Letter from the President

Greetings to JFA Members in all corners of our country!

This past summer, on July 4-5-6, 1996, the 30th National Reunion took place in Rowley, Massachusetts. It was, by almost any measure, a resounding success. One of the high points was the tribute to Willard Jewett for his decades of dedicated service. It brought a tear to his eye during the presentation by Dorothy Brigham at the General Membership meeting in the Congregational Church. I don't think there was a dry eye in the room. Bravo Willard!

Colonel Mike Jewett made an excellent presentation on the Ambassador Program followed by the introduction and recognition of many of the 18 new JFA Regional Vice presidents who were present. Bravo Mike! Excellent presentations were made by our Secretary-Treasurer and new Vice-President, Ted Loranz, on our financial condition and need to structure an economical Family Membership dues plan; by Director Cecilia McGehee from Kansas on our Youth Program; and by Dorothy Stitt, Editor-Emeritus and Director for Life, quoting accolades for Volumes III and IV of the History and Genealogy of the Jewetts of America.

Our thanks to Dorothy Brigham for her great creative effort in preparing for this 30th National Reunion, her diligence in keeping everything on track July 4-5-6 and the splendid banquet in Ipswich. Bravo Dorothy! Bravo all!

It was good to have two former JFA Presidents with us: William H. Jewett (1980-81) and Russell Jewett (1982-85). And Claire and Ted Loranz's daughter caught it all on videotape! Bravo Johanna! Our thanks to Dorothy and Jim Stitt for handling the Memorial Service at the Rowley Cemetery. Fine job. Many thanks.

In 1997, we resolve to continue to re-energize our members with new constructive works and to sustain the life of our association with more geographic and family participation. Let us continue to convert our $45,000 worth of current inventory of Volumes III and IV into cash through active sales and gift efforts to a broader market, but especially to family and friends. Let us continue to raise money for Volume V — perhaps even Volume VI — of the History and Genealogy of the Jewetts of America. There is a new vitality in your family association! Join in!

I look forward to hearing from you with suggestions for: (a) next years JFA activity — let me know what is important to you. Would you like to see a 12-minute Jewett videotape produced next year? (b) your comments on the performance of your officers and directors this year — Is the new dues schedule too high? Too low? Did you like Volumes III and IV? (c) And please give some thought to a location for the next National Reunion — the 31st since 1855 — in the year 2001 (we've already had colorful suggestions for Hull or Bradford, England, or the Isle of Wight, facing the English Channel near Southampton!)

We were glad to meet so many of you at the reunion and we thank you all for your interest. Please give your complete cooperation and support to the new regional Vice Presidents, and give your enthusiastic support to Ted Loranz and Cecilia McGehee in identifying and registering all those younger Jewett families with all their new Jewett children! It is now time to send along your contributions to begin work on Volume V — to add to that generous anonymous $20,000 contribution received in July!

As a bonus, we are enclosing with the Year Book a little leaflet entitled "Did You Know?" which contains some interesting historical data about your family and can be used for soliciting new members for the JFA. We are also enclosing a copy of "The Right to Bear Arms" which answers questions so many of you have asked about our Norman origins and our history from 1096 to 1486 to 1638 to 1996. It is suitable for framing and display in your home.

Let me hear from you! Toujours le même!
Theodore V. Herrmann, President

Treasurer's Letter

1996 was a big year for the JFA. Not only did we have a successful three-day reunion, where I was pleased to meet so many of you, but we also received the biggest donation on record in the form of an anonymous $20,000 check received in August. I am sure I speak for the other Officers and Directors, and the entire membership in extending our thanks for the donor's extraordinary generosity. The receipt of the money has certainly replenished our treasury and provides us with an endowment for future projects. At present the money is earning interest in our savings account, but will be invested in a short term CD as soon as I can collect the needed officers' signatures.

Last year it cost approximately $5.50 per member to print and mail the newsletters and yearbook. During the annual Board of Directors Meeting held at the reunion, it was decided to revise the JFA dues schedule to keep it in line with the cots of providing membership services. The following changes were adopted and then presented to the members at the business meeting:

- The annual Individual Member dues will be increased from $10.00 to $15.00. New Individual Member dues will also be $15.00. The former $2.00 application fee will be eliminated.
- The Life Membership fee will remain a one-time charge of $100.00 and is open to anyone.
- The Life Member publication fee will be increased from $3.00 to $5.00. There has been a lot of confusion about this in the past, but Life Members are, and always have been, responsible for reimbursing the JFA for the costs of the publications sent to them.
- Family Membership will be available for the first time in 1997 and the annual dues will be $25.00. A family membership will include both parents and all children 18 years of age and younger living at the same address or away at school. One membership card will be issued to the family as part of the dues notice mailing, and additional membership cards will be issued, by request and upon receipt of dues, to each eligible household members.

More information will be included in the dues notice mailing which will be sent in January 1997.

It has been my pleasure to serve as your Treasurer and Corresponding Secretary for the last several years, and I am pleased to now also be a Vice-President of the JFA. I hope you will all feel free to contact me should you have any questions on the new dues schedule or any other subject. The Officers and Directors certainly do not wish the dues increases to be burdensome to anyone and can offer alternatives, if required, on a case by case basis.

