point: Let's make it a fun thing for a lot of us to work together to update the History of the Jewett Family of America from 1638 to the present!

Are you with me? I hope so.

Toujours le meme, FRANK G. JEWETT, JR.

Jewett Family of America, Inc., Board meeting to be announced.

Minutes of the Board Meeting — July 22, 1989

The meeting of the Board of Directors of the Jewett Family of America was held at the First Congregational Church of Rowley at 9:00 A.M. The meeting was held to elect a new President and new officers. The meeting was called to order by Edna P. Jewett, President.

Nominations for President were Edna P. Jewett, nominated by Frank G. Jewett and seconded. Frank G. Jewett was nominated by Wells Jewett and seconded. Frank G. Jewett was elected by ballot vote. Congratulations Frank!

Also nominated and elected were:

1st Vice President:	William W. Sudduth
2nd Vice President:	Thomas P. Stitt, Esq.
Treasurer:	Edward Jewett
Recording Secretary:	Gail Lane
Coresponding Secretary:	Arlene Jewett
Historian:	Edna P. Jewett
Auditor:	Dorothy Brigham
Editor of Publications:	Dorothy Jewett Stitt

New members of the Board of Directors were also elected. The new members are: Dorothy Jewett Brigham, Arlene Jewett, Craig Jewett, and Gail Lane.

Business Meeting — July 22, 1989

A business meeting was held at 2:00 P.M. for reports, new business, nominations and elections. Edna P. Jewett opened the meeting and read the list of new leaders elected this morning.

Edward Jewett, Treasurer, read the Treasurer's report and it was filed for auditing.

In addition to those elected, Cecilia McGeehee was elected at the business meeting to the Board of Directors. The meeting was then turned over to our new President, Frank G. Jewett of Minn.

Frank would like to continue the Genealogical History update of the Jewett Family and try to get everything up to date. He would like to try to get all the records into computors.

William Jewett, Michael Tyler, William Sudduth, and Thomas P. Stitt have computors and are already logging information. Granton Jewett of Earlville, N.Y. also stated that he had a computor and would be willing to assist in organizing all the information so we know who has what going into the different computors.

The question was raised about more frequent communication or maybe a newsletter about the family in between yearbooks. Someone wanted some sort of directory of the names and addresses of people who attended the reunion.

Edward Jewett of Raymond, N.H. said he'd be willing to provide this information (names and addresses of members) to anyone — just send self addressed stamped envelope — business size to his address.

A move was made by Chris Voell to send bills out for registration instead of sending them in the yearbooks. Dorothy Stitt explained that it cost almost the same price to send bills as it does the yearbooks, so instead of paying double they are sent together. Motion was then withdrawn by Chris.

Several people stated that they did not receive their yearbook or bills. Regret was expressed and we will try to get everything out to all this year.

Frank G. Jewett thanked the group for a fine Reunion!!

The meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted, Gail Jewett Lane, Secretary

Queries

There are many questions sent to us here at Rowley, on families all across the nation and we sometimes can supply the answer, but more often cannot. Can someone tell us who is Tim Jewett who had a photo in the Summer, 1989, issue of Noetic Sciences Review?

We are looking for info on Anne Eliza Jewett, born at Lima, Ind.; who married Justin Parsons Garvin, who was born 8 July, 1817, at Elhart, Ind., and died 20 Feb., 1874. Justin's parents were James Garvin, born 5 June 1783, died at Elkhart, Ind. and Lydia Clark, born 14 Feb., 1781, died 23 July, 1838, at Cavendish, Vt.

Mr. Harold P. Jewett, U.S.A.F. Ret., writes: "If any kinsman knows anything about the whereabouts of the Coat-of-Arms that was in 'The Jewett Mansion' on Pleasant Street in Portland, Me., Date unknown, to please write or call him."

About Our President, Frank G. Jewett, Jr.

He is married to the former Betty Jones and they celebrated their 51st wedding anniversary on May 16, 1990. They are the parents of three sons and one daughter.

He is a Harvard Grad, class of '36, and was employed as a sales representative by Geo. A. Clark and Sons, Mpls., wholesale farm equipment, hardware, pumps, and supplies for almost 40 years.

As a volunteer, he has been active in Church work, Dioscesan publication, Harvard Club of Minn. and various community organizations.

