Dedication

This 1990 issue of the Jewett Family of America, Inc., Year Book, is dedicated to the present day generations of Jewetts.

Your effort in completing and mailing the enclosed Jewett Genealogy Questionaire will result in the completion and printing of the Third Volume of the History and Genealogy of the Jewett Family of America.

Thus, the names of thousands of Jewetts born or added to the family list since the first two volumes were printed in 1908 will join the names of their ancestors who helped found and develop this great United States of America.

Your descendants will thank you for compiling this present day genealogy and for bringing the proud story of the Jewett Family of America into the Twenty-first Century.

Greetings From the President to the Members of the Jewett Family of America

Frank G. Jewett, Jr.

Greetings:

To all you kinfolk spread out over the entire United States and Canada- this has been a great year for our Association! There has been a renewal of interest and activity from areas that we have heard little from for quite a while.

I want to pay tribute particularly to Edna Jewett of Rowley who, in spite of her advancing years and some health problems, has maintained her loyalty to her position as our Historian. With equal enthusiasm and patience, Dorothy Jewett Stitt has kept alive that very vital ingredient of our organization, the Year Book. Thanks, and congratulations to both of you! Meanwhile, a number of new names and faces are picking up a larger share of the responsibilities.

For starters, this winter Mrs. Jewett and I were treated to the hospitality of Dorothy Jewett Brigham and her family in Port Charlotte, FL, when she hosted a gathering of Gulf Coast kin. A few days later Sarah Jewett King overwhelmed us with a turnout of over 110 Southeast Coasters, mostly of her own extended family, in Coral Gables, FL. The display of enthusiasm and loyalty to the Jewett family line was truly inspiring.

Through the efforts of our new directors and other members real progress is being made in: 1. Adding to our membership. 2. up-dating our mailing list. 3. Obtaining new data on family lines and 4. Forming the nucleus of a team to eventually produce the next Volume III of the History of the Jewetts of America. Ted V. Herrmann of New Jersey and New York City has volunteered to head up this important project. I am sure that you will be hearing more from him soon. George W. Jewett of Sarasota, FL and Boyd Jewett of Camp Connell, CA have been working trans-continentally to design an interesting brochure to inform our kinfolk and encourage membership in our organization. Among others, Gleason Jewett in Texas and Connie Cory, of the George Anson Jewett line in Iowa, are doing fabulous jobs of tracking down and getting lineage data from kinfolk in their respective areas. Of equal importance are the faithful family groups in New York, Connecticut and Pennsylvania, and elsewhere, who keep plugging along. THANK YOU ALL!

We are working on getting the nod from the I.R.S. so that we may have your gifts to our Jewett Family History effort eligible for tax exemption and our bulk mailing costs reduced to non-profit status.

We encourage all of you to show your loyalty by keeping your memberships current and sending genealogical information to the Rowley address.

Minutes of the Directors Meeting of the Jewett Family of America, Inc. June 8, 1991

The annual Board Meeting of the Jewett Family of America, Inc. was held on June 8, 1991, at the home of Gertrude and Willard Jewett of Rowley, MA.

President Frank Jewett opened the meeting. Board Members present were: Frank Jewett, Theodore Herrmann, Roland Jewett, Russell Jewett, William Jewett, Michael Jewett, Edna Jewett, James J. Jewett, Dorothy Jewett Stitt.

Willard Jewett asked for a moment of silence for the remembrance of the lives and work of members past.

A family member, Alfred B. Loranz, attended the Board Meeting as a guest. Other guests waited in the living room or sat in the yard.

The Secretary's minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The Financial report was read. Accepted on motion of Russell Jewett.

Resignation from office of Vice President and as a Board Member of William Sudduth, Jr. was accepted with deep regret, as was that of Director Wells Jewett. Resignation as Treasurer of Edward Jewett was accepted with deep regret.

The question of Board Members came up immediately because in enthusiastically voting new Board Members during the Telephone Conference Board Meeting of Sept. 16, 1990, the number of Board Members exceeded the number allowed by the Constitution.

Our President asked the Nominating Committee of Russell Jewett, William Jewett and Michael Jewett to meet at once and return with a slate of Directors and Officers.