Ted Loranz
Vice-President, Treasurer-Corresponding Secretary

Board of Directors Meeting
The Jewett Family of America, Inc.
July 6, 1996

The 1996 Board meeting of the JFA was brought to order at 9:05 AM on July 6, 1996 at the First Congregational Church of Rowley, Massachusetts, Theodore V. Herrmann, President, presiding. Those in attendance were: 1st Vice-President Dorothy Jewett Brigham; Treasurer and Corresponding Secretary Alfred B. Loranz; Recording Secretary Natalie T. Jewett; Historian and Editor of Publications Lee Jewett Petry; Directors Michael R. Jewett, Cecilia Jewett McGehee, Sarah Jewett King and Nancy Wells Jewett; and Directors for Life William H. Jewett and Dorothy Jewett Stitt.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by William Jewett followed by prayer led by Cecilia McGehee. Theodore Herrmann asked for a moment to remember the Jewetts who are no longer with us.

Thanks were given to the JFA National Reunion Chairman, Dorothy Jewett

Brigham, for the wonderful job she did.

Natalie Jewett read the minutes of the last meeting which, with minor corrections, were approved.

Alfred (Ted) Loranz read the treasurer's report which was approved. Ted then reported on the sending of a dues and fees letter which was mailed to Jewett members who had not been in touch with the JFA for a few years. Some replies had been received.

Ted Loranz also presented a proposal to raise publication fees for Life Members from $3.00 to $5.00, the Individual Membership from $10.00 to $15.00, and to add a new Family Membership at a cost of $25.00 a year. These increases are due to the rising cost of printing and mailing. The new Family membership will cover spouse plus any children under the age of 18 years. Each Family will receive one set of publications and a membership card for each family member. This proposal was accepted by the Board.

Ted Loranz also discussed the increased cost of bulk mailing and the feasibility of sending a mass mailing to all Jewetts listed in the phone directories around the country. A target date of November 15th was set for a new mass mailing.

A temporary lock-up room is being sought for any Jewett papers, books and other memorabilia that may be donated to the JFA. It was suggested that the old school in the center of Rowley, which is being redone, might be used for that purpose. Dorothy Jewett Brigham, Lee Jewett Petry and Natalie Jewett have volunteered to look into this matter. Anyone who has any Jewett papers, books or items and wishes to donate them are asked to contact one of these three volunteers.

Ted Loranz and Natalie Jewett will be going to the Genealogy Library in Boston in an attempt to locate some of Edna Jewett's books and papers which may have been given or sold to the library in error after she died.

Michael Jewett presented his report on the Ambassador Program which is designed to promote interest and expand membership in the JFA. He has recruited 18 Ambassadors but more are needed.

Cecilia McGehee reported on the development of the Youth Program which is designed to identify the youth of the Jewett Family, to promote interest, to develop future leaders and to establish a strong link between Jewett members, the Board and the youth for the preservation and continuation of the JFA. Their duties will include contacting other youths in their area, communicating with other youths via newsletter and yearbooks, and assuming responsibility for youth activities at the JFA reunions.

Ted Loranz was asked to write thank-you notes to Rev. Dr. Dewey Peterson, Rev. Harry G. Meyers and Rev. Father Paul Sullivan for their contribution to the success of this reunion. Ted was also asked to send a set of Volumes III and IV of the History and Genealogy of the Jewetts of America to the Rowley Historical Society.

Lee Petry presented samples of a proposed quarterly publication which would replace the newsletters and yearbook. The quarterly would contain the usual material found in the current publications in addition to clusters set and ready for publication in a future Volume V. The discussion was tabled until afternoon.

Election of officers was held and approved. The officers for the next year are as follows:

The President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer and Secretaries are Directors by virtue of their offices.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:45 AM for the general meeting, lunch and scheduled afternoon programs.

The Board meeting reconvened at 3:45 PM. The first item of business to be brought up was that additions and corrections for Volumes III and IV should be submitted to Lee Petry as soon as possible. Initially a target date of October 15, 1996 was proposed but the overwhelming amount of material being received led to a revised target date of October 15, 1997 at which time a supplement to the volumes would be published in booklet form. The deadline for submittals to the 1996 Yearbook is October 15, 1996. Lee will try to include more pictures in the publications.

Discussion of the quarterly publication was brought back to the table. It was proposed that the new format be adopted in 1997. January 1997 would be the last yearbook followed by three quarterlies during the course of 1997. Regular publication of four quarterlies would begin in 1998. A motion was made and carried that the quarterly format be adopted.

The nominating committee members for the 1998 slate to be presented in 1997 are Michael Jewett, Cecilia McGehee, Sarah King and Stephanie McCormick.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:30 PM.

Respectfully submitted,
Natalie T. Jewett, Recording Secretary

The Jewett Family of America National Reunion July 4, 5 and 6, 1996 Rowley, Massachusetts

The festivities began with registration on Thursday, July 4th in the First Congregational Church where lists were available of Fourth of July activities in the area as well as a brochure which outlined a walking tour of Rowley. There were no daytime activities planned, but so many people gathered informally in the church that Dorothy Brigham put together and served an unexpected lunch for all those who were present. In the evening Reverend Harry G. Meyers presented a video and talk on his trip in 1994 with Hank Jewett for the dedication of the stained glass window in the church in Rowley, England.

Friday's activities included an informational meeting followed by lunch and then a Memorial Service at the Jewett Boulder in the Rowley Burial Ground. Reverend Meyers gave the blessing following by a presentation by Dorothy Jewett Stitt reminding us of the long and illustrious history of the Jewetts and of their beginnings in the community of Rowley. The Burial Ground was one of the first things established in the town and a plot left for its placement is shown in the original town layout. The final blessing was given by James Stitt.