He and Betty live in Wayzata, Minn., on the shores of Lake Minnetonka in an 85-year-old home that has been winterized. They both enjoy "soft" and "hard" water sailing. Both were born in Minneapolis.

Frank is descended from Maximilan through both of his parents. The descent is the same through Samuel (Edward, Maximilan, Joseph, Jonathan, Moses, John, Samuel); then Samuel A., Frank W. and to Frank's father, Frank Greenwood Jewett (#6733).

The Jewett Family of America Reunion
July 22 & 23, 1989

We had a beautiful day for our Family reunion! Registration began at 9:00 A.M.. At 10:00 A.M. we enjoyed an organ prelude by Marge Thurston, Organist of the First Congregational Church of Rowley. At 10:30 invocation and prayer were given by the Rev. Harry C. Myers, Pastor, First Congregational Church. He expressed thankfulness for the courage and interest of the Jewetts which had continued across the country all these years. Words of welcome were given to us by Willard Jewett of Rowley, chairman, who was quite pleased by our turnout! Approximately 152 members and friends attended the service.

Greetings from the town of Rowley were given by Carl Dasch, Selectman for Rowley. He welcomed us to participate in Rowley's 350th year celebration, which is also chaired by Willard, whom he characterized as "being of great value to the town and what it once was."

Our President, Edna P. Jewett, introduced the speaker of the day — Donald Doliber: educator, author, historian and genealogist. Mr. Doliber was an excellent speaker. He spoke of his own family background and the struggle to find out family information good and bad. He was enjoyed by all, and he urged all to "Mark the facts straight, as all of our ancestors adds to our quality."

Willard Jewett then thanked all of the sponsors for their generosity. He also spoke of the late Deacon Amos Everett Jewett.

The benediction was given by the Reverend Paul V. Sullivan, Pastor, St. Mary's R.C. Church, Rowley.

At 12:00 a Jewett Family Picture was taken on the Parsonage lawn. And at 12:30 a Buffet style luncheon was served to approximately 195 members and friends. The invocation was given by the Reverend William Boylan, Pastor, Byfield Parish Church, Byfield, Mass.

The lines were long, but it was well worth the wait!! It was a very good lunch with luscious little pastries for dessert. During lunch we were able to meet many family members. We met people from all over the country!

At 2:00 P.M., a business meeting was held which included reports, new business, nominations and elections. This is recorded in detail in the Secretary's minutes. Frank G. Jewett of Wayzata, Minn. was elected President.

At 3:00 there was a Memorial Service in the Burial Grounds at the Jewett Boulder. The Rev. Walter Poole of the First Baptist Church of Rowley gave the service. From there we walked to the Town Hall for Old Home Week exhibits and a concert consisting of the works by Joshua Jewett — who lived in Rowley in the 18th and 19th centuries.

Joshua Jewett's Music

Bert Fafard played a number of lovely compositions on the piano and offered great insight into the works, which have been critically acclaimed. There were religious and patriotic pieces.

In 1989, when Mr. and Mrs. Bert Fafard were caretakers of the Platts-Bradstreet House, Bert found some manuscripts of music, written by Joshua Jewett. Bert formed the Joshua Jewett Ancient Music Society and a concert was given at the Chapel of Governor Dummer Academy on Oct. 28, 1989. Bert had done the orchestration and the concert was enjoyed by all.

Joshua Jewett was a man of many talents. He served the town of Rowley and his Church all his life; was town clerk for many years, served in the State Legislature several terms; was a Deacon of the Congregational Church for over fifty years.

Joshua was born Aug. 23, 1768; married, June 14, 1798, Phebe Harris, who was born Dec. 23, 1769. The marriage was a joining of the two branches of the Jewett family. They were fifth cousins:

Joseph Jewett	brother	Maximilian Jewett
Joseph Jewett	cousin	Joseph Jewett
Joseph Jewett	2nd cousins	Jonathan Jewett
Joshua Jewett	3rd cousins	Mehitable (Jewett) Thurston
Paul Jewett	4th cousins	Eunice (Thurston) Harris
Dr. Joshua Jewett	5th cousins	Phebe (Harris) Jewett

Excerpt from the 350th Anniversary Sermon

at the First Congregational Church in Rowley, Massachusetts September 10, 1989, Delivered by The Reverend Nathanael M. Guptill who was Pastor of the Church from 1941 until 1943.