Directors nominated and elected unanimously included Frank Jewett, Theodore V. Herrmann, Thomas P. Stitt, Esq., James R. Jewett, Gail Jewett Lane, Edna Jewett, Dorothy Jewett Brigham, Edward Jewett, Dorothy Jewett Stitt, Cecelia Jewett McGeehee, Gregory Lewis Jewett, George W. Jewett, Michael Robert Jewett, Roland C. Jewett, Boyd David Jewett.

President Jewett nominated Alfred B. Loranz to the Board. Seconded and passed.

Appreciation of the work of past Officers and Board Members was expressed.

A selection of Officers was recommended by Russell Jewett, chairman, and the Nominating Committee. Theodore Herrmann moved the election of these persons to office, seconded by Roland Jewett. Election was unanimous.

The Officers of the Jewett Family of America, Inc. for 1991 are:

President- Frank G. Jewett
First Vice President-Theodore V. Herrmann
Second Vice President- Thomas P. Stitt, Esq.
Treasurer- James R. Jewett
Recording Secretary- Gail Jewett Lane
Corresponding Secretary- Alfred B. Loranz
Historian- Edna Jewett
Auditor- Dorothy Jewett Brigham
Editor of Publication- Dorothy Jewett Stitt

All of these are Directors and the other Directors are: Edward Jewett, Roland Jewett, Michael Jewett, Cecelia Jewett McGeehee, George W. Jewett, Gregory L. Jewett and Boyd D. Jewett.

Directors For Life include: Alan D. Jewett, Russell E. Jewett, Willard Jewett, Albert H. Haley, Edna P. Jewett and William Jewett.

At this time, the Board heard Ms. Alicia C. Williams, a nationally known genealogist of Williams Word Processing Company of Hingham, MA, speak on organizing up-dated family genealogies for printing supplements to original family and genealogy volumes.

She was most interesting and helpful regarding the present effort of the Jewett family to gather genealogical information and family history accumulated since the first two volumes entitled "History and Genealogy of the Jewetts of America" by Frederic Clarke Jewett, M.D. were published in 1908.

The Board adjourned for lunch, accompanied by family members and guests.

After reconvening, the Board discussed contents of the Year Book and decided to add a Jewett Family questionaire to the 1990 Year Book to bring each family member's genealogy up-to-date for the Jewett Family of America, Volume III.

Members will please fill in these pages and return as soon as possible.

Decision was made to print the third volume working through and with Ms. Williams. An attempt will be made to have all genealogical material since 1908 sent to her by Dec. 31, 1991. Hopefully, the volume would be printed in 1993.

Theodore V. Herrmann is in charge of this project. A discussion of computers to be used followed.

This 1990 Year Book will not be published until early fall so that the genealogy questionaire and the 1991 Board Meeting and action can be included.

Edna Jewett said she would try and photocopy the Jewett files in her possession.

Roland Jewett moved that the Executive Committee be given the authority to investigate and provide a plain paper copier (a photo-copier) for our Family Association needs, not to exceed $750.00 cost. Seconded and passed.

Roland Jewett moved that the Executive Committee be empowered to look into the present status of our Corporation and to reinstate our Corporation as a non-profit organization at whatever expense necessary. Passed.

The President suggested and Theodore V. Herrmann moved that a procedure be formed by the Jewett Family of America for compensating any member for exceptional out-of-pocket expense that is reasonable, for action and research that benefits the Family. These expenses are to be submitted to the Executive Committee and directed to the President for consideration of payment. Passed.

A letter from Thomas P. Stitt, Esq., Second Vice President of the Family Association, delineated the IRS position on tax-free organizations.

Ms. Williams, who was still present, suggested that we might be acceptable as an "educational" group since many family organizations are accepted on their historical and genealogical research (which is accepted as 'educational').

There will be further action on this.

The President thanked Tom Stitt for his careful research.

The President thanked Gertrude and Willard Jewett for the hospitality extended to the Board of Directors in offering their home for the annual Board Meeting.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted,

Editor's Note: Please help with Volume III of the Jewett Family's History and Genealogy by answering the interesting Genealogy Questionaire enclosed inside the back cover.