Late in the afternoon there were special guided tours given by members of the Rowley Historical Society of the Platts-Bradstreet House which is owned by the Society. It is an interesting house built before 1677 and altered over the years, and it contains period furnishings and objects from the colonial period. A Reunion Dinner, held in the evening at the Millstone Restaurant in Ipswich, was a grand success and capped the day with style.

The General Membership Meeting was held Saturday morning, July 6th preceded by an organ prelude in the church given by Betty Cook. The meeting got under way with an invocation and prayer by Reverend Dr. Dewey Peterson followed by greetings from the Town of Rowley by Town Clerk Jeanne Grover. A silent prayer led to the welcome and opening remarks by President Theodore V. Herrmann. Past President William H. Jewett led the Pledge of Allegiance. This was followed by the reports, new business, and elections as outlined in the Secretary's minutes. After the meeting, a group photograph was taken in front of the church. Lunch was served and two presentations were given in the afternoon: the first by Reverend Dr. Dewey Peterson on "What's in a Name?" and the second by Steve Vorenberg on computer genealogy. The benediction was given by Reverend Father Paul V. Sullivan, Pastor of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church.

The photographs which had been submitted for publication in Volumes III and IV of the History and Genealogy of the Jewetts of America were laid out on tables for people to collect. (Ted Loranz reports that those not collected in Rowley have all been mailed out to the submitters. If you have not received your, please contact Ted and let him know.)

Note: Dorothy Jewett Brigham reports that the photographs of her parents shown on P. 1264B in Volume IV of the History and Genealogy of the Jewetts of America were not found among those laid out in Rowley. If anyone inadvertently picked them up, please return them to Dorothy. She is also missing a color slide taken at the 50th wedding anniversary of her parents.

The church was a beehive of activity all three days as attendees pored over the material laid out on tables. This included books, photographs of earlier reunions, pamphlets, Jewett memorabilia, samples of the proposed Quarterly format publication, Volumes III and IV of the History and Genealogy of the Jewetts of America and various items of jewelry. Above all was a constant din of conversation as connections were made and names put to faces.

Winners of Volumes III and IV of the History and Genealogy of the Jewetts of America were Natalie Jewett Of Ipswich MA, Bob Harrington of Oshkosh WI, and Dorothy Johnson of Salem NH. Jewett crest cufflinks were won by Eva Haley of Rowley MA and Richard Gorball of Newton IA.

Please see pages 26-27 for the Official Reunion Photograph.

National Reunion Kudos

As the Jewett Family of America National Reunion Chairman, I wish to extend my thanks to all who gave so much of their time and talent to make the Reunion a success. My particular thanks to Sarah Jewett King, Cecilia Jewett McGehee, Nancy Wells Jewett, Natalie Jewett, Virginia Jewett and her husband Granton, and to Gertrude and Willard Jewett who so graciously opened their home in the Reunion's early hours. Special thanks go to Willard whose behind the scenes planning and brain-storming was invaluable. Many thanks also to the five ladies of the First Congregational Church who assisted in the kitchen and then contributed their gratuity to the church renovation fund. Reverend Harry Meyers was a wonderful behind-the scenes host who, among other things, made sure that coffee was ready each morning to get us all going.

The success of the Reunion can be counted by the eagerness shown toward planning the next one and the enthusiasm with which the attendees greeted and participated in this Reunion's program. Again my thanks to all for the help offered and the cooperation received.

Dorothy Jewett Brigham

A Sincere Thank You

As named General Chairman of the 1996 National Jewett Family Reunion, it is my privilege to compliment and thank the several Jewett Family members who made the Reunion so lovely and so successful.

Included are Dorothy Jewett Brigham who planned and carried through so many details, including the speakers and the marvelous meals; Willard Jewett who helped with the speakers and original planning as well as the lists of accommodations and the plans with the Rowley Historical Society; Ted Loranz who handled all the finance details as well as many other assignments; Lee Jewett Petry for her effort to keep us all informed of events, places and plans through the Newsletter; and our President, Ted Herrmann, who worked on program details and the Genealogy volumes.

Numerous unnamed members contributed their time and effort to help with activities in the church. Here is my profound appreciation.

Please read the queries closely. In the last three years there has been no response whatever to any of the queries which have been published in the Yearbooks. It is hard to believe that some little glimmer of recognition has not surfaced. Several of the queries in this Yearbook relate to Jewetts who recently died. Please contact Historian Lee Jewett Petry, 209 Marchmont Road, Knoxville TN 37923 with any information that you can offer. Let's identify and collect data on these unidentified Jewetts. That's what the Jewett Family of America is all about.

William M. Jewett (12529) and wife Agnes, Robert S. Jewett (12528)

The 1996 National Jewett reunion brought together thirty six descendants and families of Marcus John Jewett (10847) of Redwood NY. On July 5th, Fred Jewett Wingerath (12724) and his wife, Meg, entertained this group of relatives, plus a couple of friends, at their home in Winchester MA.

flowcharts of the two Jewett branches and a camera for each child for future recollection of the occasion. It had been many years since such a large group of relatives had converged, and we enjoyed looking at old photos and catching up on family news. We are most grateful to Meg and Fred for Hosting such a memorable party. Fred says, "I am looking forward to the next reunion party in 2001."

The Pennsylvania/New York Jewett Reunion Descendants of Nathan Rodney and A. Silome (Van Housen) Jewett (19511)

The 73rd Pennsylvania/New York Jewett Reunion was held at The Hickories, Oswego NY on Sunday, August 4, 1996. There were 45 members and guests present for a delicious basket lunch which started at approximately 1:15 PM. This year, as last year, there were no members present with the "Jewett" name.