Editor's Note: Amos Everett Jewett was Executive Secretary of the Family from 1910-1950.

Through the years this church has had many fascinating and productive members. I want especially to mention one. The Sunday I came to preach as the candidate of the search committee to be the next pastor I stood at the door to greet the people after the service. One of those who shook my hand at that time was a tall, white haired man with a no-nonsense look about him who came directly to the point:

"Your father's name was Orville?"

"Yes," I replied, wondering how he knew my father's name.

"Orville J.?"

"Yes," I admitted.

"That's interesting," he commented, and that was the end of the conversation.

I wondered what the significance of the encounter could be until sometime during the next week I got a letter with the name "Amos Everett Jewett" on the envelope. Inside was a record of the direct line of descent from my maternal grandmother, Sarah Jewett, back to Joseph Jewett who came over to Rowley with Ezekiel Rogers and lies in the Rowley cemetery. Amos Everett had seen my father's name in the Jewett genealogy and remembered it.

After I became Pastor of this Church I had many opportunities to get to know this wise and kindly man and benefit from his friendship. He was a collector and dealer in old books and valuable papers. One day I went with him to the old barn where he kept his treasures and he showed me an autograph of Abraham Lincoln among other things.

While there he told me he was getting ready to move. When I questioned him about this it became apparent that he was just recognizing that at eighty plus years it would not be long before he moved to heaven — which he accepted as a natural part of God's providence.

Although of limited education he had taught himself so much about the history of the north shore that he was often consulted by learned scholars with Ph.D.'s after their names.

One day he took me on a trip, partly on foot and partly by car, over the route of the old Boston Post Road, winding partly along the present Route 1-A but digressing through meadows and woodlands with signs only he could decipher to guide him.

The book he and his dear wife, Mabel, wrote on the history of Rowley from 1639 to 1850 is a truly scholarly work I treasure to this day.

The church, being small, had a long succession of student ministers (of whom I was one).

I asked him once how he had stood all of that inexperience in the pulpit. I always remember his response: "I've heard a lot of preaching in my life; some good, some bad, mostly middling, but I never heard a minister who couldn't preach better than I could have."

I've had occasion to quote him many times as I've had to advise churches that wanted to fire their preachers.

Rowley's 350th Anniversary

The people of Rowley, Mass., celebrated the 350th founding of the town during the summer of 1989.

The town was settled March 13, 1639, and incorporated on Sept. 4, 1639.

There were all kinds of events including Old Home Week, Family Reunions, Colonial Ball, Colonial Church Services, Grange Country Fair, Firemen's Muster and Encampment on the Commons.

Rowley is proud to have a number of "firsts" in America:

The FIRST Printing Press in America. It was the only printing press until 1675 and its first printing was the "Freeman's Oath". This press later became famous as the "Daye Press" and was sent to Harvard.

The FIRST Fulling Mill in North America, 1643. This marked the beginning of the textile industry in the Colonies. Between 1672-1688, over 100,000 yards of cloth was milled or fulled, according to preserved ledgers.

FIRST Stone-Arch Bridge. This was built in 1643 and spanned the Mill River and is still in use today. This is one of, if not the oldest, stone-arch bridges in the country.

There were any number of souvenirs to have for the occasion, from coins to slick paper paste-ons commemorating the Anniversary.

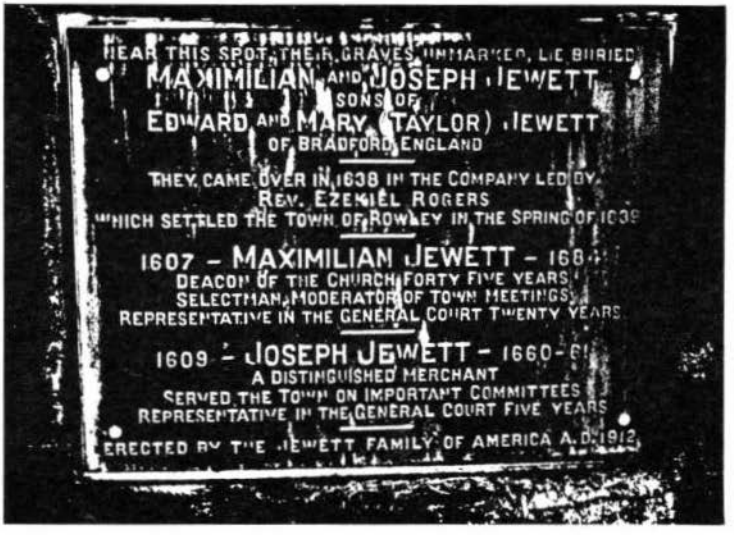
The Jewett Family was one of 20 families to come to the New World with the Rev. Ezekiel Rogers from Rowley, Yorkshire, England.