This Year Book has been late in publishing because of developing the Questionaire, but worth the wait if the members respond with interest and action as they always seem to do.

That above statement is the key to enjoying editing the Year Book year after year. The Jewetts are a wonderful family. Its members are delightful to hear from and write about. Thanks to each and every one.

Please keep news and family stories coming, for all are interested -- numerous letters say so, time and again.

Conference Board Meeting Sept. 16, 1990

At 8:00 p.m. Frank Jewett, President, called the meeting to order. This meeting was done by Telephone Conference Call.

Wells Jewett wanted to resign his seat from the board. Dorothy Stitt moved to accept his resignation with much regret. William Jewett seconded the motion and we all agreed to accept. Thank you to Wells for his service on the board.

Edna Jewett suggested that we retire all past Presidents and make them Directors for Life with voting ability. They would also be able to attend all meetings. This also had a unanimous vote.

We then discussed a third reprinting of the Jewett History. This was voted unanimously, as well as having the annual dues at $10.00 a year and yearbooks $3.00.

Lydia Finlay moved to give the President authority to appoint assistants to key positions where help is needed. The President may do this with the advice of the person in charge of that position. Edna Jewett seconded the motion and it was voted and approved.

Boyd David Jewett, Camp Connell, CA

Edna Jewett moved to vote on them as a group. Cecelia McGeehee seconded the motion and it was unanimously voted.

Meeting adjourned at 8:48 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,

FIRST GENERATION--Edson Asaph Jewett

Edson Asaph Jewett (#7316) was born in Independence, Missouri. He married Lottie Cope, daughter of Samuel and Susan (Wilcox) Cope. She was born in Salida, Colorado. They spent approximately 50 years on their farm north and east of Marion, Kansas. Ill health prevented them from having a Golden wedding celebration. He died at their home after an extended illness. Lottie died of a heart attack, very suddenly, at their home.

Edson had a stroke that caused him to have to have his left eye removed, also he couldn't swallow so had to be fed with a tube. He couldn't speak, but still with all this he could get around, and seemed to enjoy life to the utmost. One thing he could still do was LAUGH.

In 1922 Mrs. E.A. Jewett was appointed Director of School District No. 104, Marion County by Superintendent James A. Ray.

"Marion County Record- November 8, 1923.

"The Marion Radio Shop installed a three tube set complete for Mr. and Mrs. E.A. Jewett northeast of town this week."

An article in the "Kansas Farmer" magazine August 20, 1927.

I am leaving out most of the article, but it is in regard to their refrigerator. "The price, 625 dollars installed in the home." This refrigerator was at least 6 feet high and close to eight feet wide. The outside was all wood. It still is in the house in 1991, but not operated as a refrigerator anymore.

"The Jewett home is comfortably equipped with running water, electric lights, furnace and electric refrigerator and numerous other appliances." They didn't mention the bathroom. The electricity was generated by the Delco engine. Very few, if any, farms were so well equipped.

An item in the Marion paper, January 28, 1932. "E.A. Jewett of Northeast of town has finished flooring the down stairs of his home with oak. They had one of the best equipped farm homes in the county."

In 1931 this item was in the Yates Center, Kansas, paper. "36 relatives and friends drove to Marion to help Edson celebrate his birthday." It goes on to say Lottie had baked 20 pies and couldn't say how many cakes and fried chicken with all the trimmings, salads etc. and in the afternoon ice cream.

When Lottie was a small child, her folks came to Woodson County, Kansas in an ox cart from Salida, Colorado. Then they made the trip back to Colorado by covered wagon, and returned to Woodson County, Kansas the same way.

They were parents of eight children. I am sending charts of the children.

I received my education at Wentworth Institute of Boston, MA and Syracuse University of Syracuse, NY and have been employed as Manager of Technical Services at Acumeter Laboratories, Inc. of Marlborough, MA, a leading manufacturer of hot and cold adhesive handling and applicating systems.

My wife, Claire Tucker, and I have a 12-year old daughter and have resided in Medway, MA since 1973.

My hobbies are genealogy, personal computers and photography.

JAMES R. JEWETT
Treasurer

I was born on 6 Nov. 1931, the son of James and Alida Robotham Jewett, in Hartford, Conn. Educated in Hartford public schools, Holderness School, Cheshire Academy and attended Lehigh University until enlisting in the U.S. Navy in 1952.