Karen Harvey, President, called the business meeting to order at 2:35 PM. The secretary's minutes and treasurer's report were not available for reading and comment. With the Secretary's minutes unavailable for review, no one could recall any old business that needed to be discussed.

New Business: This year's collection was $88.00 or $93.00 (check money). Bill and Vonda Nash and Jo and Larry Dillon attended the three day National Jewett Reunion in Rowley MA. Bill has been named a Regional Vice-President of the Jewett Family of America, Inc. Bill reminded us that we need to complete and return the papers we were given concerning our individual family lines. We all have numbers assigned to us by which we can trace our lineage forwards and backwards. The JFA has expressed interest in having all family members complete and file their papers to eliminate as many gaps in the lineage as possible. All family members are also encouraged to join the JFA. Bill had a lot of literature on the National Reunion for those present to review.

Bill asked if anyone could remember who has copies of the minute books of past reunions. The minutes are regularly forwarded to the JFA. The minutes of a number of past reunions of our branch need to be turned over, but we don't know where the books are. (Note: Bill gave copies of all the minutes which he had to Historian Lee Petry at the National Reunion.)

Members were asked to review their addresses for any needed corrections. A majority of members attending the reunion expressed an interest in having a mid-winter newsletter sent out. It serves as a reminder of the date of the reunion so that people can include it when making future plans.

Marriages: None. Deaths: None.

Births: Alicia Elaine Sidney Rogers to Cassie and James Rogers on 10 Oct 1995, Lindsey Nicole Price to Teri and Tony Price on 28 Nov 1995, Sarah Rose Longacre to Kristen and Christopher Longacre on 19 Feb 1996, Ashley Irene

We extend a special thanks to Cassie and Jimmie Rogers, Sid Shumway and Karen Harvey for the donation of the barbecued chicken for the lunch.

Next year's reunion site will be announced in the mid-winter newsletter. It was decided to have a white elephant auction at next year's reunion. Cards were signed for those unable to attend. Greetings from Leon and Thelma Kinner were passed on. June Allen is recovering from cardiac surgery.

Election of Officers: President - Karen Harvey, Vice-President - Shelly Wolfe, Secretary-Treasurer - Pat Purdy, Historian - Tom Shumway. Bill Nash and Jo Dillon will be our liaison with the JFA. The meeting was then adjourned.

Following the meeting, the younger set took turns trying to smash the pinata which Karen and Dave brought to the reunion. The children also had a chance to pick out a stuffed animal from the hammock Karen had hung up and filled.

Pat Purdy, Secretary-Treasurer

Robert S. Jewett Reunion

Descendants of Robert S. Jewett (13805) gathered at the home of Frederick Y. and Jane Reichart south of Lafayette IN for their Annual Reunion on Sunday, August 11, 1996.

More than 60 individuals attended. Hale S. Jewett and Catherine Jewett served as hosts for this year's gathering. A delicious dinner was enjoyed at noon in the park near the Reichart home. He spoke of the activities during the National Reunion in Rowley MA on July 4-5-6, 1996. Also in attendance was Michael N. Jewett of Hamilton OH who made comments on the National Reunion. He shared with the group photographs taken during the reunion.

A set of the recently published Volumes III and IV of the History and Genealogy of the Jewetts of America was displayed and discussed. Also a sample of Jewett Family jewelry was circulated among the crowd with information on how it could be ordered.

Guests attending were cousins Bessie (Jewett) Hagerty of Lafayette IN, Robert N. and Jackie Jewett of Hamilton OH, and Leone Huston and Leorne Williams of White County IN. Tentative plans were made to hold the next Robert S. Jewett Reunion at the same location on August 10, 1997.

Happenings of the Jewett Family of Cuba in Florida from Sarah Jewett King:

On Sunday 25 Feb 1996, the Jewett brothers and sisters decided to get together, without the in-laws, just the brothers and sisters; the only one missing was our sister Cecilia (Jewett) McGehee. Our sister Lucille had her husband fix us a delicious lunch, and after lunch we sat around and reminisced about our home and growing up in Cuba — sweet memories! It was a very sentimental afternoon.

1st Row: Clyde A. Jewett Jr., Janet Camacho, James O. Jewett, Lucy Marquez
2nd Row: Alexander M. Jewett, Sarah King, George A. Jewett, Albin Jewett
3rd Row: Douglas M. Jewett, Robert M. Jewett, Clyde M. Jewett, Andrew B. Jewett, Tona Trueba, Richard M. Jewett

Sarah (Jewett) and John (Dick) King went to Israel, England and Scotland in May 1996 with their pastor Bill Billingsley, his wife Betty Jean and a group from their church. In Sarah's words: "We love to travel, and this was our second tour of Israel and Scotland and our fourth to England. We had a great time. This was our pastor's 16th trip to Israel; so we learned so much about the Bible, and we experienced a closer walk with our Lord. Then for the high light of the year — our trip to Rowley for the Jewett family national Reunion!. We drove our car from Florida and thoroughly enjoyed the drive through the Shenandoah Valley in Virginia and the Pocono Mountains in Pennsylvania. On our way to Rowley we stopped in Fall River MA where we were met by my sister Cecilia and her husband Archie McGehee. We visited the Convent and Dominican Academy where we had gone to school in 1942. There are still three of the sisters who taught us and from whom we learned English. Then we all drove to Rowley for the National Reunion where we enjoyed our fellowship with our fine family and the good food prepared for us by Dorothy Brigham, also getting acquainted with Lee Petry, her charming father, and Ted Loranz and his family. On our way back home we had a brief overnight stop in the Pennsylvania Dutch Country of Lancaster and Bird-in-Hand. The Amish farms were a sight to behold."