They came on the ship "John of London" and arrived in the Fall of 1638.

By March 13, 1639, the town was founded and 40 more families joined the original 20.

Many descendants still live at Rowley or in the area.

Honorary Chairman for this historic event was Willard Jewett.



Pauline Jewett, Outstanding Canadian

We are in receipt of a book, by Doris Anderson, entitled "To Change the World". It is a biography of Pauline Jewett, and was sent to us by her sister-in-law, Eleanor M. Jewett, of Willowdale, Ontario, Canada.

Pauline Jewett's life has been a triumph over odds, and she serves today's youth as an excellent example and role model to follow.

As a youth, Pauline was a tomboy, but by the time she was in high school, and, fascinated with the art of debate, she was contemplating law or politics.

She earned degrees from Queen's and Harvard University, then taught political science at Carleton. Pauline learned early on that gaining recognition in this "Man's World" was not going to be easy, even with her education and ability.

Undaunted, she entered federal politics and earned the respect of her peers and the loyalty of the electorate. She became the first woman president of Simon Fraser University, and she now represents New Westminster-Coquitlam in the House of Commons.

In summary, we quote the author, "Pauline takes her place in the long line of Canadian women who have fought for the privileges which we now take for granted but which were gained through their struggles and setbacks over many years. Slowly but surely, the efforts of women of all political parties, in and out of Parliament, have won for women the right to vote, and to sit in Parliament, in the Cabinet and in the Senate. Women now have the right to equal education. A number of occupations once monopolized by men have been opened to women, and in many instances equal wages are granted for work of equal value".

We are pleased to have this biography in our files.

Since writing the above we have heard from Dr. Pauline's brother, F.C. Jewett, and he tells us that effective June first, 1990, Dr. Jewett will be Chancellor of Carleton University in Ottawa, Canada.

Family Gatherings

CONNECTICUT FAMILY REUNION

The Conn. Jewett/Pearl family held their annual reunion on Sunday August 6, 1989 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hall in Columbia.

The oldest was L. Reginald Thayer of Newington. The youngest Joshua George Oswell b. Dec. 21, 1988 in New London, Ct.

A delicious pot luck dinner was followed by swimming, social time, short business meeting — enjoyed by all. Sec./Treas. Mrs. Eleanor (Pearl) Moon, Parsonage Rd., Hampton, Ct. 06247.

The family genealogy of line of Ebenezer Jewett #11 is kept up-to-date by Marion R. Emmons, Columbia, for this group.

INDIANA FAMILY REUNION

Michael R. Jewett reports that the first reunion of the Robert Anson Jewett Family was held at Lafayette, Ind., August 16, 1987, over 125 attending.

PENNSYLVANIA FAMILY REUNION

The 66th annual reunion of the family of Nathan Rodney (#10500) and Silome Jewett of Susquehanna Co., was held August 6, 1989, at Pennbrook Picnic Grove, Factoryville, PA. Sixty family members were in attendance.

Following a bountiful covered dish dinner, a brief business meeting was conducted by President William Nash. Family vital statistics were recorded.

Congratulations were extended to Frank and Marie Oakley who observed their 50th wedding anniverary in June. Jay and Iola Hill, who were with us for the first time in several years, received congratulations for celebrating 65 years of marriage in October 1988. Jay and Iola announced they were present at the first Jewett Reunion held August 15, 1924. Others present at this year's gathering, who were also at the 1924 reunion, included Anita Nash Shumway, Marie Coil Oakley, Jean Jewett Kunzman, Retha Richardson and Josephine Jewett Dillon.

A report was given by Bill and Vonda Nash, Granton and Virginia Jewett and Larry and Jo Dillon who attended the National Jewett Reunion at Rowley, Massachusetts in July.

The afternoon was spent swimming, playing games and good old fashioned visiting by the "senior" members of the family.