In the Navy, I served aboard the Presidential yacht, the USS Williamsburg, and at Camp David.

Upon leaving the navy in 1956, I was employed by the Metropolitan District Commission in Hartford as a construction inspector, leaving that job in 1980 to become highway foreman for the town of Burlington, Conn.

During the twenty-five years that I lived in Burlington, I served on the Republican Town Committee, the sewer commission, Volunteer Fire Department and as a Constable. I retired as highway foreman in 1986 and then moved to Groton, Conn.

I married Nancy Barnes Alderman, in Burlington, on 19 August 1961. Burlington was Nance's hometown and a favorite town of mine. We built our house on the corner of the Alderman homestead and raised our two children, Karen Elizabeth and Frederick Elliott there.

James R. Jewett, Treasurer, and wife, Nancy

Karen graduated from Dartmouth, earned her Masters at Columbia and is now teaching at Columbia while working toward her Doctorate in Victorian English literature.

Frederick was married to Theresa Nodwell of Burlington on 15 August 1986. They now live in Waterbury, Conn. and have two children, Taylor James and Ashlea Ann. Fred works in Plainville as maintenance man for an electro-plating firm.

Nance and I decided to move to Groton upon retirement as we kept our boat, ULIDA, there. We also felt that there would be more to do in this area during New England winters.

Since moving to Groton, we have both become active in local affairs. Nance is with Literacy Volunteers and is tutoring a Chinese girl. I volunteer at Mystic Seaport Museum I am also a member of the Groton Republican Town Committee.

From April to early November we spend as much time as possible aboard ULIDA, enjoying the Fishers Island-Long Island Sound area. We are both members of the World Ship Society and the Navy League, which entitles us to see an occasional submarine launching at Electric Boat Company in Groton.

In the winter, we like to walk on the Rhode Island beaches or just visit them to watch the surf.

Family Gatherings

South Florida Jewett Family Reunion

by Sarah (Jewett) King

The first reunion of the Jewett family in South Florida was held on Monday, February 11, 1991 at the Havana Vieja Restaurant in Coral Gables, Florida. A delightful dinner was served.

The man responsible for this meeting, the president of the Jewett Family of America, Frank G. Jewett, Jr., and his lovely wife, Betty, were honored guests.

Gifts were presented to the oldest family member, Aunt Jennie (Jewett) Fuller, who will be 90 years old April 14th and to the youngest, Lourdes Marquez. Her father, Pedro Marquez, owns the restaurant where the affair was held.

Gifts were also presented to Frank and Betty. One of the gifts was a shirt with the Jewett Coat of Arms, presented to them by my brother, Douglas Jewett, and his wife, Aracelia, which they immediately put on. Many members of our family were wearing the shirts.

Most of the Jewetts present were descendants of Albin C. Jewett, who went to Cuba in 1903 with his wife, Sarah MacMillan Jewett, and their three children: Clyde, Jennie and Miles. Albin Jewett was the son of Andrew Stiles Jewett (#3660) and his wife, Lydia Spaulding Jewett. They, as well as my grandparents, are buried in Lewiston, Oriente, Cuba in our family cemetery.

Albin Jewett had three other children by his first wife, Cecelia Fuller. She died in Maine. These children were: Walter, Harry and James. They also went to Cuba. Harry and James returned to the United States. James died as a young man unmarried. Harry married and had one son, they lived in Massachusetts and died there.

We had 116 members present; there were 37 direct descendants of Clyde and Antonia (Diaz) Jewett; 12 of Jennie and William Fuller; 15 of Miles and Josefina (Tizol) Jewett and 7 of Walter and Carmen (Ruiz) Jewett.

We all trace our roots to Maximilian Jewett, son of Edward of England. Other Jewetts attending besides the Cuban Jewetts were William and Anne (Jewett) Porter and Theodore and Leyda Herrmann, Jr.

Out of town guests were Cecelia (Jewett) McGehee, Ottawa, Kansas and Manuel Rodriguez from Valencia, Venezuela; he is my niece's (Jeanette (Jewett) Rodriguez) husband.