The following article is from the Metro-Dade Police Newsletter ALERT, Vol. 8, No. 4, April/May 1996:

One look at Reserve Officer Jim King (18266) and you see the kind of face that most people associate with a corporate CEO or perhaps even a state senator. Officer King, a reserve officer for 19 years with the Metro-Dade Police Department, prides himself on his commitment to serving the community. While some reserve officers with his tenure enjoy their hours behind a desk in an administrative position, Jim feels most at home on the streets of the Northside District where he has spent his entire career. Reserve Officer King donates more than 400 hours annually and receives only a dollar a year stipend.

Reserve Officer King has assisted police officers in numerous arrest situations. A recent arrest resulted in a nomination from Major Charles Thompson for the Citizens Advisory Committee (CAC) Officer of the Month award for both Reserve Officer King and his fellow officers of the Northside District's Crime Prevention Unit (CPU). While on routine patrol, Officer King observed a vehicle that matched a BOLO issued earlier in the month involving a polive impersonator and the theft of more than $50,000 in jewelry. The driver, a convicted felon, was carrying a stolen concealed firearm, a gold badge, and plastic ties resembling flexcuffs. Officer King and members of the Northside District followed the subject and arrested him without incident. The subject was later turned over to General Investigations Unit (GIU) detectives where he was positively identified by the victim.

In addition to his patrol duties, Officer King is a full-time mamager of the Human Resources Section of Florida Power and Light. He is also a part-time instructor for Dale Carnegie. Married with two sons, he enjoys scuba diving and serves in a number of professional associations such as the Greater Miami Lakes Rotary Club, and an assortment of other community groups. We are proud of Officer Jim King and his contributions to the community and the Reserve program. He is a fine representative of the Reserve program and sets a standard in his work ethic that is hard to match.

Genealogical Information

Note from Lee Jewett Petry, Historian, Jewett Family of America, Inc.:

When submitting genealogical information for publication or for inclusion in the Jewett files, please include the following information:

- Name (full name please)
- Date of the event with day, first three letters of the month, full year (e.g., 23 Mar 1873)
- Place of the event with city or town, county, state (country if other than the USA)
- For a birth, list parents' names including mother's maiden name
- For a marriage, list spouse's name and parents' names of both bride and groom including the maiden names of both mothers
- Connection, if available, by JFA number in Volumes I through IV of the Jewett Genealogy

Accuracy, as always, is an important part of genealogy.

When submitting newspaper articles, please label them carefully with the name of the newspaper, the city and state in which published and the date of the clipping. I have received unmarked obituaries which stated that the death occurred on Tuesday and without knowing when the obituary was published, Tuesday has no meaning, nor does a town name without the state since there are identical place names in many states.

I cannot emphasize enough the importance of the accurate and timely submittal of information to the Jewett Family of America. We have extensive files of unpublished genealogical data as well as a huge card index, both of which are invaluable in answering queries and in maintaining our history and heritage. Our work did not stop with the publication of Volumes III and IV of the History and Genealogy of the Jewetts of America. The collection of information continues, and a number of Jewett lines have since been opened as well as published lines significantly expanded.

Please check the information in Volumes III and IV on your family line for accuracy and completeness. There are many missing names, dates and places involving contemporary people. A booklet of "Additions and Corrections" will be published at the end of 1997. Please send all data by October 15, 1997 to Lee Jewett Petry, 209 Marchmont Road, Knoxville TN 37923.

Tragedy and Its Aftermath

by Mike Carter, Associated Press

SALT LAKE CITY - Her mother's peaceful death at age 92 finally got Frances Berenice Schreuder (15251) what the murder of her father could not: his money. Or at least what's left of it.

Schreuder, a onetime Manhattan socialite and former member of the board of directors of the New York City Ballet, is six months from parole after serving 12 years of a life term in Utah State Prison for ordering her son to kill her multimillionaire father, Franklin Bradshaw.

Her motive was to inherit the fortune of the oil and auto-parts magnate. And now, finally, she is poised to do just that.

"Frances is the big winner," sighed her sister, Elaine Drukman (15250) of Emeryville CA. Nobody who ever met Frances Schreuder can truly believe that crime doesn't pay, she added. Sometimes, it just takes time. "It's not a very good moral lesson, is it?" Drukman said.

Schreuder, 58, is the main beneficiary in the will left by Bradshaw's widow, Berenice Jewett Bradshaw (15232), who died 24 Feb 1996. According to the will, recently filed probate documents and interviews with family members, Schreuder will receive lifelong income from half the remaining estate, as well as Berenice Bradshaw's ritzy condominium in Salt Lake's Avenues district, a safe-deposit box full of jewelry and her mother's full-length fur coat. The condo, jewelry and coat were all bought with Franklin Bradshaw's wealth following his 1978 murder, family members said.

"It's just not right," said Ernie Jones, the Salt Lake County prosecutor who convicted Schreuder of capital homicide in 1983 and tried unsuccessfully to put her on death row. "She shouldn't collect a dime."

Yet those familiar with the case never had any doubt that Schreuder would someday collect, given the mutually manipulative relationship between Schreuder and her mother. And it also demonstrates, for family members and observers, that Berenice Bradshaw was not altogether blameless in the death of her husband.

"What in my mind underscores the role Berenice played in the murder was the fact that she, to the extent that she was able, made sure that Frances was provided for with what still amounts to blood money," said Jonathan Coleman, author of a best-selling book on the Bradshaw murders, At Mother's Request. "Nobody fanned the flames more than Berenice," Coleman said.