A midwinter letter will be distributed with details for the 1990 reunion. We are striving for attendance of 100 people in 1993. For further information contact: William W. Nash, R.D. 1, Box 110, Friendsville, PA 18818; Telephone: 1-717-552-2335. Any family members and guests are invited to join us.

News Notes

Our new Board Member, Cecilia McGehee, wrote of here of her brother, Douglas Jewett, and nephew, Allester Jewett, Metro-Dade Firefighters, who have received Certificates of Praise from the State Department for their work at the December 7th, 1988 Armenian Earthquake. They have also served at earthquakes in Mexico and South America as well as the collapse of the building in Connecticut.

As I wrote the above, the program 911 was showing the team in action in their home town of Miami.

Cecilia tells of her daughter, Debbie Lair, who was named Featured Teacher of the Year in the Johnson's County Gazette, Nov. 22, 1988. Debbie and her husband have a 3-year old daughter. They live in Lenexa, KS.

A copy of the ad for Jewett's Cheese House was in the mail a short time ago. This is in Earlville, N.Y. Proprieters are Granton and Ginny Jewett, and Terri Jewett Larkin.

We received a newspaper article concerning our Treasurer Edward Jewett's company, Jewett Construction Company of Raymond, N.H. He is making available six units of housing for elderly people who qualify for housing assistance at the Company's Milton Gardens project on Wakefield Street.

The units are new, one-bedroom units with appliances, heat and electricity supplied.

This sounds so nice.

We received a publication entitled "The Western Migration of The Jewetts in America", by Vernon C. "Kelly" Jewett. This follows the line of Levonne C. Dilibero from Edward-Joseph-Jeremiah-Eleazer-Eleazer-Ichabod-Nathan-Henry-Johnson W.-Frank A.-Claude-Vernon C.-Levonne C. (Jewett) Dilibero. In previous Yearbooks, exploits of the Eleazers were printed in detail.

Mrs. Berenice Jewett Bradshaw sent us the program of the Ground Breaking for The Jewett Center for the Performing Arts, a new building on the campus of Westminster College. This building is in memory of Berenice's great grandfather, Francis Daniel Jewett, a Doctor and a Minister of Mansfield, Ohio, and Pella, Iowa.

Perhaps someone out there will write an article on gifts to schools and colleges in name of other Jewetts.

For example, we recently received an article telling of the Oberlin College Frank Fanning Jewett prize for promising students in the field of Chemistry.

Donald Francis Stone graduated in April 1989 as a minister and is now serving a church in Ut. This is a career change. His son-in-law, Glen Brooks, graduated in June and has become a Youth minister in Az., also a career change.

Mrs. Florence (Pearl) Morey, Norwich, Ct., has joined the local DAR through her Capt. J. Hammond ancestor whose daughter Abigail Hammond married Ebenezer Jewett 1st (early Ct. families).

William Hall, son of Mark Hall, won the top awards in archery at the Nutmeg Olympic held in summer, 1989, at Eastern Univ., Windham, Ct. He is fifteen. His father Mark and grandfather Arthur Hall have won national awards in the past. Mrs. Tricia (Hall) Johnson won all-new American woman records at Watkins Glen, NY, in archery (summer 1989), and her husband Richard placed second in the men's archery at Watkins Glen.

Another new member writes that their family keeps three buildings in good repair. The buildings are two churches and a boarding school. Lucy Ladd Cram of Bluffton, S.C., is a descendant of Maximilian through Elizabeth, #192, who married Isaac Kimball.

Robert J. Young of Houston, Texas, writes of his children. The daughter, Laura, will be a Senior at Wellesley with a duel major in Economics and Pol. Science; after two internships on Capitol Hill in D.C. this summer.

His oldest son, Christopher, will be a sophmore in Pre-Med at Boston College. Robert's middle son will be at St. John's Prep School in Houston, a senior. This summer he was attending pre-college Summer Course at Georgetown, U. in D.C.; and the youngest, Tzin, 14, is starting Jesuit High School in Houston.

Merrilee Noel Stitt, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James H. Stitt, graduated with high honors in Columbia, Mo. She plans to go to the University of Texas.

Ms. Iola Allen Jasper writes that she visited Seal Beach, California, in June, 1989, to call on her mother's cousin, Anna Jewett Neill. Mrs. Neill had just celebrated her 91st birthday. Iola's mother, Cecelia Jewett Allen, lives in Union, Missouri and is 84. These ladies have corresponded all of their lives but have never met. They are granddaughters of William S. Jewett, No. 11054. Both are spry and still have wonderful memories.