Jim King, my son, asked the Lord's blessing upon our reunion, the food, our military in the Persian Gulf, our Nation, our President George Bush. After the prayer, he led us in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

The tables were decorated with small American flags in remembrance of our men in the war. A large blue and white banner was presented by Robert Marquez Jewett. It read: "THE FIRST SOUTH FLORIDA JEWETT FAMILY REUNION".

Antonia Jewett Trueba and Lucy (Jewett) Marquez presented me with a Royal Doulton plate "The old balloon seller" in appreciation for putting together the reunion.

WE HAD A GREAT TIME!!

So much enthusiasm was generated that our younger generation is already planning a 1992 meeting!!

South Florida Younger Jewett Generation Reunion

byRobert Marquez-Jewett, Advisor

On February 11, 1991, we- the Jewett Family of South Florida- had the pleasure of being visited by the Jewett Family president, Frank Jewett and his lovely wife, Betty Jewett.

In honor of their visit, we had a most wonderful banquet at Habana Vieja Restaurant. At this Banquet, Mr. Frank Jewett was able to meet and talk with the Jewett's of South Florida, and the Jewett's of SouthFlorida were also able to get together and get to know one another better.

Also at the banquet, we had the honor of being visited by Mrs. Cecelia McGhee Jewett of Kansas. In short, the banquet was a great success thanks to the hard work and dedication of Cecelia's older sister, Sara King-Jewett.

On March 8, 1991, a month after the banquet, the younger Jewett generation of South Florida got together for a meeting. At this meeting, we were able to elect the officers for the South Florida Chapter of the Jewett Family of America.

At the meeting, we also discussed about writing newsletters every few months in order to keep the South Florida Jewett's in touch with what is going on with their family around the area.

We also discussed about having more get-togethers and keeping in touch, but most important, we had the opportunity of electing the first officers to the South Florida Chapter of the Jewett Family of America.

Elected to office were Fernando Jewett, Jr., grandson of Miles Jewett, as president; Marie Jewett, granddaughter of Miles Jewett, as vice-president; Debbie Ann Jewett, granddaughter of Clyde Jewett, as corresponding secretary; Julie Fuller-Jewett, granddaughter of Jennie Fuller-Jewett, as recording secretary and Lissette Meneses-Jewett, great-granddaughter of Clyde Jewett, as treasurer.

With these new officers and the help of their advisors, Robert Marquez-Jewett, grandson of Clyde Jewett and Sara King-Jewett, we hope to make the South Florida Chapter of the Jewett Family of America as active as possible.

So we hope to keep in touch with all the other Jewett's in America and we also are looking forward to seeing you all at future conventions.

Thank you and God bless you all.

Mid-Florida Reunion

by Martha L. Jewett, Secretary Pro-Tem

A reunion was held at the home of Ranald and Dorothy (Jewett) Brigham in Port Charlotte, Florida on Feb. 9, 1991, with seven people present.

They were: Frank and Betty Jewett of Wayzata, MN; Shirley Garvin of Sarasota; George and Martha Jewett of Bradenton and Ranald and Dorothy (Jewett) Brigham.

Frank Jewett presided and stated the meeting's purpose: to expand and introduce the Jewett organizations nationwide by dividing into regions.

A report on a Jewett brochure was made by George Jewett. It was suggested that it include genealogy available, Year Book, how to join, submit information, reunions, how to distribute and pay for, compile and organize.

Frank Jewett distributed copies of The 1989 Jewett Family Reunion and mini-history from Rowley, MA.

There was talk about Jewett Family membership cards and plaques (these should include genealogy, member and record number. Should start with #12,000).

Other issues of general interest were discussed.

The meeting was adjourned for a delicious lunch given by Dorothy Jewett Brigham.

Connecticut Pearl/Jewett 1991 Family Reunion

From Mrs. Marion R. Emmons

July 14, 1991, the descendants of the late Austin E. Pearl and his late brother, Frank E. Pearl of Hampton, CT, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hall, Columbia, for their annual pot luck dinner, meeting and fellowship reunion.

Following dinner, Henry Moon, President, conducted a short business meeting. His wife, Mrs. Eleanor (Pearl) Moon, secretary, Hampton, CT, spoke about Jewett family members who had visited them this past year from the west.