Both of Bradshaw's other surviving daughters say only Schreuder cried at the news of her enfeebled mother's death. "The rest of us were relieved that she passed so peacefully," said her eldest daughter, Marilyn Reagan (15249). "But Frances wept," because she had been pestering her mother for a car. Frances Schreuder did not return messages left at the Northern Utah Community Correctional Facility in Ogden.

Reagan - who along with Drukman were beneficiaries of their father's will - finds deep irony in Schreuder receiving anything at all. But she was consoled that Schreuder probably would be greatly disappointed by the final trust document. "She got the jewelry and the fur," Reagan said. "But where is she going to wear them?" There just isn't much money left, said Reagan. In the 18 years since Bradshaw's death, Berenice Bradshaw traveled extensively, lived lavishly and gave millions to Westminster College and the arts. She even funded a state prison college education program for $110,000. Schreuder was its first graduate. Berenice Bradshaw also spent at least $2 million on attorneys for her daughter and grandson. Moreover, in the last three years of her life, Berenice Bradshaw was mostly bedridden and her round-the-clock medical costs sometimes exceeded $7,000 a week.

Susan Speer, the trust officer at First Interstate Bank, said details of the trust were confidential. But Reagan and Drukman estimate their mother's estate can't be much more that a couple of million dollars, and it probably is less. Of that, Schreuder gets half, less inheritance taxes. The money is set up in a "charitable remainder trust," from which she will receive only a percentage of its worth as income each year. She cannot raid the principal. "Whoever set that trust up knew my sister," said Reagan, who lives in New York City.

Upon Schreuder's death, Berenice Bradshaw willed that the remaining money go to the Utah Opera, Ballet West and Westminster College. Drukman's two sons get the other half of Berenice Bradshaw's estate.

It was Schreuder's lavish lifestyle, paid for by her increasingly reluctant father, that led to his murder in 1978. Bradshaw was 76 when he was shot in the back and head behind the counter of his tiny westside Salt Lake auto parts store. His pockets were turned out and the cash till rifled. The police suspected it was a robbery, and leads in the case quickly dwindled. But two years later, the murder weapon turned up in New York, given to Marilyn Reagan by a man Schreuder owed $3,700. He said Schreuder's son Marc (15281) had given him the gun for safekeeping. Marc Schreuder was convicted and sent to prison in 1982. A year later, he testified against his mother, who was arrested in her luxury upper East Side Manhattan apartment.

Franklin Bradshaw was an eccentric of almost superhuman work ethic and flinty frugality. Worth at least $20 million, he had used an empty beer carton as a briefcase, lunched on homemade meat loaf and drove a ratty, rusting pickup truck. He died with a stained $10 bill tucked into his shoe. In the months before his murder, Bradshaw wearied of his youngest daughter's harping from New York for more and more money, and demanded she get a job. He also threatened to cut her from his will. His wife, who often surreptitiously slipped Frances cash, shared her daughters's longing for the lifestyle her husband's wealth could afford. Schreuder's response to her father's implacability was to send her young sons, Marc and Larry, to live with her parents in Utah in the summer of 1977. The boys later confessed to lacing grandpa's oatmeal with amphetamines - supplied by mom -in hopes he'd have a heart attack. When he didn't, they stole more than $200,000 in stocks and cash.

There were other plots: To set the warehouse on fire, to drop a toaster in Bradshaw's bath. Schreuder was even bilked by a ""hit man" who skipped town with $5,000. That's when Schreuder bore down on 16-year-old Marc. Testimony at both their trials showed an impressionable, devious youth ruthlessly devoted to a mother who held him in Svengali-like sway. "If she wanted you to do something, it was very difficult to say no," he told the jury.

Your Family History

The following was published in the Knoxville News-Sentinel, Knoxville TN on 29 Aug 1995.

Universal Press Syndicate

Dear Abby:

You suggested that "older people" should mark the backs of family picture while they can still remember who's who, and where the pictures were taken and the approximate dates. But why only "older people"? That's something everybody should do as soon as a snapshot or picture is developed.

For years I was too busy (or lazy) to do it, and now that I'm retired and have plenty of time, I can't remember who half the people are!

My parents can't help me because my father has been dead for 25 years, and my mother is in a rest home unable to remember much of anything.

So here I sit with a big box of family pictures, beating my brains out trying to recall names, dates and places. What a mess!

Abby, please remind your readers often to label their pictures. Then their grandchildren won't have to go through what I'm going through now.

Kicking Myself in Asbury Park

Dear Kicking:

Not only should family pictures be labeled, but accounts of historical events and newspaper clippings of births, graduations, marriages and deaths in your family should be dated and kept in a sturdy scrapbook (Note: With a copy sent to the Jewett Family of America). Fascinating family histories could be preserved if younger members interviewed older relatives. A tape recorder would be ideal for this purpose.

Succeeding generations will love it. Trust me.

Family Bible Records

If you have old Family Bibles which contain birth, marriage or death records, please photcopy the pages of information and forward the copies to Historian Lee Jewett Petry, 209 Marchmont Road, Knoxville TN 37923. These Bible pages are invaluable records and should be added to the Jewett Family of America files. You may keep and protect the Family Bible, but will your descendants?