Recently, Jim and Dorothy Jewett Stitt were in Israel and made a trip to Acre to visit the Crusader City where the first Crusade came in 1099 A.D.

This was The French Crusade and Sir Henri Juatt was on it.

A fleur-de-lis is engraved in the cement (yes, they used some kind of cement) at each of the four inside corners of the Gothic building built by the Crusaders.

A delightful surprise for the Stitts.

So far the only publication The Jewett Family sends out is the YEAR BOOK, and occasional letters. There are two or three companies selling books which do not carry the various lines and are mostly copies of telephone directories. Some of us have bought these books and know where-of we speak. There are plenty of genealogical blank books which give the buyer a place to put his own proven material in proper places.

Leslie is studying in Oregon.

New Grandsons Alexander, born Mar. 24, 1988, to Suzanne and Rudolfo Barros in Amsterdam Holland, and:

Teddy IV, born Mar. 28, 1989 to Ted and Lucy in Coral Gables, Fla.

Ted and Clare celebrated their 32nd Wedding Anniversary on Oct. 20, 1989.

Ted wrote that Chinese friends they met in China in 1987 had defected last August to West Germany via Singapore. Signs of the times.

Mr. L.E. Muella writes that he is continuing his wife's membership. Her name — Geraldine Marie Jewett Muella.

Your attention is called to the June issue of Yankee magazine, and the article on covered bridges and the Jewetts that built them.

We are in hopes to be able to order more of the reprints of the genealogy. These books are printed on acid-free paper and include several pages of additions and corrections. The price is the same for members, $85.00. Please send checks to the treasurer, and when we have enough monies to order we will let you know when to expect them. These genealogies are the base for further books to bring the lines up-to-date.

350th Anniversary Commemorative Coin
Rowley, Massachusetts

The 350th Anniversary Commemorative Coin was designed to reflect the people, areas, natural resources and industries of the town. Over time, they have given us Rowley as we know it today. The following is a brief description of each facet of the coin and what it represents.

FACE

The center is graced by the Platts-Bradstreet House (1677), home of the Rowley Historical Society, with lilacs and an American elm. This represents the home and the family.

The second ring radiating out from the center encompasses the following:

Indian—Mosquenomenet, Sagamore of Agawam and native proprietor of all land between the Merrimack and Naumkeag Rivers.

Signatures—Samuel English (S), John Umpee (—) and Joseph English (⊢), grandsons of Mosquenomenet, who gave up all rights and title to Rowley by deed in 1700 for £ 9.

Stars—Represent four villages which were once part of Rowley: Bradford (1675), Boxford (1685), Georgetown (1838) and Groveland (1850).

The third ring has Sixteen Notches which mark Rowley as the sixteenth community in the Massachusetts Bay Colony. This included what is now known as the State of Maine until 1820.

The next two rings have Mr. Ezechi Rogers Plantation Shalbee Called Rowley, Massachusetts Bay Colony, settled 13 March 1638-9 and incorporated 4-7 month (September) 1639. Mr. Ezekiel Rogers was the leader of the early settlers and the first minister of Rowley.

The outer ring has Sixty Notches which represent the sixty original families that first settled the town.

BACK

The Ship John of London, according to tradition, sailed from Hull on the Humber, England (1638), with Mr. Ezekiel Rogers and his company and dropped anchor in Salem Harbor. Above the ship are seagulls with an early October sun shining down. The four hills of Rowley are in the distance.

The second ring has Twenty Notches representing the twenty families who accompanied Mr. Rogers on his journey.

The third ring represents the natural resources and industry which contributed to our early history.

First Fulling Mill—John Pearson, a clothier, erected the first such mill in New England (1643). In the foreground is the Stonearch Bridge, the oldest bridge in the country.

Spinning Wheel—The weaving and cloth industry.

Shoes—The tanning and shoe industry.

Fish and Clams—Our natural resources found in the streams, ocean and the flats.

Plowing—Farming.

Cows—Animal husbandry.

The outer ring consists of a rope which is never ending, has a nautical theme and ties the design together.

The coin was designed by Frank Todd, Jr. and submitted to the 350th Anniversary Committee for their review, comments and acceptance.