The historian report was presented by Marion R. Emmons, Columbia. Hampton, CT, the home of the early Jewett and Pearl family. It does not have any residents named Jewett now.

The oldest member attending was Mrs. Beatrice (Pearl) Thayer, Newington, CT. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stone traveled the greatest distance, from NH.

The large pool and lovely grounds were enjoyed by many. We all appreciate the hospitality of the Hall family to host our reunions these past few years.

1990 Pennsylvania Jewett Family Reunion

The annual reunion of thefamily of Nathan Rodney (#10500) and Silome Jewett of Susquehanna County was held August 5, 1990 at Pennbrook Picnic Grove, Factoryville, PA. Since there is not a rain date for the family gathering on the first Sunday of August, 32 courageous folks met under a covered pavilion and endured an unrelenting rain storm.

A delicious covered dish dinner was enjoyed by all present.

President Bill Nash presided at a brief business meeting at which time marriages, births and deaths of the past year were recorded. We were sorry to report the death of one of our most loyal family members, Anita Nash Shumway, on October 3, 1989.

Of special interest to the family was the January 8, 1990 appointment of Rodney B. Jewett as police chief of the village of Johnson City, NY. Rodney is the son of the late Benson Rodney Jewett.

The 1991 reunion is again scheduled for Pennbrook Grove. A midwinter letter and summer notice will give additional details. Any of our Jewett kinsmen are urged to join us August 4, 1991. For further information contact: William W. Nash, R.D. 1, Box 110, Friendsville, PA18818; telephone: 1-717-552-2335.

Ted Herrmann writes of enjoying two cruises on Chesapeake Bay and two cruises on the Hudson River in the last year or so and several trips abroad, including two to Amsterdam where his daughter and her family have lived. They now live in Naarden. They have a son, Alexander, now 3½ years old.

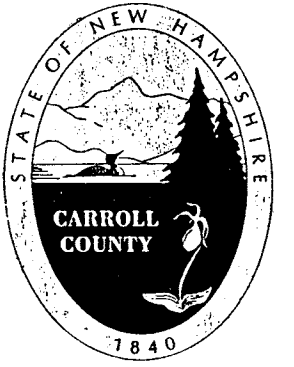
Ted and Clare Herrmann's son, Ted, has opened offices in Florida. His wife, Lucy, is an attorney and they have a son, Teddy IV, now over 2 years old.

Their daughter, Leslie, is in New York City taking architecture.

Judith Jewett Brenner designed a new seal for Carroll Cty, NH after a contest. She won a $100 US savings bond.

Mrs. Brenner said she chose the view of Mount Chocorua to reflect Carroll County's tourist economy. The loon and ladyslipper were included because they are on the "endangered (species) or concerned list."

Judith is the daughter of Edna P. Jewett and the late Everett Douglas Jewett, who was executive secretary of the family for nearly 30 years.



Jewett PFWC Pin

A Federation pin was presented to Pennsylvania Federation Woman's Clubs President, Mrs. John O. Thomas (Eunice) dated 1890, while on the PFWC District Tour.

Any further information regarding this pin and the owner would be appreciated by Eunice A. Thomas, PFWC President for her files. She is also having the GFWC Ex. Director research it.

A NOTE FROM EDNA JEWETT

For several years I have been trying to give this job of being an Historian for The Jewett Family to someone younger than me. Maybe I went about it the wrong way, maybe there is no one who wants it, and possibly I am stuck with it.

However, that is not my intention. This is the last time that I will be writing this bit of news.

I find it very interesting and exciting to be helping to get the third volume of the genealogy into print. The committee will be most happy if every one of the members fills out the blanks that will be mailed along with this year book.

Our member, Lee Jewett Petry, has found that the date of the Indian Attack on the Andrew Jewett Family was May 2, 1865, not 1964 as in the genealogy. Andrew, his wife, Harriet (Bentley), his father, Mark and mother, Susan (Evans) Jewett were all killed in the attack. The son, William Jay Jewett, was found alive in his mother's arms and was sent to Boston and cared for by his relations.