Henry Clay Jewett

Association of Graduates, United States Military Academy
Annual Report, 11 Jun 1935

Henry C. Jewett (8617) was born at Buffalo NY 8 Apr 1879, the son of Josiah Jewett (6020) and Grace (Hall) Jewett. His father, who was a prominent manufacturer and banker, was a Yale graduate and a son of Sherman S. Jewett (3425) and Deborah (Duesenbury) Jewett, prominent early residents of Buffalo. Colonel Jewett's mother was the daughter of the Honorable Nathan K. Hall and Emily (Paine) Hall of Buffalo. Nathan K. Hall, an eminent lawyer became Postmaster General of the United States in the cabinet of President Fillmore, and later United States and District Judge of the Northwest District of New York.

Colonel Jewett's early education was in the city of his birth, he having attended the School of Practice and State Normal School from 1886 to 1897. He entered the United States Military Academy 18 Jun 1897, graduated 18 Feb 1901 and was commissioned a second lieutenant, Corps of Engineers. This commission alone was indicative of his very high scholastic ability.

Cadet Jewett was a fine figure of manhood, which, with his brilliant mind and engaging personality won for him the rank of Cadet Adjutant, a position every cadet secretly coveted. His high qualities were recognized early in his career; this is most appropriately expressed by General Samuel E. Tillman, then Professor of Chemistry, Mineralogy and Geology at the Academy, when he says: "When he (Jewett) was a 2nd Classman and passed throngh the studies of my department for that year he so impressed me that I then put his name on the list of those that I should sometime like to have instruct in the Department. This remained with me and in 1907, I think it was, my application for him was approved and he came back as one of my assistants and served as sueh for four years. During this period of close association with him my appreciation of his marked ability and his other admirable personal characteristics continually increased. He was a most excellent instructor, always dignified and kindly courteous to the pupils. His characteristics were such as always won and never lost friends."

The commissioned service of Lieutenant Jewett began at Fort Totten, New York. He was soon transferred to Washington Barracks, District of Columbia with the 3rd Battalion of Engineers. While at Washington Barracks he attended the Engineer School of Application from which he graduated in March 1903. He also served as Junior Aide at the White House under President Theodore Roosevelt and officiated at the laying of the corner-stone of The Army War College.

As a 2nd Lieutenant he served as Commanding Officer of Company K and accompanied the 3rd Battalion of Engineers to the Philippine Islands. While there he surveyed the boundary of Camp John Hay, Baguio, in the rugged mountainous province of Benguet. He was also in charge of the maintenance of military roads that penetrated the heart of the Island of Mindanao and took part in the campaign against the Moros in 1904-1905. His qualities of leadership, even when a lieutenant, were outstanding and are aptly described by an officer who served under him in Mindanao; this officer says: "He was such a gentleman and had so much common sense and ability and so much appreciation of his fellow beings. I think I never knew another man of so much ability that was so charitable toward others who were not so capably endowed."

Lieutenant Jewett, early in his career, was assigned to the most important duty of River and Harbor work. His first assignment was at Boston in 1906 and during the years to follow, as a Captain and Major, at Portland ME and Portland OR as Assistant and also District Engineer. After the World War (WWI) he again, as Major and Lieutenant Colonel, performed River and Harbor duty as the District Engineer at St. Pawl MN and at Norfolk VA. He accomplished very important works such as the construction of the north jetty at the mouth of the Columbia River and the completion of Dam No. 1, the Twin City Dam, in the Mississippi River between Minneapolis and St. Paul.

His contact with civilians brought high praise of his character and ability, this is well stated in the editorial of the Norfolk Ledger Dispatch written upon hearing of Colonel Jewett's untimely death, the editorial reads: "Colonel Jewett was one of the most admirable exemplars of the ability, energy and scientific knowledge of the Corps of Engineers. Too, he was co-operative and helpful with and to the community and all its agencies to such an extent that, while his specific duties always came first, of course, he was properly and fairly regarded as a friend of the community. That was on his official side. On his personal side, he joined with his simplicity and charm of manner, and his capacity for companionship in winning for him scores of personal friends who are distressed by the news of his death,"

The World War service added to his already distinguished career. At the time of our entry into the War he was at Camp Lewis WA, where he organized and trained the 316th Engineers. As Commanding Officer of this regiment he went to France, and as a part of the 91st Division, took part in the Battle of St. Mihiel. On 26 Sep 1918 he was assigned to command the 182nd Infantry Brigade during the Argonne-Meuse Offensive under circumstances that would try the mettle of any soldier. The 182nd Brigade during one stage of the battle became so badly organized that Colonel Jewett was selected by the Division Commander to go to the front and bring order out of chaos. He did this under heavy enemy fire, and with his re-organized Brigade continued the fight from 17 Sep to 4 Oct 1918 capturing the towns of Very and Eclisfontaine from a determined enemy. For extraordinary heroism during the battle he was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for gallantry in action and was recommended by his Division Commander to be promoted to Brigadier General.

On 23 Oct 1918 Colonel Jewett was appointed Chief of Staff of the 91st Division and as such took part in the Ypres-Lys Offensive in which the Division captured the towns of Walregham and Andenarde, Belgium. While in Belgium after the Armistice, he was present, as the Division Representative, at the official entry of the King of the Belgians and Allied troops into Brussels. Later he participated in the official entry of the French and American troops into Germany at Aix-le-Chapelle, at which point the invading Army of Von Kluck had entered Belgium in August 1914.

This brilliant war record brought well-earned recognition from Belgium by the award of the Cross of an Officer of Leopold I; from France the presentation of the Croix de Guerre with Silver Star and also the Cross of an Officer of the Legion of Honor. From his own country he received the Distinguished Cross for heroism in action, the Purple Heart for wounds received in battle, and the Distinguished Service Medal for exceptionally meritorious service as Brigade Commander, and as Chief of Staff of the 91st Division.