In October, 1990, a query came to us about Charles Thomas Jewett and Agnes (Burns) Jewett and their daughter, Corine Clare Jewett, born August 1, 1926, at Riverhead, N.Y. Corine married Roger Cushman Flinn; their daughter, Deborah Ann Flinn was born Nov. 5, 1952 at Bayshore, L.I., N.Y. Deborah married David Cassidy. Anyone knowing of this family please write to Edna P. Jewett.

Judith Jewett Brenner of Brookfield, N.H. won a contest for the design of a logo for Carroll County. Judith is a granddaughter of Amos Everett Jewett, a former secretary and treasurer of The Jewett Family.

Because members have joined our organization through other Board members, they may have missed getting the coat-of-arms and the welcome letter; if you are one of these people, please let me know.

The Jewetts of Upper Vermont are having a reunion on September First at Montgomery. I hope that some of the Board might make the trip, it is beautiful country up there.

Toujours le meme,
Edna

Eulogy

MALBURNE JEWETT PEABODY

Presented by A. Everett Peabody

My father was a good and decent man, who lived his life true to the traditional values of his old New England puritan heritage. He was proud of his family background which reached back to the Peabodys and Jewetts who settled Massachusetts in the early 1600's. From this bedrock, sprung my father's devotion to family, country and the tenets of Christianity. He was a vice-president of the Jewett Family of America in the 1970's.

Throughout his life, Dad asked little and gave much. He had simple tastes himself, yet sacrificed much to provide for the care and education of his children. He was devoted to my mother, Anne, his wife of 43years.

Dad was a patriot and he believed in his country. He fulfilled his duty through his service in the Navy during World War II and nearly 20 years of service with the Central Intelligence Agency. He entered the service voluntarily prior to the United States' entry into the war, answering a call for engineers. He survived the attack on Pearl Harbor. Although granted a disability upon discharge for a coreoretinitis problem, he declined to accept it.

Dad was a principled man of very high integrity. Challenge Dad on an issue of principle and you would confront a man of unyielding vigor. That's when you could really appreciate the strength of his character and the measure of the man. Backed by a set jaw, steel blue eyes and a stout frame, Dad could indeed cut an imposing figure. He was forceful and fearless. I know he undertook many missions in his career that would have taken the starch out of a lesser man. That is why I think of my father in terms of powerful passages, strong verse and John Phillip Sousa marches.

Notwithstanding the strength of his own character, Dad could be a very compassionate and tolerant man. He had a place in his heart for the weak, the displaced and the downtrodden. He took a personal and genuine interest in people and they responded to him. His sincerity radiated and you could see it. Children responded to it. They loved Dad and he loved them without qualification. He took great pleasure in his four children and five grandchildren.

Dad never qualifed his compassion. He was one of the most egalitarian men I knew or know. Perhaps, the most. You could tell by his deeds. He supported women's rights. He didn't evaluate his friends by race, creed, color or age. In fact, I never heard my father say anything bad about anyone as a class, except for maybe the Communists.

From the individual, Dad expected excellence and he could be a demanding taskmaster. "Don't give it a lick and a promise" or "Work hard and give the ship a good name", I can still hear him say.

For all of the very serious and principled side to his nature, Dad was by no means a dour and unctuous man. On the contrary, he was a playful and colorful man who had lived life with a twinkle in his eye. Round and jocular, jaunty and pert, mischievous and saucy. That was Dad. At no time could you tell it better than when he spun a sea story. Dad loved the sea and he had lots of sea stories to tell. Dad was a human and he had his foibles, not the least of which was a flaring temper.

Finally, Dad expected everyone to move along. "Don't sog or vegetate", he would say. Today, we are here to celebrate his life and in our moment of grief to discover a new closeness to the spirit of the man whom we called Dad.

God Bless him and keep him.

Miss Gladys Pattee

President Frank G. Jewett reports on the life and death of his cousin, Miss Gladys Pattee #6739 (August 9, 1891-December 22, 1990). Her Jewett lineage was through her Mother, Dora Jewett Pattee #4238 (Samuel Albert, Samuel, thence back to Maximilian). He writes:

Inadvertently, Gladys played a role in our Jewett family history by alerting my generation to the importance of her recollections of our forebears who emigrated from Maine to Minnesota and Wisconsin in the 1850's. She stimulated my interest in trying to achieve the updating of the History of the Jewetts of America before more links to the past, like herself, were gone. Fortunately, she knew that work was in progress, before she left us.