Colonel Jewett during his career held high staff positions and his name was carried on the General Staff Corps Eligible List. As a Captain he was Battalion Adjutant, Post Adjutant and Secretary of the Engineer School. He was a General Staff officer of the American Expeditionary Force. After the War, he was Chief of the Military Division of the Office of the Chief of Engineers, Department Engineer of the Philippine Department from 1925 to 1927, and in 1934 was again holding the same important post at the time of his death, 18 Oct 1834.

Colonel Jewett's duties as an instructor did not end at West Point. he was Director of Civil Engineering at the Engineer School from 1912 to 1915, and again in 1919 he was Assistant Commandant of that School. His unusual ability as an instructor was again recognized by his detail for three years as Director of the G-4 Division at the Army War College. His service as an instructor was, in this field, as distinguished as his war service. Colonel Jewett was a graduate of our highest military schools, the School of the Line, the general Staff School and the Army War College.

Colonel Jewett's service and high qualities have been eulogized by many who have had the good fortune to know him. Major General E.M. Markham, Chief of Engineers says: "His brilliant outstanding military record is an inspiration to every officer of the Corps of Engineers." General Douglas MacArthur, Chief of Staff of the Army says: "Throughout this long military career of more than thirty-three years' commissioned service, Colonel Jewett displayed a high sense of responsibility and devotion to duty. Gifted with a keen logical mind, thoroughly versed in his profession, and of strong personal character, he faithfully and efficiently performed the various assignments with which he was intrusted, enjoying the confidence and esteem of those with whom he came in contact. His death is deeply regretted by his former associates."

Jewett's brilliance as a soldier did not over shadow him as a man among his fellows. As has already been stated his personality was such that made but never lost friends. He was married 18 Apr 1906 at Washington DC to Annie Graham Hume, a graduate of Vassar College and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hume of Washington. Colonel Jewett's inordinate love of travel - especially by sea, was shared by his wife, and whenever he got leave, they took the first ship out. These trips took them over Europe many times, to Egypt, Palestine, Syria, South America and across the Andes up the West Coast, to Peru, to French Indo China and Cambodia, as well as Japan and China, and the many islands of both Atlantic and Pacific. He loved the peoples of other lands and their simple ways and habits always fascinated him. Jewett's death ended a most happy and ideal married life that exemplified mutual interest and assistance - a loving companionship. Many paid solemn tribute to his memory at the services at Manila and at Arlington where he was laid to rest amongst a mass of beautiful flowers.

Jewett never for a moment forgot the words: "Duty, Honor, Country, West Point."

Note: Under a special act of Congress, the posthumous rank of Brigadier General was conveyed to Henry Clay Jewett.

Poetry

by Verna Jewett Collett

Writing has been a long-time activity for Verna Jewett Collett (23347) who writes under the pen name of V. Jewett Collett. She has graciously given us permission to print some of her published poetry. She also has written children's stories and hopes to have two of them ready for publication before the end of the year.

Words That Dance Across My Soul

I await the percipience of thought to ignite my soul.

Enabling me to bring forth something beautiful, something droll.

I cogitate on the possibilities of the consciousness supreme.

Prompting new awareness and new thoughts for me.

Spirit now communicates in a mysterious flow.

Words that dance
across my soul.

Thoughts that have echoed thru the passage of time,

Now are poignantly sweet,
subtly woven,

With what was, what is
and what will be.

Spring Swallows

Iridescent flashes swoop and dive,
Welcoming spring, jubilant,
Glad to be alive.
Twittering, fussing, nest must be right,
Little swallow.

Not on the porch light.
With much ado the nest is built.
With lining soft as a baby's quilt.

Now the little ones have left the nest.
Iridescent flashes that swoop and dive,
Are gathering in flocks to survive.
A nip is in the air.
Intuitively they know,
To tarry they do not dare.

I am glad that they are going,
To a land warm and fair.
Know they will return,
To welcome spring as,
Iridescent flashes that swoop and dive,
Jubilant and glad,
To be alive.

Jessica

We returned a little body to earth today,
Only the shell that housed her soul.

Her spirit lingered on a while,
Not wanting to leave that day.
But her soul yearned for her Father,
With Angels to guide her way.

She wanted to tell each loved one,
There was nothing to fear.
She tried to talk to Mommie, but Mommie couldn't hear.
She tried to talk to Daddy , but Daddy wasn't near.

She spoke to me, finally getting thru
"Hi Gamma, it's pretty here, everything just like new.
There's lots of children to play with.
Picked you some flowers and a Daisy too.

"Now Gamma don't worry about me,
I have to go.
One day you will see me again,
And Gamma you'll know."

New York Harbor A cruise down the Hudson River aboard the Clare II closed the Board's business session. To the apparent delight of all, we moved down the river from the Englewood Yacht Basin to New York Harbor and dropped the hook at the foot of the Statue of Liberty. With the sun and some skittering clouds over Lady Liberty's shoulder, we opened a few bottles of champagne. At one time or another during the cruise, all hands took their turn at the wheel. Returning to Englewood by way of the East River, we passed the UN Building and Gracie Mansion, the home of Rudy Giulliani, New York's Mayor. At dusk we passed from the Haarlem River's Spyten Dyvel, into the Hudson again, having waited a few moments for the railroad bridge to open. We then cruised across the river and back to Englewood on the opposite shore. Jim and Dorothy Stitt graciously hosted a farewell dinner party at Le Chateau.