Gladys began her life in the same bed in the same house as where it ended 99 years, 4 months and 13 days later on Queen Ave., in the Kenwood neighborhood of Minneapolis, Minn. Her family home was one of the earliest to be built near the end of the 'streetcar line' that opened up a new area that helped Minneapolis become known as the "City of Lakes".

Her life work began during World War 1, helping to rehabilitate wounded soldiers returning from France. A few years later, in about 1926, the Doctors Mayo of Rochester, Minn. invited her to help organize a new department of their clinic to practice what became known as Occupational Therapy, or the returning to normal use of damaged parts of the human body.

After retiring from that long service in 1956, she returned to the family home, converted it from gas lights to electricity and automatic heat and served as raconteur and link to the past for four generations of cousins. She never married and was the last of her immediate family line. Among survivors, of interest, to readers of this Yearbook, are Ann Jewett Smith, Louise Jewett Sudduth, William Sudduth, Jr., Wells Jewett, and Frank G. Jewett.

Gladys attended the Jewett Family Reunion in Shelburne, Vt. in 1975 where she fell and broke her back. She recovered as she did from later falls and fractures. She practiced on herself the therapy she had once taught others and returned to a helpful, happy life among her many caring and loving friends and relatives.

A Memorial Celebration of Gladys Pattee's life was held in the family home on the anniversary of her 100th birthday, August 9, 1991.

N.B. Happily, the 104-year old house where Gladys's life began and ended, is being acquired and restored by a fourth generation cousin who was recently married and is looking forward to raising her family there.

Col. David Jewett and the Falklands

EDITOR'S NOTE: Mrs. Clara Rose Jewett, widow of Frederic Darwin Jewett, was born in Uruguay and raised in Argentina. Her maiden name is Richmond, of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Richmonds in England. She lives in Melbourne, FL.

Her interest in Argentina remains great and she wrote to us of an article in "La Prensa" concerning a Jewett in Argentina.

The document verifying this story is a part of Argentine history and is displayed in a museum of national history.

Here is what she tells us:

Concerning the question of ownership of the Falkland Islands, according to this document dated 14th August 1816, these islands were considered Argentine territory well before 1820.

This document shows that the Argentine frigate "LA HEROINA" under the command of Col. David JEWETT, of the Argentine Navy, by order of the government of Buenos Aires, communicated to the other ships in the convoy that he had been commissioned by the Supreme Government... to take possession of the islands by natural law. (Ricardo Caillet-Bois, "The Falkland Islands, an Argentine Land", Buenos Aires, 1952, Peuser.)

This document is signed by the famous liberator of the southern part of South America, General Jose de San Martin.

Since the colonization by the Spaniards, these islands had been used as a penal colony, to which were sent thieves and political prisoners. The thieves, if they were poor, were exiled for 4 to 8 years and received 200 lashes. If they were rich, they paid 500 pesos instead of the lashes, and still served the sentence.

When San Martin finally liberated Argentina from Spain and made it a free, independent country, the Falkland Islands were a legal and natural part of the Argentine Republic.

It is interesting to note that members of the Jewett family migrated to South America early in that region's history, as did many other British and American families.

The vast expanses of land from East to West and the tremendous length of the two southernmost countries, Argentina and Chile, offered a great variety of climate, topography and catered to any and all types of occupations such as land cultivation, cattle and sheep farming, mining of the rich natural resources, and use of the many offerings of the vast forests. These lands stretch from the tropics to the edge of Antarctica.

Sarah Orne Jewett and Tenants Landing

There is a delightful article in the September, 1990, issue of "Down East" about Tenants Harbor, the coastal town in Maine where Sarah Orne Jewett spent many summers.

She based the background of her famous novel, "The Country of the Pointed Firs", on this town and called her fictional village "Dunnet Landing".

There are beautiful pictures of the town and the ocean and Sarah's summer home. The writing is delightful, nostalgic and a joy to read.

Willard Jewett sent us the magazine and all would enjoy reading the article.
